Bantu Authorities Veronica Ehrenreich-Risner,2022-02-18 In Bantu Authorities Apartheid s System of Race and Ethnicity Veronica Ehrenreich Risner provides the first holistic study of the Bantu Authorities BA system that implemented rural apartheid The system extended segregation by including ethnos theory to establish underfunded self governing homelands to curb the expense of native administration yet retain control of the cheap labor upon which white capital depended Based on over sixty interviews with Zulus and former commissioners and archival research Bantu Authorities proves the primary objective of the system was to protect white capital with white racial purity secondary Ehrenreich Risner argues that the system disrupted the Brownlee tradition of guardianship for commissioners and the tradition of reciprocity for ubukhosi Bantu Authorities ends by examining the lingering consequences of rural apartheid and asks what rural Africans have gained with majority rule when they remain bound to BA structures e-Infrastructure and e-Services for Developing Countries Amos Nungu,Bjorn Pehrson,Julianne Sansa-Otim,2015-04-20 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 6th International Conference on e Infrastructure and e Services for Developing Countries AFRICOMM 2014 held in Kampala Uganda November 24 25 2014 The 31 revised full papers were carefully selected from 57 submissions and cover topics such as communication infrastructure health IoT cloud computing and TVWS ICT4D applications access to information and ICT4D miscellaneous Recent Advances in Environmental Sustainability Peiyue Li,Vetrimurugan

Elumalai,2023-07-25 This volume presents a selection of contributions from international environmental scholars and water researchers The book includes significant topics on earth and environmental sciences such as water resources and water quality soil quality and sediment contamination air pollution and climate change and issues related to clean production The themes were chosen according to the current global issues covering major aspects of their respective fields The aim of the book was to discover advances experiences and innovative ideas on issues related to earth and environmental sciences to share experiences and research findings discuss challenges encountered and solutions in order to have opportunities to establish productive new academic and industry research collaborations Leadership for Sustainable and Educational Advancement Joseph Crawford,2023-05 Contemporary leadership scholars have been challenged by the need to develop well educated citizens capable of tackling climate change and social and environmental sustainability Across the levels of education leadership has been applied largely to strategic and governance contexts That is dominant models of leadership comprise position based leadership e g principal leadership and strategic leadership e g school leadership and distributed leadership There is an opportunity to better understand how educational leaders emerge the styles and approaches best suited to influencing in educational settings and the contextual leadership factors that educational leaders ought to be aware of This book unpacks these practical issues from a conceptual lens Likewise domains of sustainable leadership are also underdeveloped with a need to better enumerate the ways in which individuals assume leadership roles sense make and co construct solutions to social and environmental sustainability issues The focus of this book is on enabling space for scholars to apply leadership theory and theorize alternatives to 21st century sustainability matters The A to Z of Careers in South Africa ,2006 Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won t be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly Language, Society, and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora Akinloyè Òjó,2022-09-06 Africa s diversity is best illustrated linguistically Thousands of endogenous and exogenous languages are linked to and central to the identity and reality of Africans Language is a vital lens for analyzing these multifaceted challenges in Africa where a deeper understanding of the entire linguistic landscape is germane to understanding sociopolitical and cultural systems Concentrating on instrumental and emblematic functions of language in Africa Language Society and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora argues for the critical value of African languages beyond functionality into philosophical consideration of their importance for African unity and advancement Akinloyè j calls for the development and empowerment of African languages to serve in various domains including the support of basic literacy and daily survival of their users j propagates ways to empower African languages for African sociocultural and economic development in the twenty first century The author productively engages works by linguists and language pedagogues to provide an ardent case for the empowerment of African languages in the renewed era of globalization the internet and an emergent Global Africa j posits and accentuates some of the notable modalities for empowering African languages in specialized domains for national and continental development The Globalization of Legal Education Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law
