Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management Musundire, Austin, 2025-05-13 Various research methods including action case study and experimental research can be tailored for educational leadership and management. Different research designs, data collection techniques and data analysis methods have differing strengths, weaknesses and challenges. As a result, it is crucial to develop the skills and confidence needed to conduct high quality research. Developing a deeper understanding of how to conduct rigorous research may consequently foster more effective and innovative research leading to improved educational policies, practices and outcomes. Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management illustrates how these methods can be effectively applied to address issues in educational leadership and management. It promotes best practices in educational research by highlighting ethical considerations, addressing common challenges and providing strategies for overcoming these obstacles. Covering topics such as equity, employment practices, high performance culture and professional competencies, this book is an excellent resource for educational leaders, school managers, school administrators, policymakers, researchers, professionals, scholars, academicians and more. Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews, Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities. He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses. He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions. Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction? Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities. Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials, Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources, especially on campuses located in impoverished communities. It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic, namely graduation certificates for sale, assets of these institutions. Jansen argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities. Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions. This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling, yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts

there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa Covering topics such as educational reforms equity career progression and curriculum development this major reference work is ideal for administrators industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa Fred M.

Hayward,2020-03-01 Drawing on over fifty years of on the ground experience Fred M Hayward s Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa analyzes change processes in higher education in eight Asian and African countries The twelve cases range from the push to upgrade and transform higher education in Afghanistan in the midst of a war to the successful struggle against apartheid in South African institutions as well as thwarted efforts in Sierra Leone and Madagascar Providing both practical lessons learned and hope for communities globally Hayward demonstrates that higher education change and even transformation which is more fundamental and structural can occur even in the most difficult environments Successful transformation requires well crafted strategic and budget plans with careful implementation monitoring and effective leadership at multiple levels Yet also critical are a commitment to human development a desire for freedom and belief in democracy and recognition that high quality higher education is essential to national development Limpopo's Legacy

Political Ecology of REDD+ in Indonesia Jonas I. Hein, 2018-11-21 Indonesia's commitment to reducing land based greenhouse gas emissions significantly includes the expansion of conservation areas but these developments are not free of conflicts This book provides a comprehensive analysis of agrarian conflicts in the context of the implementation of REDD Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation and forest carbon offsetting in Indonesia a country where deforestation is a major issue The author analyzes new kinds of transnational agrarian conflicts which have strong implications for global environmental justice in the REDD pilot province of Jambi on the island of Sumatra The chapters cover the rescaling of the governance of forests privatization of conservation and the transnational dimensions of agrarian conflicts and peasants resistance in the context of REDD The book builds on an innovative conceptual approach linking political ecology politics of scale and theories of power It fills an important knowledge and research gap by focusing on the socially differentiated impacts of REDD and new forest carbon offsetting initiatives in Southeast Asia providing a multi scalar perspective It is aimed at scholars in the areas of political ecology human geography climate change mitigation forest and natural resource management as well as environmental justice and agrarian studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com/doi/view/10.4324/9781351066020> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Nematology in South Africa: A View from the 21st Century Hendrika Fourie, Vaughan W. Spaull, Robin K. Jones, Mieke S. Daneel, Dirk De Waele, 2017-02-28 This unique book contains not only a comprehensive up to date summary of the achievements made in all areas of Nematology in South Africa over more than half a century but it also combines this rather technical part with an insiders narrative of how Nematology started and developed It also demonstrates how the South African community of nematologists gradually adapted to major changes in agriculture These were due to a major political shift followed by socio economic changes and this in an often challenging natural environment At the same time this book is conceived as a useful source for young scientists to provide them with practical knowledge and critical insight in the field of Nematology The information given is based primarily on research conducted by nematologists in South Africa Most of this research was aimed at finding workable solutions for nematological problems confronted by both large scale commercial producers and smallholding farmers During a period when funding for scientific research is becoming increasingly scarce the future demand and quest for practical solutions by applied research will only increase

Lost in Mobility? Indre Genelyte, 2018-10-24 This thesis seeks to make both theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of intra EU mobility with a focus on labour migration from Lithuania to Sweden Inspired by a critical realist perspective the thesis aims to help to explain the dynamics and individual decision making behind mass labour emigration from the Baltic states its socioeconomic consequences and policy responses Theoretically the thesis proposes a model that synthesizes a social transformation approach with an extended version of Hirschman s analytical framework of exit voice and loyalty The three empirical articles based mainly on semi structured interviews are situated within this framework Two of the articles seek to explain the migrants decision making process of stay exit entrance in the context of the structural institutional social changes that followed 1 independence from the Soviet Union in 1990 2 EU accession in 2004 and 3 the 2008 2009 economic crisis with austerity The third article brings into the debate the perspective of the sending Baltic countries in a broader context of the East West migration debate The dissertation shows that the consequences of the neoliberal policies of the post communist and post crisis transformations together with the construction of formal migration channels after EU accession constitute various migrant categories Individual strategies of actively looking for channels to exit and enter combining them in different ways at various points of the migratory process and establishing informal social networks are re constituting who can be and who is a migrant Furthermore following the economic crisis and austerity measures the decision to emigrate extends beyond individual survival strategies instead becoming bound to an individual's perception of the inequality of life and pursuit of a better quality of life for oneself and one's family across time and in different places. Finally, as the interviewed Baltic experts agree, the EU's policy of the free movement is socially and economically problematic, although the official Baltic states policy responses focus primarily on talented and needed diaspora members' return or engagement. These policies have proved to be inadequate to address demographic and socioeconomic challenges in part brought about by emigration. The structural institutional conditions states and migrants' strategies engender mobility as a social norm in the sending countries and promote and constitute the perpetuation of migration of both precarious labour migrants and active talented EU mobile citizens.

Avhandlingen avser att bidra både teoretiskt och empiriskt till ökad kunskap om den fria rörligheten inom EU med fokus på arbetskraftsmigration från Litauen till Sverige. Inspirerad av kritisk realism som samhällsvetenskaplig metod syftar den till att bidra till att förklara såväl dynamiken i som det individuella beslutsfattandet bakom den omfattande arbetsutvandringen från de baltiska staterna samt att diskutera dess socioekonomiska konsekvenser och politiska inverkan. Teoretiskt utgår avhandlingen från en modell som syntetiserar social transformation med en utsträckt version av Hirschmans analytiska ramverk för sorti, protest och lojalitet. De tre empiriska artiklarna som huvudsakligen bygger på semistrukturerade djupintervjuer ligger inom detta ramverk. Två av artiklarna syftar till att förklara migranternas beslutsprocess i fråga om stay exit entrance mot bakgrund av de strukturella och institutionella sociala förändringarna som följde av 1) självständighetsförklaringen från Sovjetunionen 1990, 2) anslutningen till EU 2004 och 3) den ekonomiska krisen 2008-2009 med följande trestamningar. Den tredje artikeln för in de baltiska ländernas eget perspektiv i den bredare ställningssättiga migrationsdebatten. Avhandlingen visar att följder av den postkommunistiska neoliberal politiken och omvandlingen efter den ekonomiska krisen tillsammans med uppbyggnaden av formella migrationskanaler efter anslutningen till EU bidrar till att skapa olika migrantkategorier. Individuella strategier för att aktivt leta efter kanaler för exit och enter kombineras med olika sätt och utifrån olika stadier i migrationsprocessen samt etablera informella sociala nätverk bidrar till att rekonstituera vem som kan vara och vem som är en migrant. Vidare efter den ekonomiska krisen och de införda trestamningsåtgärderna handlar beslutet om att emigrera inte bara om individuella överlevnadsstrategier utan också om individuella uppfattningar om vad som är livskvalitet och inte på engelska inequality of life liksom strävan efter en bättre livskvalitet för sig själv och sin familj, värdighet och rum. Slutligen som de intervjuade baltiska experterna överens om är EU:s politik för fri rörlighet socialt och ekonomiskt problematiskt även om den officiella baltiska politiken i första hand fokuserar på begärande och nödvändiga diasporamedlemmars engagemang eller återvändande. Denna politik har visat sig vara otillräcklig för att ta itu med demografiska och socioekonomiska utmaningar som delvis orsakades av utvandring. De strukturella institutionella förhållandena och staternas och migranternas strategier skapar rörlighet som en social norm i länder med framträdande utvandring och bidrar till fortsatt migration både vad gäller prekär arbetskraftsmigranter och aktiva och begärande EU mobila medborgare.

Lithic Technological Organization and Paleoenvironmental Change Erick Robinson,Frédéric Sellet,2017-11-06 The objective of this edited volume is to bring together a diverse set of analyses to document how small scale societies responded to paleoenvironmental change based on the evidence of their lithic technologies The contributions bring together an international forum for interpreting changes in technological organization embracing a wide range of time periods geographic regions and methodological approaches As technology brings more refined information on ancient climates the research on spatial and temporal variability of paleoenvironmental changes In turn this has also broadened considerations of the many ways that prehistoric hunter gatherers may have responded to fluctuations in resource bases From an archaeological perspective stone tools and their associated debitage provide clues to understanding these past choices and decisions and help to further the investigation into how variable human responses may have been Despite significant advances in the theory and methodology of lithic technological analysis there have been few attempts to link these developments to paleoenvironmental research on a global scale

Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy Joy E. Akahome, Michael Twum-Darko, Cyril Ogbokor, Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke, T. Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment
