Aesthetics of Gentrification Christoph Lindner, Gerard Sandoval, 2025-10-01 Gentrification is reshaping cities worldwide resulting in seductive spaces and exclusive communities that aspire to innovation creativity sustainability and technological sophistication Gentrification is also contributing to growing social spatial division and urban inequality and precarity In a time of escalating housing crisis unaffordable cities and racial tension scholars speak of eco gentrification techno gentrification super gentrification and planetary gentrification to describe the different forms and scales of involuntary displacement occurring in vulnerable communities in response to current patterns of development and the hype driven discourses of the creative city smart city millennial city and sustainable city In this context how do contemporary creative practices in art architecture and related fields help to produce or resist gentrification What does gentrification look and feel like in specific sites and communities around the globe and how is that appearance or feeling implicated in promoting stylized renewal to a privileged public In what ways do the aesthetics of gentrification express contested conditions of migration and mobility Addressing these questions this book examines the relationship between aesthetics and gentrification in contemporary cities from multiple comparative global and transnational perspectives Hip-Hop en Français Alain-Philippe Durand, 2020-09-22 Hip Hop en Fran ais charts the emergence and development of hip hop culture in France French Caribbean Qu bec and Senegal from its origins until today With essays by renowned hip hop scholars and a foreword by Marcyliena Morgan executive director of the Harvard University Hip-hop Archive and Research Institute this edited volume addresses topics such as the history of rap music hip hop dance the art of graffiti hip hop artists and their interactions with media arts social media literature race political and ideological landscapes and hip hop based education HHBE The contributors approach topics from a variety of different disciplines including African and African American studies anthropology Caribbean studies cultural studies dance studies education ethnology French and Francophone studies history linguistics media studies music and ethnomusicology and sociology As one of the most comprehensive books dedicated to hip hop culture in France and the Francophone World written in the English language this book is an essential resource for scholars and students of African Caribbean French and French Canadian popular culture as well as anthropology and ethnomusicology Embodying Relation Allison Moore, 2020-06-22 In Embodying Relation Allison Moore examines the tensions between the local and the global in the art photography movement in Bamako Mali which blossomed in the 1990s after Malian photographers Seydou Ke ta and Malick Sidib became internationally famous and the Bamako Photography Biennale was founded Moore traces the trajectory of Malian photography from the 1880s when photography first arrived as an apparatus of French colonialism to the first African studio practitioners of the 1930s and the establishment in 1994 of the Bamako Biennale Africa s most important continent wide photographic exhibition In her detailed discussion of Bamakois artistic aesthetics and institutions Moore examines the post fame careers of Ke ta and Sidib the biennale s structure the rise of women photographers cultural preservation through photography and how Mali's shift to democracy in the early 1990s enabled Bamako's art scene to flourish Moore shows how Malian photographers focus on cultural exchange affective connections with different publics and merging of traditional cultural precepts with modern notions of art embody Caribbean philosopher and poet Édouard Glissant's notion of relation in ways that spark new artistic forms practices and communities

The Blood of the Colony Owen White, 2021-01-12 The surprising story of the wine industry's role in the rise of French Algeria and the fall of empire We owe to wine a blessing far more precious than gold the peopling of Algeria with Frenchmen stated agriculturist Pierre Berthault in the early 1930s In the last decades of the nineteenth century Europeans had displaced Algerians from the colony's best agricultural land and planted grapevines Soon enough wine was the primary export of a region whose mostly Muslim inhabitants didn't drink alcohol Settlers made fortunes while drawing large numbers of Algerians into salaried work for the first time But the success of Algerian wine resulted in friction with French producers challenging the traditional view that imperial possessions should complement not compete with the metropole By the middle of the twentieth century amid the fight for independence Algerians had come to see the rows of vines as an especially hated symbol of French domination After the war Algerians had to decide how far they would go to undo the transformations the colonists had wrought including the world's fourth biggest wine industry Owen White examines Algeria's experiment with nationalized wine production in worker-run vineyards the pressures that resulted in the failure of that experiment and the eventual uprooting of most of the country's vines With a special focus on individual experiences of empire from the wealthiest Europeans to the poorest laborers in the fields The Blood of the Colony shows the central role of wine in the economic life of French Algeria and in its settler culture White makes clear that the industry left a long-term mark on the development of the nation

Underground Blake Atwood, 2021-09-28 How Iranians forged a vibrant informal video distribution infrastructure when their government banned all home video technology in 1983 In 1983 the Iranian government banned the personal use of home video technology In Underground Blake Atwood recounts how in response to the ban technology enthusiasts cinephiles entrepreneurs and everyday citizens forged an illegal but complex underground system for video distribution Atwood draws on archival sources including trade publications newspapers memoirs films and laws but at the heart of the book lies a corpus of oral history interviews conducted with participants in the underground He argues that videocassettes helped to institutionalize the broader underground within the Islamic Republic As Atwood shows the videocassette underground reveals a great deal about how people construct vibrant cultures beneath repressive institutions It was not just that Iranians gained access to banned movies but rather that they established routes acquired technical knowledge broke the law and created rituals by passing and trading plastic videocassettes As material objects the videocassettes were a means of negotiating the power of the state and the agency of its citizens By the time the Ministry of Culture and Islamic Guidance lifted the ban in 1994 millions of videocassettes were circulating efficiently and widely throughout the country The very presence of a video underground signaled the failure of state policy to regulate media Embedded in the informal infrastructure even in the videocassettes themselves was the triumph of everyday people over the state

Fighting for France Chris Millington, 2018-04-19 Fighting for France is the first book to examine violence between political extremists in interwar France and the ways in which contemporaries understood it This has important implications for understanding twentieth century French politics not least the French experience of collaboration with the Nazis during the Second World War

The French Revolution 1787-1804 P. M. Jones, 2021-09-30 Now in its fourth edition P M Jones The French Revolution has been extensively revised and incorporates the most recent research on race religion gender and citizens rights It also covers in detail the colonial repercussions of the revolution in both the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean Written with the needs of students in mind this volume recounts the dramatic years from 1787 to 1804 when the ancien r gime was replaced by a constitutional monarchy and then a republic Jones covers the difficulties facing King Louis XVI in the run up to the attack on the Bastille and explains how the Revolution led to the creation of the First French Empire by France s most successful General Napoleon Bonaparte Wherever possible the actions and reactions of ordinary men and women who found themselves caught up in the turmoil are recorded By analysing the revolution s significance for both Europe and the world beyond the concluding section sets the revolution in a global context With study aids such as a chronology who s who glossary and an enlarged selection of documents to allow for research and discussion this book remains a useful tool for students interested in politics culture and society during the French Revolution

Assassination in Vichy Gayle K. Brunelle, Annette Finley-Croswhite, 2020-10-07 An engrossing World War II who done it and a well researched historical study of France s deep political divisions and wartime choices Assassination in Vichy explores the impact of right wing extremism in wartime France

How the French Learned to Vote Malcolm Crook, 2021-03-26 The right to vote in regular elections is a fundamental principle of democracy It constitutes a familiar civic ritual all over the world yet few participants are probably aware of its long and controversial history This was especially true of France the country chosen for this study which explores a wide range of issues surrounding voting in the context of a specific society Casting a ballot does not come naturally and learning to vote is a lengthy process like the achievement of free and fair elections which are open to all adults An unprecedented experiment with mass voting for males was initiated in France in 1789 only for recurrent upheaval to ensure that the question of who could vote including women besides men and how they did so was frequently addressed and amended The entire electoral system was a constant source of partisan conflict popular protest and innovation throwing issues around the franchise electoral corruption spoiling papers and the problem of non voting into especially sharp focus This is the first book to explore these practices in a comprehensive fashion from the perspective of ordinary people beginning before the French Revolution and concluding with the present day while according significant space to local as well as national elections A thematic analysis will assist an understanding of those countries where democracy remains in its infancy

while also offering insight into widespread contemporary concern over declining turnout

War Tourism Bertram M. Gordon, 2018-11-15 As German troops entered Paris following their victory in June 1940 the American journalist William L Shirer observed that they carried cameras and behaved as naïve tourists One of the first things Hitler did after his victory was to tour occupied Paris where he was famously photographed in front of the Eiffel Tower Focusing on tourism by German personnel military and civil and French civilians during the war as well as war related memory tourism since War Tourism addresses the fundamental linkages between the two As Bertram M Gordon shows Germans toured occupied France by the thousands in groups organized by their army and guided by suggestions in magazines such as Der Deutsche Wegleiter für Paris The German Guide for Paris Despite the hardships imposed by war and occupation many French civilians continued to take holidays Facilitated by the Popular Front legislation of 1936 this solidified the practice of workers vacations leading to a postwar surge in tourism After the end of the war the phenomenon of memory tourism transformed sites such as the Maginot Line fortresses The influx of tourists with links either directly or indirectly to the war took hold and continues to play a significant economic role in Normandy and elsewhere As France moved from wartime to a postwar era of reconciliation and European Union memory tourism has held strong and exerts significant influence across the country

Strategic Litigation and Corporate Complicity in Crimes Under International Law Kalika Mehta, 2023-10-09 This book provides a comprehensive account of how non state actors rely on international criminal law as a tool in the service of progressive political causes The argument that international criminal law and its institutions serve as an instrument in the hands of a few powerful states and that its practice is characterized by double standards and selectivity has received considerable attention This book however focuses on a practice that is informed by this argument Its focus is on an alternative practice within international criminal law where non state actors navigate what critical scholars call a structurally biased legal system in order to achieve long term political objectives Innovatively the book combines the concerns expressed by Third World Approaches to International Law with strategic litigation that focuses on the accountability of corporations for their complicity in crimes under international law Analysing this litigation the book demonstrates that while it is crucial to highlight the blind spots of the international criminal legal framework it is also important to take into account the practice of non state actors engaged in leveraging its emancipatory potential This original analysis of the implementation and legitimacy of international criminal law will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and activists working in relevant areas of law politics criminology and international relations

The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France's move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult

anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women s studies and history will find this book particularly useful French on Shifting

Ground Nathalie Dajko,2020-11-24 In French on Shifting Ground Cultural and Coastal Erosion in South Louisiana Nathalie Dajko introduces readers to the lower Lafourche Basin Louisiana where the land a language and a way of life are at risk due to climate change environmental disaster and coastal erosion Louisiana French is endangered all around the state but in the lower Lafourche Basin the shift to English is accompanied by the equally rapid disappearance of the land on which its speakers live French on Shifting Ground allows both scholars and the general public to get an overview of how rich and diverse the French language in Louisiana is and serves as a key reminder that Louisiana serves as a prime repository for Native and heritage languages ranking among the strongest preservation regions in the southern and eastern US Nathalie Dajko outlines the development of French in the region highlighting the features that make it unique in the world and including the first published comparison of the way it is spoken by the local American Indian and Cajun populations She then weaves together evidence from multiple lines of linguistic research years of extensive participant observation and personal narratives from the residents themselves to illustrate the ways in which language in this case French is as fundamental to the creation of place as is the physical landscape It is a story at once scholarly and personal the loss of the land and the concomitant loss of the language have implications for the academic community as well as for the people whose cultures and identities are literally at stake GARAGE Ginette Goguen,2025-08-29T00:00:00Z Imagine growing up between two worlds where cultures and words blend seamlessly In this book readers will embark on a voyage through time tracing English borrowings from Old French through the story of one bilingual individual A thought provoking tale uncovering words that traversed centuries and borders plus an adventure following in the footsteps of none other than William the Conqueror Revealing secrets of language and the roots of our common history GARAGE will prove to be an excellent resource for language enthusiasts history buffs and anyone curious about etymology Who among you will be inspired to dig deeper into the stories behind words Great discoveries await Custom, Law, and Monarchy Marie Seong-Hak Kim,2021 Custom Law and Monarchy explores how law evolved in early modern France from an amalgam of customs Roman and canon law royal edicts and judicial decisions to the unified Civil Code of 1804 In exploring the history of this codification of law Marie Seong Hak Kim lays out a new way of understanding French history Language is the Key Monika Jezak,2017-06-06 The CLB

NCLC success was dependent on many factors outstanding work by leading Canadian scholars steady commitment of the government and non governmental stakeholders at the federal provincial and local level and last but not least unconditional commitment and caring on the part of an invested community of practice Language is the key covers a range of topics historical and political context that lead to the development of the Canadian standards their current positioning in global educational markets as well as their research and teaching cultures This edited volume provides a comprehensive overview of recent and ongoing projects and of CLB and NCLC related materials tools and resources for teaching and assessment Finally it offers a bold outlook proposing various scenarios to branch out beyond these benchmarks into the domains of higher education essential skills literacy workplace training as well as international and indigenous languages The 20th anniversary of the CLB NCLC provides an opportunity to reflect on the scope and importance of this exceptional Canadian intellectual product

Words are Weapons Philippe-Joseph Salazar, 2017-01-01 The first book to offer a rigorous sophisticated analysis of ISIS s rhetoric and why it is so persuasive ISIS wages war not only on the battlefield but also online and in the media Through a close examination of the words and images ISIS uses with particular attention to the digital caliphate on the web Philippe Joseph Salazar theorizes an aesthetic of ISIS and its self presentation As a philosopher and historian of ideas well versed in both the Western and the Islamic traditions Salazar posits an interpretation of Islam that places speech the profession of faith at the center of devotion and argues that evocation of the simple yet profound utterance of faith is what gives power to the rhetoric that ISIS and others employ At the same time Salazar contends that Western discourse has undergone a rhetorical disarmament To win the fight against ISIS and Islamic extremism Western democracies their media politicians and counterterrorism agencies must consider radically changing their approach to Islamic extremism

Religious Renewal in France, 1789-1870 Roger Price, 2017-12-04 This book provides a study of the manner in which the Roman Catholic Church in France responded to successive revolutions between 1789 and 1870 as well as to the cultural upheaval associated with accelerating socio economic change It focuses on the Church as an institution engaged in a dynamic process of re Christianization and determined as the only repository of the true faith of Jesus Christ to fortify belief and to combat the Satanic forces of moral corruption and revolutionary chaos and create a counter society the soci t parfaite Discussion of the Church as an institution in crisis of the recruitment instruction and mind sets of its bishops parish clergy and the members of religious orders of its hierarchical structures and internal discipline and of the need to compensate for the losses suffered during a period of revolutionary upheaval provides the basis for an exploration of its evolving doctrine s and sense of purpose for an assessment of the pastoral care provided to parish communities and of the leadership and moral qualities of the clergy before final consideration of the reception of the religious message s

A History of Hygiene in Modern France Steven Zdatny, 2024-03-21 This book tells the story of an epochal change in the human condition that was part of what is often thought of as modernization a process that remade culture and society in France in the 19th and 20th centuries Hygiene Steven Zdatny convincingly contends was that change He reflects on how the development of hygiene changed the way people thought about and treated their bodies put an end to age old afflictions and brought comfort where discomfort had been the unavoidable companion of existence and helped produce a tripling of life expectancy The book considers how the evolution of hygiene produced a society where people washed often changed their clothes every day lived without lice and scabies and performed their natural functions indoors It reflects on developments in industrial plumbing public education government investment the invention of new products to keep bodies and homes clean and a parallel makeover in the expectations sensibilities and practices about what is proper and what is disgusting These developments the study reveals were not steady and did not happen everywhere at the same pace But in the fullness of time they produced a revolution in the human condition

Christian Missions and Humanitarianism in The Middle East, 1850-1950

,2020-09-07 From the early phases of modern missions Christian missionaries supported many humanitarian activities mostly framed as subservient to the preaching of Christianity This anthology contributes to a historically grounded understanding of the complex relationship between Christian missions and the roots of humanitarianism and its contemporary uses in a Middle Eastern context Contributions focus on ideologies rhetoric and practices of missionaries and their apostolates towards humanitarianism from the mid 19th century Middle East crises examining different missionaries their society s worldview and their networks in various areas of the Middle East In the early 20th century Christian missions increasingly paid more attention to organisation and bureaucratisation rationalisation and media became more important to their work The volume analyses how non missionaries took over to a certain extent the aims and organisations of the missionaries as to humanitarianism It seeks to discover and retrace such entangled histories for the first time in an integral perspective Contributors include Beth Baron Philippe Bourmaud Seija Jalagin Nazan Maksudyan Michael Marten Heleen L Murre van den Berg Inger Marie Okkenhaug Idir Ouahes Maria Chiara Rioli Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Bertrand Taithe and Chantal Verdeil
