American Red Cross Water Safety Instructor's Manual, 2004 Water Safety Instructor Manual Canadian Red Cross Society. Water Safety Service, Mosby Lifeline, 1996 Water Safety Instructor's Manual American National Red Cross, 1961 Day Camp Programming and Administration Jill Moffitt, 2011

More and more recreation and fitness professionals are called on to create day camps for children in facilities that have traditionally been geared to recreation and fitness users. New programming and operational challenges arise as professionals are asked to serve a different population with innovative programs through these camps. You can overcome those challenges with Day Camp Programming and Administration: Core Skills and Practices. This handy reference which is geared toward new professionals will help you conduct a needs analysis and prepare a proposal for a facility based camp regardless of your setting, develop business and marketing plans for your camp, manage risk and generate money through your camp and manage programming, staff training and administrative processes from conception through evaluation. The book comes with a CD ROM that supplies you with a comprehensive set of worksheets and forms to assist you in planning, operating and evaluating your camp. You can use these printable tools as the book guides you step by step through the camp management process. You will be exposed to an array of program choices and training and administrative tasks that will help you run successful camps. The author draws on her 12 years of experience in running day camps to help you plan your camp. You will learn how to gather information in making wise decisions as you get started, how to plan for safety and comply with health and safety standards and how to develop camp policies and communicate with parents. You will then be guided through organizing the camp structure including registration, the business plan and the daily schedule. You will explore how to hire, train, develop and evaluate staff and you will examine common camp programs and discover how to select and implement your own program. Finally, you will learn how to evaluate your program and use that evaluation in preparing future camps. Day Camp Programming and Administration: Core Skills and Practices covers all you need to know to operate your own facility based day camp whether you are a professional in a municipal recreation department, a fitness owner looking to branch out or a campus recreation professional. This guide addresses challenges you will face as a new day camp provider through practical examples, tried and true suggestions and tips that will help you fulfill your community's needs, increase your bottom line and provide fruitful experiences for your day campers.

Teaching Computing Henry M. Walker, 2018-04-24

Teaching can be intimidating for beginning faculty. Some graduate schools and some computing faculty provide guidance and mentoring but many do not. Often a new faculty member is assigned to teach a course with little guidance, input or feedback. Teaching Computing: A Practitioner's Perspective addresses such challenges by providing a solid resource for both new and experienced computing faculty. The book serves as a practical, easy to use resource covering a wide range of topics in a collection of focused, down to earth chapters. Based on the author's extensive teaching experience and his teaching oriented columns that span 20 years and informed by computing education research the book provides numerous elements that are designed to connect with teaching practitioners including A wide range of teaching topics and basic elements of teaching including tips and techniques Practical tone the book serves as a down to earth practitioners guide Short focused chapters Coherent and convenient organization Mix of general educational perspectives and computing specific elements Connections between teaching in general and teaching computing Both historical and contemporary perspectives This book presents practical approaches tips and techniques that provide a strong starting place for new computing faculty and perspectives for reflection by seasoned faculty wishing to freshen their own teaching Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation ,1963
