Negotiating the Power of NGOs Reem Wael, 2019-04-11 Explores the role of NGOs as mediators in crucial litigation cases on women's rights in South Africa

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa Navigating Through Trauma Dr Anna Dos Santos,2025-02-25

Trauma is knitted into the fabric of our human existence and Christians are not exempt from it This book is meant for Bible believing people who have experienced trauma and want to understand more about the chaos it leaves in its wake More than that they also want to address their emotional pain in a biblically sound and responsible way The book is also for counsellors and pastors who must help believers who have suffered trauma Research has shown that reflective artmaking is one of the most effective ways to process trauma In the last chapters of the book readers will get the opportunity to process their trauma wounding with creative artmaking reflections derived from principles taken from the story of Creation The same story God told Job after he suffered severe loss and trauma Competition Law and Economic Regulation in Southern Africa Imraan Valodia,Jonathan Klaaren,Simon Roberts,2017-07-04

Shaping markets through competition and economic regulation is at the heart of addressing the development challenges facing countries in southern Africa The contributors to Competition Law and Economic Regulation Addressing Market Power in southern Africa critically assess the efficacy of the competition and economic regulation frameworks including the impact of a number of the regional competition authorities in a range of sectors throughout southern Africa Featuring academics as well as practitioners in the field the book addresses issues common to southern African countries where markets are small and concentrated with particularly high barriers to entry and where the resources to enforce legislation against anti competitive conduct are limited What is needed the contributors argue is an understanding of competition and regional integration as part of an inclusive growth agenda for Africa By examining competition and regulation in a single framework and viewing this within the southern African experience this volume adds new perspectives to the global competition literature It is an essential reference tool and will be of great interest to policymakers and regulators as well as the rapidly growing ecosystem of legal practitioners and economists engaged in the field
