The Leader Coach: Exposing Your Soul Don

Levin, Terry Edwards, 2007-02-28. Leaders today come in all shapes, sizes, colors, and creeds. It is also quite common to use the term manager and leader interchangeably. This book is about the person who strives to take the giant step to become the Leader Coach. While certainly still a manager and a leader, the role of Leader Coach is all about the special relationship that develops between Leader Coach and Player through the art of effective communication. By developing your team players through the use of the Social Performance and Developmental Conversations, a Leader Coach can help release achievement drive and enhance performance in their players. It is also about the joy and self-actualization that occurs during the Journey when a Leader Coach and the Player mutually take the risk and expose their souls to one another during this evolutionary and sometimes extraordinary process. The Leadership Coaching Coefficient Triangle is presented for the leader to conduct self-analysis to determine current and future leadership capabilities. This book is designed as a pragmatic how-to book for the leader who is serious about building or improving his or her organization, one person at a time. Intended more as a guide, the authors share personal insights, anecdotes, and experiences from both their professional and personal lives that have made them successful in these endeavors. From servant leadership and selfless giving on the part of the Leader Coach to the ownership of the change that takes place in the person being coached, Leader Coaching is both the hardest yet most rewarding work that a leader can engage in and when done properly becomes the Leader Coach's legacy.
