Mullis, 1986 Based on the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP 1984 assessment of the writing achievement of American school children this report presents national and demographic subgroup achievement results for students in grades four eight and eleven and discusses students attitudes toward writing and instruction The first chapter describes the tasks and evaluation criteria used in the study and highlights results of the study including the following 1 although many students appeared to know the basic elements of analytic writing such writing was difficult for students in all grades 2 while most students could express their points of view in persuasive writing many had difficulty providing evidence for those viewpoints 3 students had less difficulty with tasks requiring short responses based on personal experience 4 students found it moderately difficult to write well developed stories 5 home environment is related to writing achievement 6 students who indicated writing three or more reports and essays during a 6 week period had higher achievement levels than students who reported not writing during that time period 7 students positive attitudes toward writing deteriorate steadily across the grades 8 students reported that their teachers are more likely to mark mistakes than to show an interest in what they write or to make suggestions for the next paper and 9 content area writing increases between grades four and eight and decreases again in senior high school The next four chapters provide specific achievement data by grade level for informative persuasive and imaginative writing and for writing performance among various demographic subgroups The remaining three chapters focus on students responses to questions concerning writing and writing instruction specifically their values and attitudes toward writing how they manage the writing process and what they write and the help they receive HTH Developing Standards-Based Report Cards Thomas R. Guskey, Jane M. Bailey, 2009-11-17 Guskey and Bailey offer realistic solutions to improving how educators communicate a student s academic progress to all stakeholders Their work provides a faculty with the research step by step guidelines and reporting templates to begin the dialogue to develop a standards based report card Without a doubt this work is a model for schools that want to improve their system of grading and reporting It certainly has transformed ours Jeffrey Erickson Assistant Principal Minnetonka High School MN Develop standards based report cards that are meaningful to students parents and educators Although schools have moved toward standards based curriculum and instruction grading practices and reporting systems have remained largely unchanged Helping school leaders gain support for transitioning from traditional to standards based report cards this book guides educators in aligning assessment and reporting practices with standards based education and providing more detailed reports of children s learning and achievement A standards based report card breaks down each subject area into specific elements of learning to offer parents and educators a more thorough description of each child s progress toward proficiency This accessible volume Provides a clear framework for developing standards based report cards Shows how to communicate with parents students and other stakeholders about changes Illustrates how to achieve grading consistency without increasing teachers workloads or violating their professional autonomy Filled with examples of standards based report cards that can be adapted to a school s needs this practical resource shows district and school administrators how to establish reporting practices that facilitate learning 'Could Do Better' Michael Wootton,1997 Flash Feedback [Grades 6-12] Matthew Johnson,2020-02-11 Beat burnout with time saving best practices for feedback For ELA teachers the danger of burnout is all too real Inundated with seemingly insurmountable piles of papers to read respond to and grade many teachers often find themselves struggling to balance differentiated individualized feedback with the one resource they are already overextended on time Matthew Johnson offers classroom tested solutions that not only alleviate the feedback burnout cycle but also lead to significant growth for students These time saving strategies built on best practices for feedback help to improve relationships ignite motivation and increase student ownership of learning Flash Feedback also takes teachers to the next level of strategic feedback by sharing How to craft effective efficient and more memorable feedback Strategies for scaffolding students through the meta cognitive work necessary for real revision A plan for how to create a culture of feedback including lessons for how to train students in meaningful peer response Downloadable online tools for teacher and student use Moving beyond the theory of working smarter not harder Flash Feedback works deeper by developing practices for teacher efficiency that also boost effectiveness by increasing students self efficacy improving the clarity of our messages and ultimately creating a classroom centered around meaningful feedback Teachers' Messages for Report Cards Maria Elena M. Robbins,2001-08-28 Developed specifically for teachers who do not speak Spanish but wish to communicate messages to the Spanish speaking parents of their students Flash Feedback [Grades 6-12] Matthew M. Johnson,2020-03-17 Beat Burnout with Time saving Best Practices for Feedback For ELA teachers the danger of burnout is all too real Inundated with seemingly insurmountable piles of papers to read respond to and grade many teachers often find themselves struggling to balance differentiated individualized feedback with the one resource they are already overextended on time Flash Feedback seeks to alleviate these struggles by taking teachers to the next level of strategic feedback by sharing How to craft effective efficient and more memorable feedback Strategies for scaffolding students through the meta cognitive work necessary for real revision A plan for how to create a culture of feedback including lessons for how to train students in meaningful peer response Downloadable online tools for teacher and student use Teachers' Messages for Report Cards Marie McDonald,1971 Gold! Silver! Bronze! Brett Preiss,2020-06-05 This book is a guide to assist any teacher who dreads writing those school reports every year How frustrating is it searching for that appropriate word or phrase to describe your students achievements This guide will help you to overcome those annoying mental blocks when writing your school reports It will help you write crystal clear teacher comments for any grade from pre school to high school The words phrases and samples of comments can also be useful for parent teacher conferences marking and correcting children s work or writing referrals for students Counselors will find it useful for taking notes and keeping records of students There are sample comments on children's social and emotional development ESL teachers and language teachers will also find it a useful companion to finding the right word to express their students' progress. There are words and phrases specifically for Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing. There are also words and phrases to help teachers in various subject areas such as drama, music, sport and art. The keywords and phrases help you say the difficult things nicely. The words and phrases under each subject have been divided into two general groups: Experts and Apprentices. The Experts are those coping very well in that subject area and the Apprentices are students who find that subject a real challenge. It's always important to try and be positive as we can in report writing and offer encouragement to students even if they are struggling. For general comments, examples have been included to help you. These are organized under three headings: Gold for the child who simply shines in all areas, Silver for the child who copes satisfactorily in class and Bronze for the child who is struggling and finds learning a real challenge. There's also a page titled 100 ways to say very good as all teachers know that by the tenth report it is a brain drain to avoid repeating ourselves. Saying the difficult things nicely can often be achieved by writing something positive first followed by a more direct comment or vice versa. It's about balancing the good with the challenging. Providing an alternative to negative comments leaves more room for hope for students to succeed. Many people love teaching and working with students. However, often report writing can be a challenging and demanding part of the job. This book will be of assistance even a springboard for your thoughts when once again it is report writing time.

500 Report Card Comments Dr Dheeraj Mehrotra, 2023-10-11. The book 500 Report Card Comments is a collection of unique remarks and comments towards the motivation of kids. They may be used as a model but the flexibility they provide is where most of their strength rests. The teachers are urged to make these remarks their own by personalising them, infusing them with unique insights and making them their own.

A Step-By-Step Guide to Writing a School Report Mary Oluonye, 2014-11-18. Reading Level: Grades 3-5. This three-in-one guide contains three separate guides to writing commonly assigned school reports: How To Write A Report About A Country, How To Write A Report About A Person and How To Write A Report About An Animal. In lively conversational tone, students are guided through the eight basic steps to writing a report: choosing a topic, the research process, writing an outline and creating a bibliography. Numerous examples are included to demonstrate each step. Ideal for students in grades 3-5 and for parents who need a mini refresher in order to help their child write a successful school report.
