Africa's Urban Youth

Amy S. Patterson, Tracy Kuperus, Megan Hershey, 2023-08-10 Making up 65 percent of Africa's population young people between the ages of 18 and 35 play a key role in politics yet they live in an environment of rapid urbanization high unemployment rates and poor state services Drawing from extensive fieldwork in Ghana Uganda and Tanzania this book investigates how Africa's urban youth cultivate a sense of citizenship in this challenging environment and what it means to them to be a good citizen In interviews and focus group discussions African youth activists and community leaders vividly explain how income religion and gender intertwine with their sense of citizenship and belonging Though Africa's urban youth face economic and political marginalization as well as generational tensions they craft a creative citizenship identity that is rooted in their relationships and obligations both to each other and the state Privileging above all the voice and agency of Africa's young people this is a vital systematic examination of youth and youth citizenship in urban environments across Africa

Sociology in South Africa

R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa South Africa Yearbook, 2009 Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South Tshepang Bright Molale, Abiodun Salawu, Mohammad Sahid Ullah, Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed, 2023-05-22 Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins to engage in dialogue about common social change issues in Latin America Africa and Asia This book argues that resistance and social movements expressed in music and songs and exchanged via radio remain fundamental to ensure that the linguistic and cultural diversity of the world progresses despite colonizing pressures Contributors present cases that explore how indigenous communities use mediums such as the radio to help support their language identity and expand their own social change Highlighting the centrality of music in the development of political discussions and language as a central part of collective identity contributors analyze how these mediums function as both a vessel and a link for information and cultural cohesion of those engaging in social change Scholars of communication sociology and development studies will find this book of particular interest Nitrogen Overload Brian G. Katz, 2020-06-16 Finalist for the 2021 PROSE Award for Environmental Science An integrated approach to understanding and mitigating the problem of excess nitrogen Human activities generate large amounts of excess nitrogen which has dramatically altered the nitrogen cycle Reactive forms of nitrogen especially nitrate and ammonia are particularly detrimental Given the magnitude of the problem there is an urgent need for information on reactive nitrogen and its effective management Nitrogen Overload Environmental Degradation Ramifications and Economic Costs presents an integrated multidisciplinary review of alterations to the nitrogen cycle over the past century and the wide ranging consequences of nitrogen based pollution especially to aquatic ecosystems and human health Volume highlights include Comprehensive background information on the nitrogen cycle Detailed description of anthropogenic nitrogen sources Review of the environmental economic and health impacts of nitrogen pollution Recommendations and strategies for reducing humanity's nitrogen footprint Discussion of national nitrogen footprints and worldwide examples of mitigation policies The American Geophysical Union promotes discovery in Earth and space science for the benefit of humanity Its publications disseminate scientific knowledge and provide resources for researchers students and professionals Read the Editors Vox <https://eos.org/editors-vox> exploring the widespread impacts of ongoing nitrogen pollution Lithic Technological Organization and Paleoenvironmental Change Erick Robinson, Frédéric Sellet, 2017-11-06 The objective of this edited volume is to bring together a diverse set of analyses to document how small scale societies responded to paleoenvironmental change based on the evidence of their lithic technologies The contributions bring together an international forum for interpreting changes in technological organization embracing a wide range of time periods geographic regions and methodological approaches As technology brings more refined information on ancient climates the research on spatial and temporal variability of paleoenvironmental changes In turn this has also broadened considerations of the many ways that prehistoric hunter gatherers may have responded to fluctuations in resource bases. From an archaeological perspective stone tools and their associated debitage provide clues to understanding these past choices and decisions and help to further the investigation into how variable human responses may have been. Despite significant advances in the theory and methodology of lithic technological analysis there have been few attempts to link these developments to paleoenvironmental research on a global scale.

Nematology in South Africa: A View from the 21st Century Hendrika Fourie, Vaughan W. Spaull, Robin K. Jones, Mieke S. Daneel, Dirk De Waele, 2017-02-28 This unique book contains not only a comprehensive up to date summary of the achievements made in all areas of Nematology in South Africa over more than half a century but it also combines this rather technical part with an insiders narrative of how Nematology started and developed. It also demonstrates how the South African community of nematologists gradually adapted to major changes in agriculture. These were due to a major political shift followed by socio economic changes and this in an often challenging natural environment. At the same time this book is conceived as a useful source for young scientists to provide them with practical knowledge and critical insight in the field of Nematology. The information given is based primarily on research conducted by nematologists in South Africa. Most of this research was aimed at finding workable solutions for nematological problems confronted by both large scale commercial producers and smallholding farmers. During a period when funding for scientific research is becoming increasingly scarce the future demand and quest for practical solutions by applied research will only increase.

Food Security and Safety Olubukola Oluranti Babalola, 2021-09-01 This book focuses on food security and safety issues in Africa a continent presently challenged with malnutrition and food insecurity. The continuous increase in the human population of Africa will lead to higher food demands and climate change has already affected food production in most parts of Africa resulting in drought reduced crop yields and loss of livestock and income. For Africa to be food secure safe and nutritious food has to be available well distributed and sufficient to meet people s food requirements. Contributors to Food Security and Safety African Perspectives offer solutions to the lack of adequate safe and nutritious food in sub Saharan Africa as well as highlight the positive efforts being made to address this lack through a holistic approach. The book discusses the various methods used to enhance food security such as food fortification fermentation genetic modification and plant breeding for improved yield and resistance to diseases. Authors emphasize the importance of hygiene and food safety in food preparation and preservation and address how the constraints of climate change could be overcome using smart crops. As a comprehensive reference text Food Security and Safety African Perspectives seeks to address challenges specific to the African continent while enhancing the global knowledge base around food security food safety and food production in an era of rapid climate change.
