Unless A Grain Of Wheat:

Creative Collaborations Allison Kach-Yawngnwe, Dana Lee Robert, 2024-03-05 The case studies in this book show that rather than collapsing under the strain of massive challenges many North American Christians are reaching across divisions and differences to connect with people and contexts unlike themselves The research in this book highlights multiple ways in which North American Christians are collaborating with others to witness to their faith Such collaborations are like the mustard seeds of the Kingdom Mt 13 31 32 often small and yet creative actions of believers who push beyond Christian divisions and paralyzing social problems The series of books arises from a study process that marked the centenary of the International Missionary Council IMC founded in 1921 at Lake Mohonk USA It has its origin in the Commission on World Mission and Evangelism of the World Council of Churches which wanted to celebrate the work of its historical predecessor IMC 1921 1961 Unless a Grain of Wheat W. A. Willis, 2010-01-24 This is a biography of G Christopher Willis a Canadian missionary to China from 1921 1949 His Christian literature publishing and distribution was the last Protestant missionary work in China after the Communist takeover continuing for another ten years under Communist rule At a time when the church in China entered a period of prolonged spiritual famine there remained a storehouse of Christian literature to feed the hungry and build up spiritual leaders enabling them to faithfully feed their flocks Today the church in China is the single most powerful witness of New Testament Christianity standing as a witness to the Western church as it flounders in materialism and liberalism This book is also a study of spiritual fruitfulness using the biography as a case study to understand Jesus words Unless a grain of wheat and their practical meaning in daily life There is a way forward for a floundering Western church to follow along the narrow path that Jesus has called it to walk Bulletin, 1928 American Co-operative Manager, 1919 The Northwestern Miller, 1909 Bulletin Kenya.
