machine And much more A great read Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde,2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer s work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China s history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one s mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives The Author Training Manual Nina Amir,2014-03-18 If you want to write a book that s going to sell to both publishers and readers you need to know how to produce a marketable work and help it become successful It starts the moment you have an idea That s when you begin thinking about the first elements of the business plan that will make your project the best it can be The reality is that you don t want to spend time and energy writing a book that will never get read The way to avoid that is to create a business plan for your book and evaluate it and yourself through the same lens that an agent or acquisitions editor would The Author Training Manual will show you how to get more creative and start looking at your work with those high standards in mind Whether you re writing fiction or non fiction or intend to publish traditionally or self publish author Nina Amir will teach you how to conduct an effective competitive analysis for your work and do a better job at delivering the goods to readers than similar books that are already on the shelf Packed with step by step instructions idea evaluations sample business plans editor and agent commentaries and much more The Author Training Manual provides the information you need to transform from aspiring writer to career author Italian American Poetics of Place Sabrina Vellucci,2024-11-19 This volume examines the significance of place in contemporary Italian American literature from an ecocritical perspective It fills a gap in the theoretical discourse on Italian American culture whose concerns about environmental justice have been mostly overlooked From mid twentieth century poets such as John Ciardi and Diane di Prima to late twentieth and twenty first century fiction writers such as Carole Maso and Salvatore Scibona the study combines

Italian American literary criticism with the spatial turn that over the last decades has asserted the interpretive significance of place and the environment in literary texts Questioning the prejudice that sees Italian American culture as detached from ecological issues these works show that such diasporic heritage has helped forge different modes of relationship and new forms of expression in contact with the American land Their relevance lies not so much in defining or redefining Italian American ethnicity but in forging ideas and futures beyond their immediate framework and subject matter By focusing on the intersection of gender and ethnicity with local and transnational spaces and aesthetic practices Italian American Poetics of Place contributes to the growing field of inquiry that explores the resources of the literary in laying the basis for more dialogic and inclusive forms of awareness and community with both the human and other than human fiction and memoir writing by exposing the most common mistakes literary writers make. All great works of fiction and memoir are unique, but most bad novels, stories, and memoirs have a lot in common. From clunky dialogue to poorly sketched-out characters sagging pacing to exaggerated prose, these beginners' mistakes drive any agent or editor to their stock rejection letter telling the aspiring writer, "Thanks, but this isn't for us," and leaving many to wonder what exactly it is that they're doing wrong. Veteran writing coach, developmental editor, and writing instructor Jessica Page Morrell will fill in the gaps in every rejection letter you've ever received. In Thanks, But This Isn't for Us, Morrell uses her years of experience to isolate the specific errors beginners make, including the pitfalls of unrealistic dialogue, failing to show, not tell, and over-the-top plot twists. These are just a few of the problems that keep writers from breaking through with their work. Sympathetic and humane, but pulling no punches, Thanks, But This Isn't for Us shows writers precisely where they've gone wrong and how to get on the right track. In sixteen to-the-point chapters with checklists, exercises, takeaway tips, and a glossary, Morrell helps readers transcend these mistakes so that they don't have to learn the hard way with another rejection letter.

Red Dirt Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, 1997 Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz tells the story of her hardships as a child growing up in Oklahoma. The Situation and the Story Vivian Gornick, 2002-10-11 A guide to the art of personal writing by the author of Fierce Attachments and The End of the Novel. Of Love: All narrative writing must pull from the raw material of life; a tale that will shape experience, transform event, deliver a bit of wisdom. In a story or a novel, the I who tells this tale can be, and often is, an unreliable narrator, but in nonfiction, the reader must always be persuaded that the narrator is speaking truth. How does one pull from one's own boring, agitated self the truth speaker who will tell the story? A personal narrative needs to tell. That is the question The Situation and the Story asks and answers. Taking us on a reading tour of some of the best memoirs and essays of the past hundred years, Gornick traces the changing idea of self that has dominated the century and demonstrates the enduring truth speaker to be found in the work of writers as diverse as Edmund Gosse, Joan Didion, Oscar Wilde, James Baldwin, or Marguerite Duras. This book, which grew out of fifteen years teaching in MFA programs, is itself a model of the lucid intelligence that has made Gornick one of our most admired writers of nonfiction. In it, she teaches us to write by teaching us how to read: how to recognize truth when we hear it in the writing of others and in our own.

The ^ALongest Journey Eric Tagliacozzo, 2013-03-15 The pilgrimage to Mecca, or Hajj, has been a yearly phenomenon of great importance in Muslim lands for well over one thousand years. Each year, millions of pilgrims from throughout the Dar al-Islam, or Islamic world, stretching from Morocco east to Indonesia, make the trip to Mecca as one of the five pillars of their faith. The Longest Journey, spanning eleven modern nation-states and seven centuries, is the first book to offer a history of the Hajj from one of Islam's largest and most important regions.
