The Voice of Violence Joel P. Rhodes, 2001-04-30 The tide of 1960s political upheaval while mistaken at the time by some as a unified assault against America carried out by revolutionaries at home and abroad was actually hundreds of locally constructed expressions of political discourse reflecting the influences of race class gender and local conditions on each unique group of practitioners This is a comparative study of how radicals at the local level staged displayed and ultimately narrated symbolic acts of performative violence against the symbols of the American system The term performative violence refers to a method of public protest whereby participants create the conditions in which their violent actions become a political text a powerful symbol with a strong historical precedent Recognizing the textuality of history this interdisciplinary examination deconstructs the performative violence within its historically specific and socially constructed contexts using four representative case histories of late 1960s and early 1970s activism These are the African American rioters in Kansas City the Black Panther Party in Detroit campus radicals at Kansas State University and activists at the University of Kansas Rather than focusing on the major clashes of the Vietnam era this book contributes to recent scholarship on the 1960s which has attempted to offer a more textured analysis of the era s activism particularly its political violence based on more local studies The Little Orange Book: Learning about abuse from the voice of the child Jessica Eaton,Claire

Paterson-Young,2018-08-05 Between the ages of eleven and seventeen a child experiencing sexual abuse kept a secret journal of poetry Throughout the abuse she kept her little orange book hidden whilst she filled it full of poems questioning what was happening to her whether the abusers really loved her and whether she was normal Named after the original journal The Little Orange Book by Jessica Eaton and Claire Paterson Young contains a unique analysis and exploration of the poems and their themes Each poem is presented along with evidence from literature and practice in child sexual abuse Back cover The Politics of Silence, Voice and the In-Between Aliya Khalid,Georgina Holmes,Jane L. Parpart,2023-12-19

The Politics of Silence Voice and the In Between Exploring Gender Race and Insecurity from the Margins seeks to dismantle the deficit discourses generated through research about people as agency less and by extension objects of study The book argues that regardless of marginalisation people create spaces of liminality where they seek control over their lives by navigating the structures that exclude them Challenging the false binary of silence as violence and voice as power the book introduces the idea of an in between liminal space which is created by people to navigate conditions of oppression and move towards a politically stable and inclusive world This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies international development peace and conflict studies politics and international relations sociology and media studies It will be an important resource for courses incorporating gender feminist and postcolonial perspectives The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen,2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Stra burg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout

Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin s cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

Revelation or Damnation? Depictions of Violence in Sarah Kane's Theatre Lea Jasmin Gutscher,2014-12 With her controversial stage art the young playwright Sarah Kane broke new dramaturgic ground and made a lasting impression that changed British drama forever Even though it is part of the canon covering post war drama Kane s work has often met with misunderstanding and fierce criticism due to the uncountable representations of atrocities How can we make sense of Kane s seemingly crude and bleak theatre Mainly concentrating on the play Cleansed the author examines the nature of violence in Kane s writing What purpose does it serve Is it simply employed for its shock value Or is it rather used as a metaphor Kane herself considered her third full length play as a play about love In suggesting a figurative reading of the late playwright s texts the author shows how Kane embraces violence as a metaphor of the various sufferings both love and life perpetrate upon the human being Locked beneath the revolting cruelties we can find a vivid theatricality powerful images and a unique rhythm and sound of language

Inequality and Violence Anna Cornelia Beyer,2016-05-23 With Theory of International Politics Kenneth Waltz established Neo realism as a major school of thought in IR which still remains a dominant approach within the discipline in the Anglo American world and beyond Man the State and War his first contribution to the debate in IR and the predecessor to Theory of International Politics received praise for its presentation of a discussion on the causes of international warfare as well as the possibilities of its prevention on three different levels of analysis the individual the state and the international system This book reflects on the arguments presented in Man the State and War from a contemporary perspective Do Waltz s ideas still hold firm ground in the discipline The book alerts to the perceived necessity of combining conceptions of governance and authority with considerations on the reduction of inequality at the individual state and international level Inequality in particular has received increased attention as a cause for violence at all three levels since Waltz published Man the State and War The book also addresses Waltz s rejection of supranationalism as the remedy for war a view that has been challenged since he wrote the book One theme stands out from today s perspective the establishment and maintenance of good global governance can be considered the most important aspect for the prevention of war

Young People in the Global South Kate Pincock,Nicola Jones,Lorraine van Blerk,Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda,2024-01-24 Young People in the Global South Voice Agency and Citizenship explores the spatial relational affective and material dimensions of adolescents and young people s civic engagement and political participation in lower and middle income contexts This textbook questions how the everyday politics of exercising voice and agency is experienced at different scales from the interpersonal to the global It explores how structural inequalities and marginalisation as well as social norms and attitudes shape how voice agency and participation are expressed by diverse young people in particular contexts with unique histories Contributing authors focus on the experiences of young people who are marginalised based on age gender sexuality disability citizenship status and geographical location Together they show how ageing through adolescence enables or constrains agency and voice Textbook features include case studies on Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as reflective accounts authored by adolescents and young people themselves and discussion questions Filling a key gap in the knowledge about the concerns and experiences of young people in contexts beyond the Global North this textbook will be of interest to academics students and practitioners in the fields of childhood and youth studies international development social movements human geography sociology and comparative politics The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Brodsky, 2021 In his annual lecture to second year medical students Dr Fred Berlin describes an interview he had early in his career with a man whom he was evaluating following the man's arrest for child sexual abuse Halfway through the interview the arrested man interrupted Dr Berlin's questions and said You know Doctor your society takes a newborn baby boy gathers family and friends takes a knife and without any anesthesia cuts skin off the tip of his penis This is accepted as a religious act I bend over and kiss that same penis and I am arrested as a child sexual abuser Can you explain that to me Berlin 2000

Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions audition and corporeality This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy In this intervention the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo The Psychology of Demonization Nahi Alon,Haim Omer,2006-08-15 Richly illustrated with case stories this book explores the psychological processes involved in demonization the attribution of basic destructive qualities to others or forces within the self and their implications for the effort to effect change Era of Persuasion E. Brooks Holifield,2004-08-04 Pre eighteenth century America was a uniquely pragmatic utopian society a new world in which the expectations of a new beginning brought by explorers traders and settlers often conflicted violently the Native Americans they encountered In Era of Persuasion American Thought and Culture 1521 1680 E Brooks Holifield identifies the act of persuasion as the common ground on which these disparate groups stood As he clearly documents and persuasively interprets an America that some readers may not recognize Holifield includes compelling insights into the social expressions of Native Americans and Africans as well as Europeans His view extends from the pueblos of New Mexico and the missions of France to the plantations of Virginia and the towns of New England Era of Persuasion portrays an early American society populated by passionate visionaries with urgently persuasive purposes who lived by applied philosophy and inspired action and will be appreciated by the curious reader and avid historian alike Violence in America Robert Klein,Victor Schermer,2018-10-11 Violence is a growing problem in American society and hardly a day goes by that we don t hear about yet another heart wrenching episode of mass violence Such events unfortunately are only the most public manifestation of violence in America The full nature and extent of daily violence the various and pervasive forms it takes and the enormous social emotional moral and economic consequences that result remain largely outside of our awareness More importantly our ability to identify the root causes and know how best to effectively intervene remains limited Most investigations in this field have focused on the individual psychodynamic characteristics of the perpetrators The underlying group dynamic factors that include consideration of broader social cultural socioeconomic and historical variables have received less attention This volume brings together for the first time a collection of distinguished group psychotherapists all of whom have been trained to recognize both individual psychodynamic characteristics and group dynamic factors to apply the lessons learned through years of clinical practice to arrive at a deeper understanding of the etiology treatment and prevention of violence This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Group Psychotherapy Voice Male Rob A. Okun,2014-01-05 Here is a stunning new book that succeeds in doing nothing less than chronicling the social transformation of masculinity over a three decade span Through thematically arranged essays by leading experts Voice Male illustrates how a growing movement of men is redefining masculinity In this collection Rob Okun directs a chorus of pro feminist voices introducing readers to men examining contemporary manhood from a variety of perspectives from overcoming violence fatherhood and navigating life as a man of color a gay man or a boy on the journey to manhood It also provides a critical forum for both male survivors and LGBTQ men to speak out This inspired book is evidence of a new direction for men brightly illuminating what s around the bend on the path to gender justice 214 Facts about fear and worry Dr. D. K. Olukoya,2017-03-03 Deaf Liberation Theology Revd Dr Hannah Lewis,2013-05-28 Following years of theology of deafness based on the premise that Deaf people are simply people who cannot hear this book breaks new ground Presenting a new approach to Deaf people theology and the Church this book enables Deaf people who see themselves as members of a minority group to formulate their own theology rooted in their own history and culture Deconstructing the theology and practice of the Church Hannah Lewis shows how the Church unconsciously oppresses Deaf people through its view of them as people who cannot hear Lewis reclaims Deaf perspectives on Church history examines how an essentially visual Deaf culture can relate to the written text of the Bible and asks Can Jesus sign This book pulls together all these strands to consider how worship can be truly liberating truly a place for Deaf people to celebrate who they are before God A Mediator in Matthew Craig D. Saunders,2021-03-01 What is a consistent theological meaning of the Son of Man in the Gospel of Matthew For a suitable response it is essential to analyze all thirty Son of Man logia in their relative literary contexts and in relationship to the gospel as a whole Also to bring out the uniqueness in Matthew s portrayal of the Son of Man a comparison with the other Synoptic Gospels aids the investigation This work argues that the answer lies in the role of the Son of Man in the first Gospel In Matthew Jesus the Son of Man functions as mediator of God s will to his genuine disciples As the Son of Man journeys through his earthly life climaxing in his death and resurrection Jesus mediates God s will through his message and works and by exhibiting active obedience to his Father in the heavens Jesus s genuine disciples learn how to emulate the Son of Man s character and ministry enabling them to continue it in their future mission At his parousia the Son of Man will mediate God s promised vindication and reward for his genuine disciples who have proven their fidelity to Jesus and God s will
