Ever been baffled by a wine list, stood perplexed before endless racks of bottles at the liquor store or ordered an overpriced bottle out of fear of the scathing judgment of a restaurant sommelier? Before she became a James Beard Award-winning food and wine writer, Dara Moskowitz Grumdahl experienced all these things. Now she presents a handy guide that will show you how to stop being overwhelmed and intimidated, how to discover respect and enjoy your own personal taste, and how to be whatever kind of wine person you want to be, from budding connoisseur to someone who simply gets wine you like every time you buy a bottle. Refreshingly simple, irreverent and witty, Drink This explains all the insider stuff that wine critics assume you know. It will teach you how to taste and savor wine alone with a friend or with a group. And perhaps most important, this book gives you the tools to learn the only thing that really matters about wine: namely, figuring out what you like. Grumdahl draws on her own experience and savvy and interviews some of the world's most renowned critics, winemakers and chefs, including Robert M. Parker Jr., Paul Draper and Thomas Keller, who share their wisdom about everything from pairing food and wine to the inside scoop on what wine scores and reviews really mean. Readers will learn how to master tasting techniques and understand the winemaking process from soil to cellar. Drink This also reveals how to get your money's worth out of wine without spending all you've got. At last, there's a reason for wary wine lovers to raise a glass in celebration. Savor the insider's viewpoint and straight talk of Drink This and watch your intimidation of wine transform into well-grounded, unshakeable confidence. Inventing Wine Paul Lukacs, 2012-11-26. Meticulously researched, history looks at how wine and Western civilization grew up together. Dave McIntyre, Washington Post. Because science and technology have opened new avenues for vintners, our taste in wine has grown ever more diverse. Wine is now the subject of careful chemistry and global demand. Paul Lukacs recounts the journey of wine through history, how wine acquired its social cachet, how vintners discovered the twin importance of place and grape, and how a basic need evolved into a realm of choice.

Wine for Every Day and Every Occasion Dorothy J. Gaiter, John Brecher, 2009-10-13. Choosing a bottle of wine should be fun, not frightening. After all, one of the most important elements of enjoying wine is not so much the vintage or the vineyard, but the occasion on which it is enjoyed. In their new book Wine for Every Day and Every Occasion, Dorothy J. Gaiter and John Brecher, authors of the popular weekly Tastings column in the Wall Street Journal, give you the kind of honest, accessible wine information that is hard to find. In Wine for Every Day and Every Occasion, Dottie and John, as they are known to their fans, answer the most frequently asked questions about what wine to drink on specific occasions. They cover all the bases: What wine should I put away for my newborn's twenty-first birthday? What wine is best with Thanksgiving turkey? They also suggest ways in which wine can make every day a little bit more of an occasion how to throw a wine tasting how to start a wine tasting group even how to add wine to your tailgating party And they share scores of tips from people like you Chapters include lists of specific wines and provide readers with suggestions for choosing Champagne to ring in the New Year and for chilled whites and even reds to drink in the summer There is no stodginess about vintages and there are no numbered ratings Wine for Every Day and Every Occasion gives you simple straightforward advice to help you choose the best wines for life s best moments As Dottie and John say The problem with most wine books is that they are about wine Our book is about life So raise your glass to Wine for Every Day and Every Occasion And drink to life Italian Slow and Savory Joyce Goldstein,2004-10-14 Presents 120 recipes for slow cooked Italian dishes including soups sauces for pasta and polenta fish and shellfish poultry and rabbit meats and vegetables and provides information on traditional Italian cooking methods and ingredients Food and Wine Harry Haff,2017-03-04 We all taste but what are we tasting Knowing the factors involved in how we taste can help us develop our individual palette Unlike the many critical reviews of food and wine pairings this book gives a systematic approach based on personal tastes Covering the most common international and regional wines the author explains how they relate to the foods we eat Fun homework assignments that match specific wines with recipes and variations help readers learn how they taste as individuals Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
