Visionary Film The American Avant Garde 1943 2000 3rd Edition:

Optic Antics Michele Pierson, David E. James, Paul Arthur, 2011 Ken Jacobs has been making cinema for more than fifty years. Along with over thirty film and video works, he has created an array of shadow plays, sound pieces, installations, and magic lantern and film performances that have transformed how we look at and think about moving images. He is part of the permanent collections at MoMA and the Whitney, and his work has been celebrated in Europe and the U.S. While his importance is well recognized, this is the first volume dedicated entirely to him. It includes essays by prominent film scholars along with photographs and personal pieces from artists and critics, all of which testify to the extraordinary variety and influence of his accomplishments. Anyone interested in cinema or experimental arts will be well rewarded by a greater acquaintance with the genius, the innovation, and the optical antics of Ken Jacobs. Hollis Frampton Michael Zryd, 2023-05-09 Hollis Frampton was an American filmmaker, photographer, and theorist who bridged the experimental film and contemporary art worlds in the 1960s and 1970s. Best known for avant-garde films including Zorns Lemma (1970) and nostalgia (1971), Frampton spent his later years working on the unfinished epic Magellan, a monumental cycle that used the metaphor of Ferdinand Magellan's circumnavigation of the world to rethink the natures and meanings of history, modernity, and cinema. Frampton's career was cut short by cancer at age 48, with his vast ambitions for the project left incomplete. This book is a groundbreaking and comprehensive account of this remarkable figure's work in its totality, from Frampton's earliest films through Magellan. Michael Zryd explores the connections linking Frampton's art and thought to other media forms, histories, and cultural frameworks. He foregrounds Frampton's notion of the infinite cinema, which redefined the parameters of the medium to encompass all forms of moving image and sound media across the past and future of cinematic possibility. Zryd analyzes Frampton's ambivalent relationship with modernism and the Enlightenment, showing how the artist navigated between attraction to radical artistic investigation and awareness of this tradition's implication in colonialism and other oppressive power structures. Shedding new light on Frampton's project of exploring and critiquing how cinema attempts to capture and understand the world, this book also considers his significance for contemporary art. Sitney, 2002 Film and Television Stardom Kylo-Patrick R. Hart, 2008 Film and Television Stardom examines film and television stars as a collectively complex, intriguing social phenomenon from the early twentieth century to the present day. Its range of topics includes, but is certainly not limited to, the emergence and historical development of the star system, silent film stardom, stardom and media spectatorship, stardom and consumption, stardom and the paparazzi, reality television, oestars, stars in the news, and studies of individual stars. In addition to providing numerous new insights and approaches to exploring the phenomenon of film stardom past and present, its various chapters significantly expand the comparatively nascent body of academic writing that has been devoted to investigating the historical and theoretical aspects of television stardom by focusing on both traditional television programming genres and the more recent phenomenon of reality television.

programming The numerous stars addressed in this book including Roseanne Barr Gertrude Berg Ingrid Bergman Cher Sacha Baron Cohen Bette Davis Jodie Foster Jerry Lewis Carmen Miranda Anita Page Jessica Simpson and James Stewart are analyzed in relation to noteworthy performances in a variety of well known films including The Accused The Broadway Melody Cinderella Citizen Kane Dark Victory The Man from Laramie Persona and Singin' in the Rain and television programs including Da Ali G Show The Apprentice The Goldbergs Roseanne and Survivor

Beyond the Dream Syndicate Branden W. Joseph, 2008-05-16 Examining Tony Conrad's collaborative interactions as a guiding thread by which to investigate the contiguous networks and discursive interconnections in 1960s art Tony Conrad has significantly influenced cultural developments from minimalism to underground film concept art postmodern appropriation and the most sophisticated rock and roll Creator of the structural film The Flicker collaborator on Jack Smith's Flaming Creatures and Normal Love follower of Henry Flynt's radical anti-art member of the Theatre of Eternal Music and the first incarnation of The Velvet Underground and early associate of Mike Kelley Tony Oursler and Cindy Sherman Conrad has eluded canonic histories Yet Beyond the Dream Syndicate does not claim Conrad as a major but under-recognized figure Neither monograph nor social history the book takes Conrad's collaborative interactions as a guiding thread by which to investigate the contiguous networks and discursive interconnections in 1960s art Such an approach simultaneously illuminates and estranges current understandings of the period redrawing the map across medium and stylistic boundaries to reveal a constitutive hybridization at the base of the decade's artistic development This exploration of Conrad and his milieu goes beyond the presentation of a relatively overlooked oeuvre to chart multiple contestatory regimes of power simultaneously in play during the pivotal moment of the 1960s From the sovereign authority invoked by Young's music to the paranoid politics of Flynt to the immanent control modeled by Conrad's films each avant-garde project examined reveals an investment within a particular structure of power and resistance providing a glimpse into the diversity of the artistic and political stakes that continue to define our time
