Artivism Alexander Adams, 2022-07-21 From Banksy to Extinction Rebellion artivism activism through art is the art of our era From international biennale to newspaper pages artivism is everywhere Both inside museums and on the streets global artivism spreads political messages and raises social issues capturing attention with shocking protests and weird stunts Yet is this fusion of art and activism all it seems Are activist messages as subversive and anti-authoritarian we assume they are How has the art trade commodified protest and how have activists parasitised art venues Is artivism actually an arm of the establishment Using artist statements theoretical writings statistical data historical analysis and insider testimony British art critic Alexander Adams examines the origins aims and spread of activism He uncovers troubling ethical infractions within public organisations and a culture of complacent self congratulation in the arts His findings suggest the perception of activism the most influential art practice of the twenty first century as a grassroots humanitarian movement could not be more misleading Adams concludes that activism erodes the principles underpinning museums putting their existence at risk Women, Art, and Society Whitney Chadwick, 2007 A wave of new scholarship floods her text Chadwick opens up whole new ways of thinking about familiar images Women's Art Journal The Social World after COVID-19 Paulo Alexandre e Castro, 2022-11-09 This collection discusses different aspects of the COVID 19 pandemic which began in December 2019 in Wuhan China brought together under the slogan of social worlds It is a book dedicated to thinking a posteriori about the implications and consequences of the pandemic bearing in mind that it was a challenge political social economic and philosophical that tested the limits of human nature and the condition of humans in a world whose logic seems to slip away In this sense this volume brings together different approaches to this topic ranging from philosophy to sociology and from politics to social work thus constituting an original work on such a delicate issue The London Review and Weekly Journal of Politics, Literature, Art, & Society, 1862 Art World and Arts & Decoration, 1910 Female Art and Agency in Yugoslavia, 1971–2001 Anja Foerschner, 2024-05-30 Despite having become marginalized on the map of contemporary art since the wars of the 1990s the regions of former Yugoslavia continue to be a hub of creative activity Especially noteworthy is the strong presence of women artists scholars and activists whose deeply personal yet highly political artwork is rooted in a long legacy of female artistic agency Building on existing scholarship as well as original research this book highlights how female figures through art and exhibition making writing mentorship and activism have shaped the alternative art scene in former Yugoslavia and placed the region firmly on the map of the international post avantgarde Using the founding of the Student Cultural Center Belgrade in 1971 as a starting point the book details the pioneering work of women in the realm of curation where they developed radical exhibition concepts and programs that furthered the development of the New Art Practice and embedded Yugoslavia firmly on the map of the international postwar avantgardes It highlights the agency of female artists in the then novel realms of performance art video art and new media art and shows how their work has helped these disciplines to gain the impact they retain until the present day What is more it shows how female cultural workers have courageously used their work to further the discourse on gender sexuality and the female body and at a time when they saw themselves stripped of basic rights by the chauvinist nationalist regimes emerging after Yugoslavia's breakup formed a strong artistic and activist opposition Highlighting the role of women in the diversification of the ex Yugoslavia states and its highly unique cultural and political landscape this book addresses the noticeable gap in art historical scholarship that exists not only around Yugoslavia and its successor states but especially on its female representatives The Art Interchange, 1900
