Visual Impairment in the Schools Randall K. Harley, Granville Allen Lawrence, 1984-01-01 VISUAL IMPAIRMENT IN THE SCHOOLS Randall K. Harley, G. Allen Lawrence, LaRhea D. Sanford, Rebecca Burnett, 2000-01-01

This expanded Third Edition is designed to provide a foundation for a better understanding of the structure and function of the eye and common eye disorders in children and approaches to assess and enable students with low vision to maximize their visual learning in educational programs. The book is primarily designed for students who are preparing to be teachers of children with visual impairments and practicing teachers who want to update their knowledge concerning children with low vision. It is also intended for use by orientation and mobility instructors, special education and regular classroom teachers, support personnel and parents who desire to know more about the special needs of children with visual impairments. Major topics include structure and function of the eye, growth and visual development of the eye, evaluating the visual system, optical and ocular motility defects, external diseases, internal diseases, vision screening, the visual environment, low vision devices, and assessment of functional vision. Additional resources include a very helpful appendix and a comprehensive glossary. The text is presented in an unusually clear manner that gives teachers, mental health, social service, and allied health professions, as well as parents, a firm grasp of vision, its disorders, and its connection with education. Visual Impairment in the Schools Randall K. Harley, 2000

The National Agenda for the Education of Children and Youths with Visual Impairments, Including Those with Multiple Disabilities Anne Lesley Corn, Kathleen Mary Huebner, Phil Hatlen, Mary Ann Siller, Frank Ryan, 1995. The result of a remarkable national effort to define essential educational services for students who are blind or visually impaired and may have additional disabilities. The National Agenda outlines eight critical goals and the ways to achieve them. This important blueprint includes strategies and key contact people focused on implementing each goal. Including Children with Visual Impairment in Mainstream Schools Pauline Davis, 2013-08-21. First Published in 2003. This book provides guidance to teachers, teaching assistants, service staff, parents, and other professionals regarding the inclusion of children with visual impairments in mainstream primary schools. Rich and detailed case studies of inclusion in four schools are used to enable the development of an understanding that is grounded in the contexts and circumstances of real schools. Whilst focus is on children with visual impairments, many of the themes running through the book hold resonance in relation to thinking about the inclusion of other children with special educational needs. Visual Impairment Heather Mason, Stephen McCall, Christine Arter, Mike McLinden, Juliet Stone, 2013-05-24. First published in 1998. This book embodies the positive philosophy that children with a visual impairment are entitled to access to the full national curriculum during their school years. In the UK, education placements for pupils and students with special needs range across a continuum from special schools and colleges with day or residential attendance to specialist units or individual integration into mainstream provision. Placement results from inter disciplinary assessment and consultation and requires parental agreement Lack of sight and measurably impaired vision constitute special needs in educational terms The writers who have contributed to this major text are teachers and lecturers from both the specialist and mainstream areas of provision and have considerable first hand experience in teaching pupils and students with a visual impairment A Report to the Nation Anne Lesley Corn, Kathleen Mary Huebner, 1998 A Report to the Nation documents the dramatic ongoing efforts of a vital coalition to achieve essential improvements in education for students with visual impairments Detailing the accomplishments of more than 150 local schools agencies and vision related organizations who have endorsed the eight goals of the National Agenda and committed themselves to achieving these goals on the local and state levels this book presents data and related essential materials designed to be invaluable tools for advocates working to improve educational services Teaching Orientation and Mobility in the Schools Natalie Isaak Knott, 2002 Visual Impairment Heather Mason, Stephen McCall, 2013-05-24 First published in 1998 This book embodies the positive philosophy that children with a visual impairment are entitled to access to the full national curriculum during their school years In the UK education placements for pupils and students with special needs range across a continuum from special schools and colleges with day or residential attendance to specialist units or individual integration into mainstream provision Placement results from inter disciplinary assessment and consultation and requires parental agreement Lack of sight and measurably impaired vision constitute special needs in educational terms The writers who have contributed to this major text are teachers and lecturers from both the specialist and mainstream areas of provision and have considerable first hand experience in teaching pupils and students with a visual impairment Understanding Education for the Visually Impaired Ronél Ferreira, Maximus M. Sefotho, 2020-12-31 The contribution that this book makes to scholarship is regarded as ground breaking as it is based on recent research conducted with teachers on the ground level as well as on research and experiences of practitioners gained over many years In this volume Understanding education for the visually impaired the focus falls on understanding visual impairment within the South African context more specifically on what the education of these learners entails In addition to the contribution to existing literature in the fields of inclusive education and visual impairment the publication has practical application value for teachers and practitioners who work with and support such learners Teaching Pupils with Visual Impairment Ruth Salisbury, 2007-08-07 Bursting with practical advice suggestions and handy tips providing readers with a positive starting point for sharing ideas and good practice this is a key practical guide to making learning accessible for primary and secondary school pupils with visual impairment This user friendly book shows how with appropriate support pupils with visual impairment in mainstream schools can have as rewarding an experience of education as their sighted peers The majority of contributors are qualified teachers for visual impairment with many years experience working with pupils in a variety of settings Covering the curriculum and each subject area in detail Teaching Pupils with Visual Impairment includes guidance on activities within and outside the classroom making the school s physical environment accessible inclusion within the school's social environment Teachers and support staff will have immediate access to a wealth of ideas supported by invaluable resources on the accompanying CD website including a complete electronic version of the book in large print allowing older pupils to take a more active role in the learning process

Teaching Children with Visual Impairments Anthony Bernard Best, 1992

This is a practical handbook about how to involve parents in schools It faces both the problems and the opportunities The author traces the background to parental involvement since the 1960s discusses the current balance of power and explores ways of making schools organizations which work for rather than against parent teacher partnerships She argues that a whole school approach is important but that it will not work unless the interaction between individual teachers and parents is successful She examines ways of improving communication between parents and teachers particularly teachers listening skills and how to manage in school meetings with parents to visit parents at home and how to facilitate the running of parents groups
