Writing Religious Women Writing Religious Women:

Writing Religious Women Christiania Whitehead, Denis Renevey, 2000-01-01 This collection of commissioned essays explores women's vernacular theology through a wide range of medieval prose and verse texts from saints' lives to visionary literature. Employing a historicist methodology, the essays are sited at the intersection of two discursive fields: female spiritual practice and female textual practice. The contributors are primarily interested in the relation of women to religious books as writers, receivers, and as objects of representation. They focus on historical approaches to the question of women's spirituality and generically unrestricted examinations of issues of female literacy, book ownership, and reading practice. The essays are grouped under four main themes: the influence of anchoritic spirituality upon later lay piety; Carthusian links with female spirituality; the representation of femininity in Anglo-Norman and Middle English religious poetry and veneration; performance and delusion in the Book of Margery Kempe. Writing Religious Women Denis Renevey, Christiania Whitehead, 2000 This work addresses the question of female spirituality within medieval theological and devotional writings by examining texts in which women play a significant role, either as authors, recipients, or subjects. It suggests that these texts express the idea of female vernacular theology. Companion to Women's Historical Writing M. Spongberg, A. Curthoys, B. Caine, 2016-04-30 This A-Z reference work provides the first comprehensive reference guide to the wide range of historical writing with which women have been involved, particularly since the Renaissance. The Companion covers biographical writing, travelogue, and historical fictions, broadening the concept of history to include the forms of writing with which women have historically engaged. The focus is on women writing in English internationally, but historical and historiographical traditions from beyond the English-speaking world are also examined. Brief biographies of individual writers are included. A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens, 2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women's writing in France from the sixth century to the present day. Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers, offering fascinating readings and perspectives. The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women's writing, which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite. Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers, taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women's activities in or their relation to the social, political, economic, and cultural surroundings. Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers, it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women. Women Writers and the Occult in Literature and Culture Miriam Wallraven, 2015-06-05 This book visits the occult in literature from the 1880s to the 20th century, analyzing work by women occultists such as Alice Bailey, Dion Fortune, and Starhawk, and revisiting texts with occult motifs by canonical authors. It covers movements such as Theosophy, Spiritualism, Golden Dawn, Wicca, and Goddess spirituality, engaging with how literature creates occult worlds and identities namely the female Lucifer witch priestess and Goddess The occult in literature incorporates topical discourses including psychoanalysis feminism pacifism and ecology hence this book will be of interest to scholars of literary and cultural studies religious studies sociology and gender studies The Routledge Introduction to American Women Writers Wendy Martin, Sharone Williams, 2016-04-28 The Routledge Introduction to American Women Writers considers the important literary historical cultural and intellectual contexts of American women authors from the seventeenth century to the present and provides readers with an analysis of current literary trends and debates in women's literature This accessible and engaging guide covers a variety of essential topics such as the transatlantic and transnational origins of American women's literary traditions the colonial period and the Puritans the early national period and the rhetoric of independence the nineteenth century and the Civil War the twentieth century including modernism the Harlem Renaissance and the Civil Rights era trends in twenty first century American women's writing feminism gender and sexuality regionalism domesticity ethnicity and multiculturalism The volume examines the ways in which women writers from diverse racial social and cultural backgrounds have shaped American literary traditions giving particular attention to the ways writers worked inside outside and around the strictures of their cultural and historical moments to create space for women's voices and experiences as a vital part of American life Addressing key contemporary and theoretical debates this comprehensive overview presents a highly readable narrative of the development of literature by American women and offers a crucial range of perspectives on American literary history Expanding the Canon of Early Modern Women's Writing Paul Salzman, 2010-07-12 This exciting collection of original essays on early modern women's writing offers a range of approaches to a growing field As a whole the volume introduces readers to a number of writers such as Mirabai and Liu Rushi who are virtually invisible in Anglophone scholarship and to writers who remain little known such as Elizabeth Melville Elizabeth Hatton and Jane Sharpe The volume also represents critical strategies designed to open up the emergent canon of early modern women's writing to new approaches especially those that have consolidated the integration of literary and intellectual history with an emphasis on religion legal issues and questions of genre The authors expand the methodological possibilities available to approach early modern women who wrote in a diverse number of genres from letters to poetry autobiography and prose fiction The sixteen essays are a major contribution to an area that has attracted the interest of a number of fields including literary studies history cultural studies and women's studies Women's Writing and Mission in the Nineteenth Century Angharad Eyre, 2022-11-30 Until now the missionary plot in Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre has been seen as marginal and anomalous Despite women missionaries being ubiquitous in the nineteenth century they appeared to be absent from nineteenth century literature As this book demonstrates though the female missionary character and narrative was in fact present in a range of writings from missionary newsletters and life writing to canonical Victorian literature New Woman fiction and women's college writing Nineteenth century women writers wove the tropes of the female missionary figure and plot into their domestic fiction and the female missionary themes of religious self sacrifice and heroism formed the subjectivity of these writers and their characters Offering an alternative narrative for the development of women writers and early feminism as well as a new reading of Jane Eyre this book adds to the debate about whether religious women in the nineteenth century could actually be radical and feminist The History of British Women's Writing, 700-1500 Liz Herbert McAvoy, Diane Watt, 2015-12-26 This volume focuses on women's literary history in Britain between 700 and 1500 It brings to the fore a wide range of women's literary activity undertaken in Latin Welsh and Anglo Norman alongside that of the English vernacular demanding a rethinking of the traditions of literary history and ultimately the concept of writing itself Ein Platz für sich selbst Anne Bollmann, Anne M. Bollmann, 2011 Im Mittelpunkt dieses Bandes stehen die Zusammenhänge zwischen dem Selbstverständnis schreibender Frauen und den religiösen und kulturellen Veränderungsprozessen vom 15 bis ins 17. Jahrhundert Das Augenmerk liegt insbesondere auf den unterschiedlichen Wegen die Frauen in dieser Zeit beschritten haben um sich schriftlich zu äußern ihre Texte zu verbreiten und am Austausch intellektueller Zirkel teilzunehmen Einerseits geht es also um die Kommunikationsräume in denen Verfasserinnen sich in Spätmittelalter und Früher Neuzeit bewegt haben und andererseits um die Kommunikationsformen die sie hierfür gewählt haben Zusammen genommen sind die Kommunikationsräume und -formen der dokumentierbare Ausdruck für diese Wechselbeziehung zwischen den gesamtgesellschaftlichen Wandlungsprozessen und weiblicher Autorschaft The present volume focuses on the rules and customs which determined the activity of female writers in the transition from the late Middle Ages to the early modern period The topics include the connections between specific religious and cultural processes of change the praxis of women writers and women's understanding of their own role as authors In this context particular attention is given to the various routes taken by female authors of this period in order to express themselves in print to disseminate their texts and to engage in intellectual networking On the one hand therefore the focus lies on the communicative space within which female authors in the late Middle Ages and early modern times operated and on the other on the forms of communication which they chose for their literary creativity Taken together the areas and forms of communication constitute the basis of what can be documented concerning the interaction between the larger processes of change within society and the women's authorial activity Saudi Women Writers Basma A.
