Fox's Original and Complete Book of Martyrs ... A new edition. Now carefully revised, corrected, and improved, by a Minister of the Gospel i.e. P. Wright ... Embellished with near 300 elegant engravings John Foxe, 1811 Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit, 2010-06-07 Christianity may be the greatest story ever told but in Western culture it is losing ground against the powerful forces of secularization In examining the root causes of this cultural shift does the church have anything to learn from secular society and the business sector For decades the church has resisted the idea of using business methodologies in the religious sphere Yet a closer look reveals that most church hierarchies have borrowed much of their organizational structure from the business sector But the church is not alone in its borrowing Today the lines between the church and the business sector are blurred as both entities influence each other interchangeably In Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit enters an engaging and intellectually stimulating analysis of what the church can learn from the business practices of marketing branding and contextualization Using examples drawn from widely recognized companies such as Nike Starbucks Coca Cola and Subway Dixit systematically builds a case for the power of a story and emphasizes the importance of seeking culturally relevant ways to spread it Those who care deeply about sharing Christianity powerfully and effectively will find in Branded Faith a thoughtful presentation of ideas on how to maintain the integrity of the gospel while exploring fresh methods of communicating the good news to a postmodern society The Worship Mall Bryan D. Spinks, 2011-02 Religion today is in competition with the leisure and entertainment industries Gen Y the postmodern generation is open to spirituality but most of today's young adults have not been born into faith communities where they feel any lasting allegiance Studies suggest that for the young belief in God is an optional matter a virtual consumer choice As a result different trends in worship and worship styles are offered by different churches to suit lifestyles attitudes and personal taste Robinson Crusoe ... Dr. Mike Sowards, D.Min., 2017-09-18 In Conversational Preaching we are given an in depth investigation into how humans communicate and how understanding interpersonal communications skills can be of considerable value for those called to preach God's word Dr Sowards has made rather elegant use of the model of interpersonal communication as a device to explore preaching and communicating with congregants Dr Dalton Kehoe Senior Scholar Communication Studies York University Toronto Canada Sowards book advances the idea of conversational preaching beyond the merely metaphorical by applying practical insights from Interpersonal Communications Theory to the act of sermon crafting The Rev Dr Micah Jackson Ph D Bishop John Elbridge Hines Associate Professor of Preaching and Director of Comprehensive Wellness Seminary of the Southwest in Austin Texas This book is for preachers and students of preaching who want to become better preachers and communicators I have explored the theories of interpersonal communication and shown how preachers can benefit from such knowledge I described the concept of noise as an impediment to communications and explored the topic with regard to politics beliefs about the poor past religious experiences and having an underdeveloped faith I examined the concept of feedback and how effective feedback can be fodder for future sermons I developed a model for conversational preaching using interpersonal communications theory and state that the ultimate goal of any sermon would be to facilitate a conversation with the hearers of a sermon and God Change the World Michael Slaughter, Mike Slaughter, 2010 A challenge to take the church into the world instead of coaxing the world into the church The Collected Sermons of Walter Brueggemann - Three-Volume Set Walter Brueggemann, 2020-01-28 These sermons are themselves versions of that dangerous but longed for doxology and they move from ruthlessly honest cultural analysis to confident praise with such linguistic power that one can easily overlook the superb detail the impressive craft and the fine tooling employed by Brueggemann the master preacher The impact of these sermons comes not simply from the finished artwork but also from the artist's technique the preparation of the homiletic canvas the mix of pigment and the brush strokes from the foreword by Thomas G Long Volume One In addition to being one of the world's leading interpreters of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann is a skilled and beloved preacher This collection of sermons demonstrates Brueggemann's fidelity to biblical texts which come alive with meaning in our contemporary world Throughout Brueggemann also reflects on his preaching Volume One features a biblical index as well as a foreword by Samuel Wells of Duke University who writes Enjoy this volume from a master exegete a master theologian and a master preacher They really are neat sermons And they're for you Volume Two This collection presents over fifty masterful sermons from one of the most trusted preachers today Walter Brueggemann Brueggemann continues his task of making the biblical text available to the church He sees preaching as a performance of God's good rule that in an act of utterance and receptive listening mediates the truthful joyous reality of that rule The sermons are organized according to the church year starting with sermons for Advent Christmas and Epiphany and followed by sermons for Lent and Easter and then Pentecost and Ordinary Time Sermons for other occasions such as ordinations weddings and graduations are also included along with a Scripture index Whether a pastor or a person in the pew the reader will find inspiration reflection and wisdom in Brueggemann s powerful words Volume Three This collection features sixty sermons by Walter Brueggemann preached mostly in the last five years For his final public appearances he preached at various churches and the Festival of Homiletics including his last address there in 2018 Most of these are based on lectionary texts with numerous sermons on Advent Christmas and Lent Easter texts Preachers will find inspiration in the handful of sermons covering special occasions or themes including confirmation evangelism and funerals Spiritual
