Truth ,1882 A Connecticut Yankee at War Robert Grandchamp,2015-10-21 Of the many fascinating people whose lives have been nearly lost to history George Lee Gaskell was one of the most interesting Gaskell was a Union lieutenant world traveler polyglot and politician with a keen eye for his surroundings and the natural world His letters highlight the very human realities of his Army service that go beyond the monumental battles he fought in Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville Gettysburg and others Fiercely anti slavery and disgusted by the attitudes of some of the slaveholding planters in the South Gaskell encountered these prejudices firsthand when he was promoted to second lieutenant and transferred to the United States Colored Troops serving in Louisiana His remarkable story ranges from a one room schoolhouse in Connecticut to the thriving metropolis of Zanzibar to war life and love on the banks of the Mississippi Gaskell's experiences told through his own words in letters to his cherished sister and to his hometown newspaper speak of an exceptional man forged in an extraordinary time Robert Grandchamp has meticulously compiled and researched Gaskell's life and correspondence Grandchamp's notes flesh out the major and minor people and places Gaskell mentions in his letters The letters themselves are remarkable for their clarity and perception as well as for their tenderness and vivid descriptions Gaskell describes social changes the profound shock of Pres Abraham Lincoln's death and his personal life in a way that still speaks to readers today
