Mac User's Guide to Living Wirelessly Brad Miser, 2005 The major force driving people to embrace wireless computing is Wi-Fi. Once dismissed as a fad Wi-Fi is rapidly becoming ubiquitous in the US and around the world. In 2004 more than half of all laptops sold in the US shipped with Wi-Fi installed. By 2007 most analysts predict that nearly every laptop sold in the US will include Wi-Fi. Nearly 20 million Wi-Fi access points will be sold this year up 20% from last year. As these numbers grow prices will continue to fall making Wi-Fi more attractive to more and more people. By the end of this year there will be more than 40 000 hotspots public Wi-Fi access points available across the US in hotels fast food restaurants cafés airports even parks. By 2007 that number will surpass 100 000. From McDonald's to Kinko's to Holiday Inn Wi-Fi is becoming a killer amenity. Once Wi-Fi networks are in place they can be used for much more than just Internet access. For example the AirPort Express allows users to stream iTunes throughout their homes wirelessly. Wi-Fi is being used to network printers cameras and ultimately home entertainment devices.

CSS: The Missing Manual David Sawyer McFarland, 2006-08-24 Web site design has grown up. Turn simple HTML links into complex and attractive navigation bars complete with CSS only rollover effects that add interactivity to your Web pages. Style images to create effective photo galleries and special effects like CSS based drop shadows. Make HTML forms look great without a lot of messy HTML. Overcome the most hair pulling browser bugs so your Web pages work consistently from browser to browser. Create complex layouts using CSS including multi column designs that don't require using old techniques like HTML tables. Style Web pages for printing. Unlike competing books this Missing Manual doesn't assume that everyone in the world only surfs the Web with Microsoft's Internet Explorer our book provides support for all major Web browsers and is one of the first books to thoroughly document the newly expanded CSS support in IE7 currently in beta release.
