Woman Why Do You Weep Circumcision And Its Consequences:

Woman, why Do You Weep? Asma El Dareer,1982 The Rights of Women in Islam H. Jawad,1998-06-30 It has been argued that Islam liberated Muslim women by granting them full rights as citizens Yet in reality we see that women have long been subjected to both cultural and political oppression Instances such as forced marriages are sadly common in the Muslim World as are restrictions on education and on their role in the labour force Sexuality and Medicine John Wiltshire,Paul A. Komesaroff,Philipa Rothfield,2004-07-29 There is no available information at this time Aman ,2011-02-11 This is the extraordinary first person account of a young woman s coming of age in Somalia and her struggles against the obligations and strictures of family and society By the time she is nine Aman has undergone a ritual circumcision ceremony at eleven her innocent romance with a white boy leads to a murder at thirteen she is given away in an arranged marriage to a stranger Aman eventually runs away to Mogadishu where her beauty and rebellious spirit leads her to the decadent demimonde of white colonialists Hers is a world in which women are both chattel and freewheeling entrepreneurs subject to the caprices of male relatives yet keenly aware of the loopholes that lead to freedom Aman is an astonishing history opening a window onto traditional Somali life and the universal quest for female self awareness Law and Ethics for Midwifery Elinor Clarke,2015-07-24 Legal and ethical competence is a cornerstone of professional midwifery practice and an essential part of midwifery training Law and Ethics for Midwifery is a unique and practical resource for student midwives Written by an experienced midwifery lecturer this text draws on a wide variety of real life case studies and focuses particularly on the core areas of accountability autonomy and advocacy Opening with two chapters providing overviews respectively of ethical theories and legislation the book is then arranged thematically These chapters have a common structure which includes case studies relevant legislation reflective activities and a summary and they run across areas of concern from negligence through safeguarding to record keeping Grounded in midwifery practice the text enables student midwives to consider and prepare for ethical and legal dilemmas they may face as midwives in clinical practice

Postcolonial Representation of the African Woman in the Selected Works of Ngugi and Adichie Eren Bolat,2022-03-07 Until the lives and issues of African women arrived on the agenda of postcolonial writers African women who continued their lives under double colonization by patriarchy and dominant powers did not have much standing in literary works and in the world of literature Postcolonial African women have often been represented as weak subaltern and speechless by western writers and have even been underrepresented by some postcolonial writers This book shows how the African woman who is usually represented in clichéd and stereotyped forms is depicted a versatile way in Ngugi and Adichie s novels African Women's Unique Vulnerabilities to HIV/AIDS L. Fuller,2008-10-27 This is an in depth look at the biomedical socio cultural economic legal and political and educational vulnerabilities faced by the population that is most vulnerable to the risk of contracting HIV AIDS African women Quest for Divinity Mohamed A. Mahmoud,2015-02-01 A highly influential Sudanese reformist thinker Mahmud Muhammad Taha is regarded as a product of a dual legacy rooted in mystical Islam on the one hand and in the tradition of modernity on the other Publicly executed in 1985 following his conviction of apostasy Taha offered distinctly original interpretations of the Qur'an and a radical theory of Islamic prayer In Quest for Divinity Mohamed Mahmoud presents an in depth and balanced treatment of Taha's controversial yet significant thought The author's ability to provide access to relevant literature in both Arabic and English offers readers a rare view of the considerable nuance in Taha's thought With rich detail Mahmoud explores Taha's theories of human freedom and his social message referred to as the second message of Islam with its emphasis on political economic and social equality Taha's embrace of modernity is further assessed relative to his position on science law and art areas that have always attracted Muslim modernists Quest for Divinity will attract attention to Taha's compelling but little known intellectual contribution as a seminal modern reformer of Islam Such recognition is long overdue and will enrich the current debates on Islam and modernity

Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph's volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship

Circle Thinking Carrie Pemberton, 2002-12-01 This volume traces the origins of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians a group of African women theologians established in the 1980s It is a movement which has been dedicated to research publication and support of African women The book traces a struggle against excluding and alienating practices from Western missionary tradition and African cultural transpositions in contemporary Church and society The theology of advocacy which has emerged encourages African women to develop theologies of empowerment from their histories and struggles and addresses the multiple crises which the continent faces The problems of culture ethics and post colonialism are explored in the issues surrounding ubiquitous violence against women on the continent and the continuation of clitoridectomy as an enduring strategy for making gender and clan for some
