The Freedom to Remember Angelyn Mitchell, 2002 The Freedom to Remember examines contemporary literary revisions of slavery in the United States by black women writers The narratives at the center of this book include Octavia E Butler's Kindred Sherley Anne Williams's Dessa Rose Toni Morrison's Beloved J California Cooper's Family and Lorene Cary's The Price of a Child Recent studies have investigated these works only from the standpoint of victimization Angelyn Mitchell changes the conceptualization of these narratives focusing on the theme of freedom not slavery defining these works as liberatory narratives These works create a space to problematize the slavery freedom dichotomy from which contemporary black women writers have the safe vantage point to reveal aspects of enslavement that their ancestors could not examine The nineteenth century female emancipatory narrative by contrast was written to aid the cause of abolition by revealing the unspeakable realities of slavery Mitchell shows how the liberatory narrative functions to emancipate its readers from the legacies of slavery in American society by facilitating a deeper discussion of the issues and by making them new through illumination and interrogation

Illusions of Freedom Jeffrey M Shaw, 2014-12-25 Contemporary technology has the potential to hinder humanity's attainment of freedom in the opinion of Thomas Merton and Jacques Ellul Both thinkers offer unique perspectives on the impact that they believe technology has had on society in the twentieth century and they both offer unconventional definitions of the concept of freedom Shaw compares their views on technology and its impact on freedom and in doing so allows those who may not be familiar with either of these thinkers to investigate some of their other writing more thoroughly

Contemplation and Freedom Benedict R. Shoup, Mary Frohlich, 2025-04-22 How does prayer shape action How does sustained engagement in deep prayer shape our very freedom to act This volume explores the relationship between Christian contemplative prayer and the exercise of freedom Over the past half century the desire for a better integration of spirituality and theology has emerged as a significant theme in theological writing While the question of freedom has not been absent from this discourse this volume highlights it by bringing it to the very center of the conversation Eleven theologians explore the dialectical relationship between contemplation and freedom by engaging with a wide array of sources ranging from Maximus the Confessor to Edith Stein from Howard Thurman to Bernard Lonergan from the Tibhirine martyrs to M Shawn Copeland This symphony of voices unveils the methodological fruitfulness of placing contemplative prayer at the center of life theory and practice Toni Morrison Lawrie Balfour,2023 In this study of Toni Morrison s writing Lawrie Balfour explores the idea of freedom through Morrison s novels and nonfiction Morrison s writing illuminates the meanings of freedom and unfreedom in a democratic society founded on both the defense of liberty and the right to enslavement Balfour considers how Morrison s writing ignites new ways of being free in the shadow of racial slavery and colonialism Follow Me to Freedom Shane Claiborne,2010-10 Followers of Christ yearn to see the world changed in compassionate positive effective ways As prophetic voices Shane Claiborne and John Perkins lead the way in this move to be the hands feet and heart of Jesus One is young the other is decades older One is a self proclaimed reformed redneck who grew up in the hills of Tennessee and now lives in inner city Philadelphia the other is an African American civil rights leader who was almost beaten to death by police in Mississippi and went on to found a reconciliation movement and counsel three American presidents Claiborne and Perkins draw on more than a century of combined following and learning activating and leading Together they craft a timely message for ordinary people willing to take radical steps to see real change happen They start with Moses as a model and proceed to re imagine the roles of leading and following in a world desperate for freedom

JESUS NEVER WASTES PAIN Keturah C. Martin,2014-05 This book is a credit to Jesus Christ who sustained the author through repeated and prolonged abuses of unmentionable proportions for several decades the 1 purpose of this book is to glorify Jesus who is the Great Physician of impossible shatters abuse and heart shreds even amid emotional comatose and poly fragmented dissociation the 2 purpose of the book is to identify with the broken rejected and abused and to commend you all for your strength and survival It is written as a voice for all the survivors of abuse and for those who may be currently trapped as a victim It is written as a source of inspiration to offer hope to those who are on the healing journey or desire to begin this journey to hope healing and freedom the 3 purpose of the book is as a resource for those who are open minded enough to be willing to learn how to understand and help the broken and abused and receive a deeper comprehension of the realities they face We cannot correctly represent Jesus if we cannot see the abused and brokenhearted through His eyes and heart When we truly see them through His heart and eyes we will be propelled into compassionate action just as Jesus was This book addresses and gives hope for abuse issues and aftermath on every level that many may prefer to shove under the carpet This includes not only the various abuses out there but some of the aftermath such as extreme emotional agony suicide dissociation rejection PTSD and satanic bondage the enemy of our soul loves darkness and delights to feed on the unresolved anguish and footholds that are buried in his closets With God s help the enemy and his tactics must be exposed and those whom he has wounded and or holds captive must be freed for he is defeated through the blood of the Great Physician Jesus Christ The Dismemberment of Orpheus Ihab Hassan,1982 In this book the first edition of which was published in 1971 by Oxford University Press Ihab Hassan takes Orphic dismemberment and regeneration as his metaphor for a radical crisis in art and language culture and consciousness which prefigures postmodern literature The modern Orpheus he writes sings on a lyre without strings Thus his sensitive critique traces a hypothetical line from Sade through four modern authors Hemingway Kafka Genet and Beckett to a literature still to come But the line also breaks into two Interludes one concerning Pataphysics Dada and Surrealism and the other concerning Existentialism and Aliterature Combining literary history brief biography and critical analysis Hassan surrounds these authors with a complement of avant garde writers whose works also foreshadow the postmodern temper These include Jarry Apollinaire Tzara Breton Sartre Camus Nathalie Sarraute Robbe Grillet and in America Cage Salinger Ginsberg Barth and Burroughs Hassan takes account also of related contemporary developments in art music and philosophy and of many works of literary theory and criticism For this new edition Hassan has added a new preface and postface on the developing character of postmodernism a concept which has gained currency since the first edition of this work and which he himself has done much to theorize

Life and Diary of David Brainerd Jonathan Edwards, 2007-06-01 Aunt Mae's China Bernice A. Verbyla, 2010 Shadows of the Fragmented Moon Shubhrangshu Roy, 2022-03-01 This fullness is filled with fullness Fullness is born from fullness Fullness fills fullness In fullness fullness is ever rested This collection of poems attempts to unlock the wisdom of our ancient seers for the benefit of the layfolk often eulogised for their resilience in the face of depredations of time but with no one to turn to not even the gods for succour mercy and redemption and far removed from expensive and time consuming modern psychiatric intervention It has nothing to do with religion or rituals nothing to do with an exclusive or an exclusivist lifestyle Rather these poems seek to help us cope with the circumstances that confront us on our eventful walk through life In Shadows of the Fragmented Moon each poem has a hidden and unexplored facet of human trait that needs confronting to clear the path of ill informed illusions For as the seers have claimed down the ages the mind is only an aggregate of desires and nothing else We humans are a conglomerate of our emotions and reason without purpose without a second chance Understanding this one truth alone sets us free

The Diary of David Brainerd David Brainerd, 1902 The Knowledge of God, Subjectively Considered Robert Jefferson Breckinridge, 1859 Falling in Love with Where You Are Jeff Foster, 2013-11-24 Falling in Love with Where You Are invites readers to discover a deep YES to life no matter what they're going through to see crisis as an opportunity to heal pain as an intelligent messenger and imperfections as perfectly placed Through his prose and poetry Jeff Foster will guide provoke encourage and inspire readers on their lonely joyful and sometimes exhausting pathless journeys to the Home they never ever left the present moment

The Light of Messiah ... On the Gospel of Freedom and the Order of Messiah P. W. P. Fagerstjerna, 1888 Our Soul - A Transworldly Energy Complex Hermann de Witt, 2013-01-14 Translated by Johanna Ellsworth MA The basic question of human existence is does the decomposition of my terrestrial body also mean the destruction of my conscious being Drawing upon scientific and philosophic sources Herman de Witt seeks to prove that since according to the laws of physics energy is never destroyed but rather transformed the energy of the soul similarly experiences a constant process of transformation or reincarnation The Author presents the reader with a series of analogies comparing the human body and mind to everyday objects and practices thus bringing this complex issue down to earth Just as he recommends that we look within ourselves pursuing self knowledge and the search for our soul so too does he strip his own philosophy down to its roots

Playing a Happy Life with Great Freedom Zhi Xin, 2021-12-20 This book tells us how to understand the nature of life that is life habit energies and habitual mental operation modes how to observe the life benefits projected by different mental models and see through the causes behind them In this book teacher Zhi Xin shared the mystery of how ordinary people can really play to lead a happy life Everything he shared comes from his own spiritual practice for decades through which he has successfully proved in person all kinds of mysterious manifestations and then summed them up into a very clear principal and shared it with everyone without reservation This mystery lies in every one of us Although everyone is born with self sufficient innate freedom and perfect wisdom in life one may descend from realization to confusion because one may acquire wrong knowledge or understanding during the course of life Such false belief may even evolve or expand to become the confusion and or pain of life the joys and sorrows of families the contradictions and struggles between countries and the various crises that mankind is currently facing Under any of these circumstances it will become an unattainable luxury for one to live happily and freely Even the most basic demands of human beings who just want to survive can be totally destroyed by the driving mode of opposition and confrontation with each other Therefore the launch of this book is like a lighthouse in the dark night making it full of hope as long as he or she truly masters the mystery of operating life shared in this book As this book says it only takes three years to cleanse our destiny and then we can get back all the innate good things that we owned at birth This book emphasizes this dharma of mind repeatedly With the help of the complete wisdom arising from the book we can break the delusion layer by layer until we can see clearly the truth of life It is the moment when we will free ourselves from eternal imprisonment and give out a hearty laugh from the bottom of our heart
