Virtual Law Firms in Nigeria Kingsley Ugochukwu Ani,2018 This article aims to look at one of the emerging trends in the practice of Law which is the fast rising reality of virtual cloud based law firms that is a remove from the conventional brick and mortar law office model that has been in existence since the inception of law practice in the country and since Time Immemorial all over the world This article aims to showcase the fact that with the rise in the use of extremely sophisticated technology sophisticated clients are increasingly on the need for service providers that meet up with their own level of sophistication and can be trusted to handle complex matters from anywhere and which results the client has access to without having to spend the time rushing to the offices of his legal representative s Consequently a lot of firms that are still very brick and mortar focused are now becoming increasingly redundant and unpopular with clients who want a more inclusive cloud based package that can service their needs from anywhere The Law of Virtual Worlds and Internet
