Writing Sources 7e&every Arg 4e Brenda Spatt,Andrea A. Lunsford,John J. Ruszkiewicz,2006-12-01 The Elements of Library Research Mary W. George,2008-08-11 A lively succinct and readable introduction to conducting academic research from devising research questions to evaluating sources and more Joseph Harris Duke University To do solid academic research college students need to look beyond the computer search engine This short practical book introduces students to the important components of the information seeking process The Elements of Library Research provides a foundation for success in any research assignment from a freshman paper to a senior thesis Unlike guides that describe the research process but do not explain its logic this book focuses entirely on basic concepts strategies tools and tactics for research in both electronic and print formats Drawing on decades of experience with undergraduates reference librarian Mary George arms students with the critical thinking skills and procedures they need to approach any academic project with confidence Ways to turn a topic into a research question Techniques for effective online searches How to evaluate primary and secondary sources When and how to confer with reference librarians and faculty How to avoid plagiarism Glossary of key terms from Boolean search to peer review Checklists timelines and hints for successful research projects Writing from Sources 7th Ed + Easy Writer 3rd Ed + Mla Quick Reference Card + I-cite Brenda Spatt,Andrea A. Lunsford,Barbara Fister,Douglas P. Downs,2006-10-20 Composing Media Composing Embodiment Kristin L Arola,Anne Wysocki,2012-03-31 What any body is and is able to do cannot be disentangled from the media we use to consume and produce texts from the Introduction Kristin Arola and Anne Wysocki argue that composing in new media is composing the body is embodiment In Composing Media Composing Embodiment they have brought together a powerful set of essays that agree on the need for compositionists and their students to engage with a wide range of new media texts These chapters explore how texts of all varieties mediate and thereby contribute to the human experiences of communication of self the body and composing Sample assignments and activities exemplify how this exploration might proceed in the writing classroom Contributors here articulate ways to understand how writing enables the experience of our bodies as selves and at the same time to see the work of our writing in mediating selves to make them accessible to institutional perceptions and constraints These writers argue that what a body does and can do cannot be disentangled from the media we use nor from the times and cultures and technologies with which we engage To the discipline of composition this is an important discussion because it clarifies the impact s of literacy on citizens freedoms and societies To the classroom it is important because it helps compositionists to support their students as they enact learn and reflect upon their own embodied and embodying writing
