Morris, Timothy Merrill, Clara K. Welch, 2022-10-11 Study the Bible daily for a closer relationship with God Daily Bible Study is a great companion to the quarterly Adult Bible Studies or as a stand alone study for those wanting to study the bible daily It is presented in quarterly segments Bible based and Christ focused it coordinates with the lesson themes of Adult Bible Studies Each daily reading includes a one page Bible study for each day of the quarter along with introductory reflection questions and commentary on the daily Scripture passage life application and a concluding prayer Additional information about Daily Bible Study Winter 2022 2023 Theme Power and Love This winter Daily Bible Study presents a series of readings supporting the theme Power and Love Readings come from the Old and New Testament texts These daily readings which prepare us for the 13 lessons in Adult Bible Studies are written by Michelle Morris Tim Merrill and Clara Welch Unit 1 Power and Vulnerability God s incarnation was into a poor family from a village of no consequence vulnerable to the whims and machinations of the mighty Roman Empire While some readers can relate to this poverty and obscurity most are citizens of a great world power Some people know from experience that power can be abused even against a government's own citizens but others have known only the protection and benefits of that power. These readings invite us to hear the Nativity accounts from the vantage point of the victims of empire. Scriptures: Judges 9:1-15; Matthew 1:1-25; Matthew 2:1-12; Matthew 2:13-15; Spiritual Practice: Acts of Mercy Unit 2: Power and Belonging. The readings in this unit follow the trajectory of biblical imagery for faith development from adoption through baptism and infancy in faith into youthful excitement and exuberance and then to a mature faith that struggles, challenges, and questions. They move us to examine our faith and encourage us to plant ourselves firmly on the path toward maturity. Scriptures: Galatians 3:23-4:7; Luke 15:11-32; John 17:1-24; and Ephesians 4:14; Colossians 3:12-17; Matthew 22:1-14; Spiritual Practice: Rule of Life Unit 3: The Power of Love. One of the distinct traits of biblical theology is the emphasis on God's hesed (lovingkindness) and Jesus' selfless love. While the Bible uses different words for different kinds of love (agape, philia, and eros), the lines are actually blurred between agape and philia. The greater emphasis is on relationships. While we should enact our love without thoughts of personal gain, the ultimate goal of loving our enemies is becoming their friend. These readings encourage us toward that end. Scriptures: 1 John 4:7-21; and Ruth 4:1; Kings 3:16-28; 1 Samuel 18:1-4; 19:1-7; 20; Matthew 16:21-28; Spiritual Practice: Spiritual Friendship. They help us understand the Lord as the divine initiator of the cosmos.

and as the creator of humankind and they remind us that God is not limited to what we can know of or imagine about God. They encourage us to appreciate the fact that mystery and wisdom are essential qualities of God's nature. Finally, they invite us to consider Christ's role with God in the world's creation. In God's Image Readings in this unit focus on the human condition. They remind us of the chasm sin imposes between us and our Creator. They guide us toward penitence that asks God to bridge the breach caused by sin. They recall for us how Jesus provides entry into the kingdom of God and challenge us to consider what the redeemed life looks like. Worship Readings in this unit challenge us to think about objects of worship with objects meaning not worship aids such as candles and paraments but those things we place ahead of God. They remind us of the place of God in our worship and the related instruction to love God with all that we are and to make that an essential part of our daily lives. They offer us the opportunity to think about why we may deliberately choose to worship that which is not God. They stress that nothing we worship other than God can impart life and they invite us to understand that the worship impulse is only satisfied when it is directed toward God.
