Writing Immigration Scholars And Journalists In Dialogue:

Writing Immigration Marcelo Suarez-Orozco, Vivian Louie, Roberto Suro, 2011-09-01 Bringing nuance complexity and clarity to a subject often seen in black and white Writing Immigration presents a unique interplay of leading scholars and journalists working on the contentious topic of immigration In a series of powerful essays the contributors reflect on how they struggle to write about one of the defining issues of our time one that is at once local and global familiar and uncanny concrete and abstract Highlighting and framing central questions surrounding immigration their essays explore topics including illegal immigration state and federal mechanisms for immigration regulation enduring myths and fallacies regarding immigration immigration and the economy immigration and education the adaptations of the second generation and more Together these writings give a clear sense of the ways in which scholars and journalists enter shape and sometimes transform this essential yet unfinished national conversation The Oxford Handbook of Ethnicity, Crime, and Immigration Sandra M. Bucerius, Michael H. Tonry, 2014 This title provides comprehensive analyses of current knowledge about the unwarranted disparities in dealings with the criminal justice system faced by some disadvantaged minority groups in all developed countries Reporting at the Southern Borders Giovanna Dell'Orto, Vicki L. Birchfield, 2013-10-15

Undocumented immigration across the Mediterranean and the US Mexican border is one of the most contested transatlantic public and political issues raising fundamental questions about national identity security and multiculturalism all in the glare of news media themselves undergoing dramatic transformations This interdisciplinary international volume fills a major gap in political science and communication literature on the role of news media in public debates over immigration by providing unique insider s perspectives on journalistic practices and bringing them into dialogue with scholars and immigrant rights practitioners After providing original comparative research by established and emerging international affairs and media scholars as well as grounded reflections by UN and IOM practitioners the book presents candid in depth assessments by nine leading European and North American journalists covering immigration from the frontlines ranging from the Guardian s Southern Europe editor to the immigration reporter for the Arizona Republic Their comparative reflections on the professional institutional and technological constraints shaping news stories offer unprecedented insight into the challenges and opportunities for 21st century journalism to affect public discourse and policymaking about issues critical to the future of the transatlantic space making the book relevant across a wide range of scholarship on the media s impact on public affairs

Cross-Cultural Journalism Maria Len-Rios, Earnest Perry, 2015-12-22 Built on the hands on reporting style and curriculum pioneered by the University of Missouri this introductory textbook teaches students how to write about and communicate with people of backgrounds that may be different from their own offering real world examples of how to practice excellent journalism and strategic communication that take culture into account Specifically the book addresses how to engage with and talk across difference identify the ways bias can creep into our communications and how to mitigate our tendencies toward bias use the concept of fault lines and approach sources and audiences with humility and respect communicate with audiences about the complexity inherent in issues of crime immigration sports health inequalities among other topics interpret census data categories and work with census data to craft stories or create strategic campaign strategies reconsider common cultural assumptions about race class gender identity sexual orientation immigration status religion disability and age and recognize their evolving and constructed meaning and our role as professional communicators in shaping national discussions of these issues In addition to its common sense practical approach the book s chapters are written by national experts and leading scholars on the subject Interviews with award winning journalists discussion questions suggested activities and additional readings round out this timely and important new textbook Supplemented by additional case studies and examples of best practice Cross Cultural Journalism offers journalists and other communication professionals the conceptual framework and practical know how they need to report and communicate effectively about difference

Social Movements and the Law Lolita Buckner Inniss, Bridget J. Crawford, 2024-11-12 Black Lives Matter and MeToo are two of the most prominent twenty first century social movements in the United States On the ground and on social media more people have taken an active stance in support of either or both movements than almost any others in the country s history Social Movements and the Law brings together the voices of twelve scholars and public intellectuals to explore how Black Lives Matter and MeToo unfolded separately and together and how they enrich inform and complicate each other Structured in dialogues and punctuated with informative text boxes illustrations and discussion questions this accessible guide to an increasingly influential area of the law centers rich intersectional analysis of both movements and prompts readers to undertake further reflection and conversation At a time of heightened public attention to the broader implications of human social behavior and interaction this book shows rather than tells how people with different perspectives can engage one another with open minds and generosity of spirit

Between Us Marika Lindholm, Elizabeth Anne Wood, 2024-06-05 The perfect introduction to what sociology is and does presented through powerful essays applying sociological concepts to personal experience The world is a tough place right now Climate change income inequality racist violence and the erosion of democracy have exposed the vulnerability of our individual and collective futures But as the sociologists gathered here by Marika Lindholm and Elizabeth Wood show no matter how helpless we might feel it s vital that we discover new paths toward healing and change The short accessible emotionally and intellectually powerful essays in Between Us offer a transformative new way to think about sociology and its ability to fuel personal and social change These forty five essays reflect a diverse range of experiences Whether taking an adult son with autism grocery shopping or fighting fires in Barcelona contending with sexism at the beach or facing racism at a fertility clinic celebrating one s immigrant heritage or acknowledging one s KKK ancestors this book shows students that sociology is deeply rooted in everyday life and can be used to help us process and understand it A perfect introduction to the discipline and why it matters Between Us will resonate with students from all backgrounds as they embark on their academic journey Refugee News, Refugee Politics Giovanna Dell'Orto, Irmgard Wetzstein, 2018-09-03 The unprecedented arrival of more than a million refugees asylum seekers and migrants plus the political public and policy reactions to it is redefining Europe The repercussions will last for generations on such central issues as security national identity human rights and the very structure of liberal democracies What is the role of the news media in telling the story of the 2010s refugee crisis at a time of deepening crisis for journalism as fake news ran rampant amid an increasingly distrustful public This volume offers students scholars and the general reader original research and candid frontline insights to understand the intersecting influences of journalistic practices news discourses public opinion and policymaking on one of the most polarizing issues of our time Focusing on current events in Greece Austria and Germany critical entry and destination countries it introduces a groundbreaking dialogue between elite national and international media academic institutions and civil society organizations revealing the complex impacts of the news media on the thorny sociopolitical dilemmas raised by the integration of hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers in EU countries IHJ Bulletin ,1995 Good Works Donna Colvin, 1994 AIDS & Public Policy Journal ,1993 Latin American Report ,1988 Transatlantic Perspectives ,1988 Hispanic Link Weekly Report ,2007 Inside UVA. ,1996 TLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1974 Origins ,2003 Who's who in the East ,1983 America, History and Life ,2005 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada

Humanitarianism and Mass Migration Marcelo Suarez-Orozco, 2019-01-08 The world is witnessing a rapid rise in the number of victims of human trafficking and of migrants voluntary and involuntary internal and international authorized and unauthorized In the first two decades of this century alone more than 65 million people have been forced to escape home into the unknown The slow motion disintegration of failing states with feeble institutions war and terror demographic imbalances unchecked climate change and cataclysmic environmental disruptions have contributed to the catastrophic migrations that are placing millions of human beings at grave risk Humanitarianism and Mass Migration fills a scholarly gap by examining the uncharted contours of mass migration Exceptionally curated it contains contributions from Jacqueline Bhabha Richard Mollica Irina Bokova Pedro Noguera Hirokazu Yoshikawa James A Banks Mary Waters and many others The volume s interdisciplinary and comparative approach showcases new research that reveals how current structures of health mental health and education are anachronistic and out of touch with the new cartographies of mass migrations Envisioning a hopeful and realistic future this book provides clear and concrete recommendations for what must be done to mine the inherent agency cultural resources resilience and capacity for self healing that will help forcefully displaced populations
