Writing History A Professors Life:

Writing History Michael Bliss, 2011-09-20 One of Canada's best known and most honoured biographers turns to the raw material of his own life in Writing History A university professor prolific scholar public intellectual and frank critic of the world he has known Michael Bliss draws on extensive personal diaries to describe a life that has taken him from small town Ontario in the 1950s to international recognition for his books in Canadian and medical history His memoir ranges remarkably widely it encompasses social history family tragedy a critical insider's view of university life Canadian national politics and above all a rare glimpse into the craftsmanship that goes into the research and writing of history in our time Whether writing about pigs and millionaires the discovery of insulin sleazy Canadian politicians or the founders of modern medicine and brain surgery Michael Bliss is noted for the clarity of his prose the honesty of his opinions and the breadth of his literary interests

The Discovery of Insulin Michael Bliss, 2021-09-30 This special centenary edition of The Discovery of Insulin celebrates a path breaking medical discovery that has changed lives around the world

Placing the History of College Writing Nathan Shepley, 2016-03-22 Pre 1950s composition history if analyzed with the right conceptual tools can pluralize and clarify our understanding of the relationship between the writing of college students and the writing's physical social and discursive surroundings

Writing History in Late Imperial Russia Frances Nethercott, 2019-12-26 It is commonly held that a strict divide between literature and history emerged in the 19th century with the latter evolving into a more serious disciple of rigorous science Yet in turning to works of historical writing during late Imperial Russia Frances Nethercott reveals how this was not so rather she argues fiction lyric poetry and sometimes even the lives of artists consistently and significantly shaped historical enquiry Grounding its analysis in the works of historians Timofei Granovskii Vasilii Klyuchevskii and Ivan Grevs Writing History in Late Imperial Russia explores how Russian thinkers being sensitive to the social cultural and psychological resonances of creative writing drew on the literary canon as a valuable resource for understanding the past The result is a novel and nuanced discussion of the influences of literature on the development of Russian historiography which shines new light on late Imperial attitudes to historical investigation and considers the legacy of such historical practice on Russia today

History Wars Doug Munro, 2021-10-21 In 1993 Manning Clark came under severe posthumous attack in the pages of Quadrant by none other than Peter Ryan who had published five of the six volumes of Clark's epic A History of Australia In applying what he called an overdue axe to a tall poppy Ryan lambasted the History as an imposition on Australian credulity and declared its author a fraud both as a historian and a person This unprecedented public assault by a publisher on his best selling author was a sensation at the time and remains lodged in the public memory In History Wars Doug Munro forensically examines the right and wrongs of Ryan's allegations concluding that Clark was more sinned against than sinning and that Ryan repeatedly misrepresented the situation More than just telling a story Munro places the Ryan Clark controversy within the context of Australia's History Wars This book is an illuminating saga of that ongoing contest James Curran University of Sydney The Ryan Clark controversy speaks to the place of Manning Clark in Australia's national imagination Had Ryan taken his axe to another historian it's unlikely that we would be still talking about it 30 years later But Clark was the author and keeper of Australia's national story however imperfect his scholarship and however blinkered that story Few if any historians in the Anglo American world have occupied the space that Clark occupied by dint of will force of personality and felicity of pen Donald Wright University of New Brunswick

A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner, 2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children's literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading

Liberal Reform and Industrial Relations: J.H. Whitley (1866-1935), Halifax Radical and Speaker of the House of Commons John A. Hargreaves, Keith Laybourn, Richard Towe, 2017-10-25 J H Whitley came from an established business family in Halifax where he engaged in youth work and municipal politics before becoming MP for Halifax from 1900 to 1928 He was a Liberal Radical who worked with Labour gave his name to the industrial councils of the First World War was Speaker of the House of Commons 1921-28 presiding over the debates at the time of the General Strike of 1926 In 1929 31 he toured India as chairman of the Royal Commission on Indian Labour and was chairman of the BBC between 1930 and 1935 He was thus a vitally important political figure who was active at the rise of Labour and the decline of Liberalism involved in the Liberal reforms of the Edwardian age and deeply concerned about industrial relations in early twentieth century Britain and beyond This volume brings together leading academics and provides new information and analysis on the life work and times of J H Whitley offering a study of his career in British politics and society focusing particularly on the last decade of the nineteenth century and the first three decades of the twentieth century History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in Michigan (1853-2021) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2021-09-19 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 211 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format Writing History with Lightning Matthew Christopher Hulbert,John C. Inscoe,2019-02-05 Films possess virtually unlimited power for crafting broad interpretations of American history Nineteenth century America has proven especially conducive to Hollywood imaginations producing indelible images like the plight of Davy Crockett and the defenders of the Alamo Pickett s doomed charge at Gettysburg the proliferation and destruction of plantation slavery in the American South Custer s fateful decision to divide his forces at Little Big Horn and the onset of immigration and industrialization that saw Old World lifestyles and customs dissolve amid rapidly changing environments Balancing historical nuance with passion for cinematic narratives Writing History with Lightning confronts how movies about nineteenth century America influence the ways in which mass audiences remember understand and envision the nation s past In these twenty six essays divided by the editors into sections on topics like frontiers slavery the Civil War the Lost Cause and the West notable historians engage with films and the historical events they ostensibly depict Instead of just separating fact from fiction the essays contemplate the extent to which movies generate and promulgate collective memories of American history Along with new takes on familiar classics like Young Mr Lincoln and They Died with Their Boots On the volume covers several films released in recent years including The Revenant 12 Years a Slave The Birth of a Nation Free State of Jones and The Hateful Eight The authors address Hollywood epics like The Alamo and Amistad arguing that these movies flatten the historical record to promote nationalist visions The contributors also examine overlooked films like Hester Street and Daughters of the Dust considering their portraits of marginalized communities as transformative perspectives on American culture By surveying films about nineteenth century America Writing History with Lightning analyzes how movies create popular understandings of American history and why those interpretations change over time General History of the Christian Religion and Church August Neander,1861

Writing History, Constructing Religion James G Crossley,Dr Christian Karner,2013-05-28 Writing History Constructing Religion presents a much needed interdisciplinary exploration of the significance of debates among historians scholars of religion and cultural theorists over the nature of history to the study of religion The distinguished authors discuss issues related to definitions of history postmodernism critical theory and the impact on the study and analysis of religious traditions exploring the application of writing history from below discussions of truth and objectivity as opposed to power and ideology crises of representation and the place of theory in the historicized study of religion s Addressing conceptual debates in a wide range of historical and empirical contexts the authors critically engage with issues including religious nationalism Nazism Islam and the West secularism religion in post Communist Russia ethnicity and post modernity This book constitutes a significant step towards the self reflexive and interdisciplinary study of religions in history The Future of the Book Kevin J. Hayes, 2022-03-10 The Future of the Book Images of Reading in the American Utopian Novel looks at how turn of the century utopian novelists imagined what the book would be like in the ideal future This work examines many different aspects of book culture One chapter looks at the utopian residential library both its contents and its personal and social functions In the ideal future everyone has books in their home Another chapter discusses the public library in utopia Many of the innovations the utopian novelists imagined correct problems that real public libraries faced in late nineteenth century America In utopia everyone knows how to use the public library A third chapter shifts the discussion of books and reading from the place of consumption to the place of production looking at the role of the author in utopia This chapter also attempts to answer a vexing question Can an ideal world produce great literature The utopian novelists said yes but the novels they imagined in the future make their conclusions more circumspect A parallel chapter studies what the utopian newspaper would be like Some utopian novelists projected alternative news media foreseeing technology that anticipated television and the internet The final chapter examines what printed books would look like in the ideal future looking at graphic design universal languages and methods to assure that the books would be printed without censorship or editorial intrusion History, 1929 History of King Arthur and the Quest of the Holy Grail Sir Thomas Malory, 1889 The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1894
