Puzzle Books for Kids | Large Print Unscripted Writer, 2021-12-09 When we think of puzzles we usually think of a hobby a way to pass time and relax The truth is that in addition to having fun for a while they also have numerous health benefits From helping children in their skills development through improving your memory and mood to preventing major illnesses in the elderly

- 1 Mental exercise Doing puzzles can be considered a complete brain exercise since it exercises both the right and left sides The right is in charge of creativity emotions and intuitive thinking and the left is the logical objective and methodical side When you do a puzzle both sides must communicate and work together increasing cognitive function The occipital lobe is the area where the brain connects colors and shapes and it is also activated Exercising the mind helps prevent cognitive decline
- 2 Better Visual Spatial Reasoning To assemble a puzzle we see different pieces and we must place them within a larger image Doing this exercise regularly helps us improve our spatial reasoning
- 3 Greater Attention to Detail When solving a puzzle especially if the pieces are very similar it is crucial to pay attention to details You need to train your eyes to find the small differences in colors or shapes that will help you complete the image The ability to capture small details can help us in all aspects of our lives especially at work When we are more detailed and precise the quality of our work improves
- 4 Improve memory Strengthens neural connections and increases the generation of new connections This increases mental speed and thought processes When we pick up a piece you have to search among the others for a color or shape that you have in mind and visualize the image on a large scale to see which pieces go together When you exercise the part of the brain in charge of storing this information helps to maintain and improve short term memory
- 5 Increase your IQ Researchers from the University of Michigan led by Dr Susanne J ggi found that spending 25 minutes a day solving puzzles and riddles can raise your IQ by 4 points
