Muireann McNulty Parenting: Selected Writings of Marc H. Bornstein Marc H. Bornstein, 2022-04-11 In the World Library of Psychologists series international experts present career long collections of what they judge to be their most interesting publications extracts from books key articles research findings and practical and theoretical contributions. Marc H. Bornstein has published widely in experimental methodological comparative developmental and cultural science as well as neuroscience pediatrics and aesthetics. In this volume he has collected an integrated series of his papers on parenting. Many disciplines over many centuries have expounded on parenting but theory and opinion have prevailed. Bornstein initiated efforts to make parenting an evidence based field of study through his journal Parenting Science and Practice the Handbook of Parenting and two monograph series Monographs in Parenting and Studies in Parenting. In addition Bornstein has undertaken empirical studies that address the determinants nature scope and consequences of parenting. The writings selected for this collection symbolize the development of an empirical parenting science and the meaning and importance of parenting for the lives and well being of children parents and society. Including a specially written introduction in which Marc Bornstein reflects on the importance of parenting and contextualizes both the field and the evolution of his wide ranging career this collection will serve as a valuable resource for students and researchers of parenting developmental science and all disciplines from anthropology to zoology concerned with nurturing socializing and educating the next generation.
