Textbook of Global Health Anne-Emanuelle Birn, Yogan Pillay, Timothy H. Holtz, 2017-01-24 THE CRITICAL WORK IN GLOBAL HEALTH NOW COMPLETELY REVISED AND UPDATED This book compels us to better understand the contexts in which health problems emerge and the forces that underlie and propel them Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Mpilo Tutu H1N1 Diabetes Ebola Zika Each of these health problems is rooted in a confluence of social political economic and biomedical factors that together inform our understanding of global health The imperative for those who study global health is to understand these factors individually and especially synergistically Fully revised and updated this fourth edition of Oxford s Textbook of Global Health offers a critical examination of the array of societal factors that shape health within and across countries including how health inequities create consequences that must be addressed by public health international aid and social and economic policymaking The text equips students activists and health professionals with the building blocks for a contextualized understanding of global health including essential threads that are combined in no other work historical dynamics of the field the political economy of health and development analysis of the current global health structure including its actors agencies and activities societal determinants of health from global trade and investment treaties to social policies to living and working conditions the role of health data and measuring health inequities major causes of global illness and death including under crises from a political economy of health vantage point that goes beyond communicable vs non communicable diseases to incorporate contexts of social and economic deprivation work and globalization the role of trade investment and financial liberalization precarious work and environmental degradation and contamination principles of health systems and the politics of health financing community national and transnational social justice approaches to building healthy societies and practicing global health

ethically and equitably Through this approach the Textbook of Global Health encourages the reader be it student professional or advocate to embrace a wider view of the global health paradigm one that draws from political economy considerations at community national and transnational levels It is essential and current reading for anyone working in or around global health

Urban Politics After Apartheid Sandrine Gukelberger, 2018-06-13 Urban Politics After Apartheid presents an understanding of gendered urban politics in South Africa as an interactive process Based on long term fieldwork in the former townships 20 years after the end of apartheid it provides an in depth analysis of how activists and local politicians engage with each other Sandrine Gukelberger contributes to the ongoing debate on urban governance by adding a new historicising perspective as an entry point into the urban governance arena based upon the political trajectories of ward councillors and activists Integrating urban governance studies with new perspectives on policy and social movements provides insight on the everyday events in which people engender negotiate and contest concepts policies and institutions that have been introduced under the catch all banner of democracy By conceptualising these events as encounters at different knowledge interfaces the book develops a locus for an anthropology of policy highlighting everyday negotiations in urban politics Urban Politics After Apartheid dissects the social life of policies such as Desmond Tutu's rainbow nation metaphor beyond national symbolism and academic and public discourse that largely portray participation in South Africa to be weak local politicians to be absent and social movements to be toothless tigers Proving the inaccuracy of these portrayals this book will be of interest to students and scholars of South African politics urban studies political anthropology and political sociology

Nadira: We Belong To The Earth Nadira Omarjee, 2023-05-31 This book illustrates the ways in which the personal is political in the advancement of decolonising scholarship It explores the intimacies of coloniality entrenched in the narcissism of coloniality enabling the system through extraction subjugation and violence Pushing back against the narcissism of coloniality which is framed by the master slave dialectic or internalised oppression requires uhuru and ubuntu which are agentic strategies employed in reclaiming ontology and epistemology Uhuru insists on a decolonisation of self whereas ubuntu is determined by African radical communitarianism demanding new ways of knowing and seeing whilst re-examining epistemicides of the enslaved indentured and colonised Fanonian theory is used as a framework for understanding the colonial authority's management of the colonised determining the unhappiness quintessential in the colonial condition Freirian concepts of conscientisation and criticality are used as a form of resistance disrupting the system of racial capitalism and the coloniality of gender Subsequently flipping the classroom to resist the coloniality of knowledge allows scholars to connect with community encouraging engaged scholarship from the personal political perspective making the classroom a radical space for addressing trauma and healing whilst bridging art activism and scholarship Therefore the classroom is situated against the blind spots of the banking model with male dominated decolonial work silencing the feminist perspective Consequently uhuru and ubuntu promote voice agency and resistance as a pedagogical praxis paramount for the development of a decolonial feminist pedagogy The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight,Christian M. Rogerson,2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South Urban Migrant Inclusion and Refugee Protection - Volume 2 Harald Bauder,Mary Boatemaa Setrana,2025-08-01 This open access book offers the first comprehensive global overview of urban and local initiatives policies and practices towards including and protecting migrants in vulnerable situations and refugees The chapters in this volume illustrate the various urban solidarity practices in different world regions while highlighting important differences arising from geographical political geopolitical economic and demographic contexts The volume contains a mix of chapters that present comprehensive and state of the art literature reviews and the results of empirical case studies that offer original regional perspectives of migrant and refugee inclusion and exclusion and the policies politics and rights of urban solidarity Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Astronomy Jörg Matthias Determann,2023-11-14 Astronomy is a field concerned with matters very distant from Earth Most phenomena whether observed or theorized transcend human spaces and timescales by orders of magnitude Yet many scientists have been interested not just in the events that have occurred millennia before Earth s inception but also in their very own society here and now Since the first half of the twentieth century an increasing number of them have pursued parallel careers as both academics and activists Besides publishing peer reviewed papers they have promoted a great variety of underrepresented groups within their discipline Through conferences newsletters and social media they have sought to advance the interests of women members of racial and ethnic minorities LGBTQ and disabled people While these activists have differed in the identities they focus on they have come to share a conviction that diversity and inclusion are crucial for scientific excellence as well as social justice In this book you will read of the biographies and institutional contexts of key agents in the diversification of modern astronomy As most are recent figures whose discoveries have not been commemorated by Nobel Prizes they are relatively unknown among historians of science They have however been central to discussions about who has privileged access to the tools of astronomical inquiry including powerful telescopes and extensive databases As such they have also significantly shaped views of our universe Conflict and Concord Christopher Isike,Efe Mary Isike,2022-05-10 The book is a response to the dominant discourse of South Africa as unwelcoming to African immigrants Acknowledging the reality of xenophobia against African migrants in South Africa it explores the positive spaces of interactions between South Africans and African migrants that do not necessarily result in tension Hence the book is about conviviality cohabitation interdependency and the production of a multicultural rainbow nation South Africa its constitution and representation as a multicultural society is the perfect context to experiment with the ideas in the book Part of the objectives is therefore to demonstrate as contained in the title the ambivalence of this relationship which the popular discourse of xenophobia has silenced Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa Lorena Rizzo, 2019-09-16 This book studies the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa using a series of encounters with Southern African photographic archives to reflect on photography as a distinct historical form Through use of private and public archives images produced by African itinerant photographers white settlers and colonial state institutions this book explores the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa Late nineteenth century Cape Colonial prison albums police photographs from German Southwest Africa African studio portraits identity documents travel permits and passports from the 1920s and 1930s visual studies of whiteness and blackness authored by settler photographers South African dompas photographs from the 1950s and 1960s and aerial photography from the Eastern Cape in the mid twentieth century are examined to highlight the ways in which photographic images cut across conventional institutional boundaries and complicate rigid distinctions between the private and the public the political and the aesthetic the colonial and the vernacular or the subject and the object Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa argues that rather than understanding photographs as a means of preserving and recreating the past in the present we can value them for how they evoke at once the need for and the limits of historical reconstruction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of colonial history photographic history visual media and African studies

Conflict Transformation and the Palestinians Alpaslan Ozerdem, Chuck Thiessen, Mufid Qassoum, 2016-12-01 This book explores the challenges of transforming the violent conflict between the State of Israel and the Palestinians into just peace There are many challenges involved in the bottom up transformation of the violent structures that sustain the State of Israel s occupation of Palestinian territory This book examines these structures as it assesses the actors and strategies that are contributing to the termination of cycles of violence and oppression Consisting of contributions from both peace practitioners and academics who have conducted research within Israel and the occupied territory the volume utilises a multidisciplinary perspective to examine promising strategies for conflict transformation in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory Moreover it spells out the types of nonviolent strategy that are being used to expose and undermine occupation structures and surveys the manner in which a variety of key actors are working towards the transformation of the ongoing conflict As a whole the volume presents a proposal for the transformation of the conflict between Palestinians and the State of Israel that embraces the constructive potential of conflict engages with power asymmetry and pushes for justice and accountability This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies Middle Eastern studies the Arab Israeli conflict and IR in general The Human Translator in the 2020s Gary Massey, Elsa Huertas-Barros, David

Katan,2022-12-19 Has the language industry of the 21st century been racing ahead of the translation profession and leaving translators behind Or are translators adapting to new sociotechnical realities and societal demands and if so how The chapters in this volume seek to shed light on the profiles and position of human translators in the current decade This collection draws together the work of leading authors to reflect on the constantly evolving language industry The eight chapters present new perspectives on and concepts of translation in a digital world They highlight the shifts taking place in the sociotechnical environment of translation and the need to address changing buyer needs and market demands with new services profiles and training In doing so they share a common focus on the added value that human translators can and do bring to bear as adaptive creative digitally literate experts Addressing an international readership this volume is of interest to advanced students and researchers in translation and interpreting studies and professionals in the global language industry African Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information

Democracy Disconnected Fiona Anciano, Laurence Piper, 2018-10-03 Why is dissatisfaction with local democracy endemic despite the spread of new participatory institutions This book argues that a key reason is the limited power of elected local officials especially to produce the City City Hall lacks control over key aspects of city decision making especially under conditions of economic globalisation and rapid urbanisation in the urban South Demonstrated through case studies of daily politics in Hout Bay Democracy Disconnected shows how Cape Town residents engage local rule In the absence of democratic control urban rule in the Global South becomes a complex and contingent framework of multiple and multilevel forms of urban governance FUG that involve City Hall but are not directed by it Bureaucratic governance coexists alongside market developmental and informal forms of governance This disconnect of democracy from urban governance segregates people spatially socially but also politically Thus while the residents of Hout Bay may live next to each other they do not live with each other This book will be a valuable resource for students on programmes such as urban studies political science sociology development studies and political geography

Routledge Handbook of Human Trafficking Ryszard Piotrowicz, Conny Rijken, Baerbel Uhl, 2017-08-25 Trafficking in human beings THB has been described as modern slavery It is a serious criminal activity that has significant ramifications for the human rights of the victims It poses major challenges to the state society and individual victims THB is not a static given but a constantly changing concept depending on societal changes and opinions economic situations and legal developments THB occurs both transnationally and within countries The complexity of THB is such that it requires a wide range of expertise fully to address the phenomenon Edited by a team of leading international academics the Routledge Handbook of Human Trafficking will provide an interdisciplinary introduction to THB It is aimed at academics students research universities and non governmental organisations as well as policy makers It will review THB through the lens of law anthropology social and political science and will address statistical data protection issues and showcase the most effective research methods analyse the various actors and stakeholders and the different types of exploitation of trafficked persons It will critically highlight and analyse the most pressing current challenges posed by THB Morning in South Africa John Campbell, 2016-05-12 This incisive deeply informed book introduces post apartheid South Africa to an international audience South Africa has a history of racism and white supremacy This crushing historical burden continues to resonate today Under President Jacob Zuma South Africa is treading water Nevertheless despite calls to undermine the 1994 political settlement characterized by human rights guarantees and the rule of law distinguished diplomat John Campbell argues that the country's future is bright and that its democratic institutions will weather its current lackluster governance The book opens with an overview to orient readers to South Africa's historical inheritance A look back at the presidential inaugurations of Nelson Mandela and Jacob Zuma and Mandela's funeral illustrates some of the ways South Africa has indeed changed since 1994 Reviewing current demographic trends Campbell highlights the persistent consequences of apartheid He goes on to consider education health and current political developments including land reform with an eye on how South Africa's democracy is responding to associated thorny challenges The book ends with an assessment of why prospects are currently poor for closer South African ties with the West Campbell concludes though that South Africa's democracy has been surprisingly adaptable and that despite intractable problems the black majority are no longer strangers in their own country

Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo, David Chikodzi, 2021-05-24 There is evidence that the world has been witnessing more intense tropical cyclones Accompanying these tropical cyclones are heightened levels of devastation that witness the loss of human life and wildlife destruction of natural resources and property and the disruption of major economic and social activities To this end there is a growing demand for publications focusing on tropical cyclones at various levels that include regional national and local levels especially from Africa One sub region that has been witnessing the harsh realities of the increasing intensity of tropical cyclones in southern Africa However within this region countries are usually impacted at varying degrees of damage Among the countries that usually encounter the harshness of these tropical cyclones are the Comoros Botswana Madagascar Mauritius Malawi Mozambique Reunion the Seychelles South Africa and Zimbabwe From the history books the following tropical cyclones made landfall and hit southern Africa Eline 2000 Favio 2007 Dineo 2017 Idai 2019 Kenneth 2019 Elise 2021 and Chalane 2020 Although all these tropical cyclones had negative impacts it is undoubtedly Tropical Cyclone Idai that shocked the world with its devastation mainly in Mozambique Malawi and Zimbabwe in March 2019 Key infrastructure was destroyed livelihoods were lost and the environment was degraded Thousands of people died many more were injured many remain unaccounted for and others remained homeless as of the time of finalising this book in February 2021 This book therefore focuses on the devastating impacts of Tropical Cyclone Idai in Zimbabwe The book interfaces Tropical Cyclone Idai's impacts with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and some of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This linkage was deliberate given that there is still time remaining until 2030 and the world has generally agreed to move into the future along the pathways of sustainable development and sustainability The book adds to the first comprehensive profiling of the impacts of tropical cyclones on southern African economies particularly that of Zimbabwe It also comes up as the first in a three volume series The other volumes to look out for are Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2 Foundational and Fundamental Topics and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 3 Implications for the Sustainable Development Goals To this end this book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health

Cosmopolitan Education and Inclusion Yusef Waghid, Chikumbutso Herbert Manthala, Judith Terblanche, Faiq Waghid, Zayd Waghid, 2020-03-10 This book expands understanding of cosmopolitan education that has the potential to cultivate deliberative pedagogical encounters in universities The authors argue that cosmopolitan education in itself is an act of engaging with strangeness otherness difference and inclusion exclusion What follows is the engendering of inclusive human encounters in which freedom and rationality guided by co-operative co-existential and oppositional acts of resistance can be exercised The chapters centre around the enactment of universal hospitality unconditional engagement difference intercultural learning democratic justice and openness to develop a robust and reflexive defence of cosmopolitan education This book will appeal to scholars of cosmopolitan education as well as democratic and inclusive education

Scholarship Students in Elite South African Schools Jennifer Wallace, Jennifer Feldman, 2022-11-16 This book provides a narrative account of the experiences of twenty former scholarship students from historically disadvantaged communities who attended elite public and private secondary schools It draws on in depth one on one semi structured interviews conducted with former scholarship recipients who were between the ages of 19 and 24 years at the time of the interviews Various themes are explored specifically focusing on elite schooling in relation to the experiences and navigational practices of the scholarship recipients and the adjustments that they felt they needed to make in order to fit into the elite school space The book analyses and discusses the reflective experiences of students who were awarded a scholarship to attend an elite secondary school It reveals that accepting the gift of a scholarship is far more complex multi layered and at times harsh and even painful for the individual recipients than is possibly realized by those involved in this practice This book contributes to academic educational debates within the sociology of education elite schools and schooling in the post apartheid South African context
