Vinyl Tiger Dave Di Vito:

The Eighties Dave Di Vito,2021-07-05 It s the eighties a decade where almost everything suddenly seems possible yet Alekzandr s musical shortcomings remain obvious to everyone After years of struggling he s somehow landed himself another recording deal But in an industry already crowded with one hit wonders even Alekzandr s record label doubts there s space for a Queer talent like him Still Alekzandr the Vinyl Tiger isn t about to let that stop him He has crossed oceans and endured all kinds of ordeals just to get this far and is as determined as ever to prove some stars are made not born He s going to give it all he s got to make it big regardless of who or what he leaves behind in his wake Because the best pop stars may reach the top by making music but they only remain there by making waves Follow Alekzandr s career in this three part series that follows Alekzandr from his early beginnings in the eighties through the nineties and noughties A pop fiction novel rich with pop cultural references Vinyl Tiger is a stark look behind the curtain at what it takes to become a star

The Nineties

Dave Di Vito,2021-07-14 It s the end of the eighties and despite all his musical shortcomings pop singer Alekzandr the Vinyl Tiger has not only survived but also finished at the top of the heap After all the scandals and challenges that plagued him during his first decade in pop Alekzandr is desperate to rise above He wants to try his hand at other things hone his craft and focus on his personal life which is pulling him away from New York But tastes are changing and controversies brewing and Alekzandr is finding it harder and harder to separate his professional and personal lives So when his provocations push the establishment too far and his world comes crashing down he s going to have to dig deep to survive Because the best pop stars may reach the top by making great music but they can only remain there by making the right waves Follow Alekzandr s career in this three part series that follows Alekzandr from his early beginnings in the eighties through the nineties and noughties A pop fiction novel rich with pop cultural references Vinyl Tiger is a stark reminder of what it takes to make something of yourself when all you ve got to fall back on is self belief

Vinyl Tiger Dave Di Vito,2015-12-11 They had it wrong all along It s not pop that will eat itself It s ambition A penchant for Bollywood beats and dance music A garish flirtatious outsider whose exotic looks make his origins so difficult to pinpoint Kohl As London is burning and the pop disco holocaust is playing out Alekzandr has little else to fall back on other than his charm and wit in his pursuit of an interesting life Even across the pond the new generation of club kids seem to love him But in an era when stars are made not born nobody is particularly interested in taking a chance on an outsider particularly when his musical shortcomings are so obvious Still ambition knows no bounds and the arrival of the music video changes everything in the industry Having already used everything else at his disposal can he use it to ride the new wave into the hearts of the public And Alekzandr He may well be a new romantic but he s also a gay heart breaker And being gay in the 20th century pop mainstream is just another arbitrary obstacle he has to overcome Because the best pop stars make waves not just music Alekzandr s story is the story that so many of us share the one where we try and reconcile our desires and ambitions with the world around us and the people in our lives it's just that his plays out against the backdrop so many of us grew up in and loved 80s and 90s popular culture. Evocative, romantic and brimming with pop cultural references, Vinyl Tiger captures and celebrates the changing zeitgeist of the 80s, 90s and 00s. The BFI Companion to Crime (Phil Hardy, 1997-01-01) Robbers, gangsters, murderers and criminals of every description have long been a staple of popular entertainment. After years of struggling, he's somehow landed himself another recording deal. But in an industry already crowded with one-hit wonders, even Alekzandr's record label doubts there's space for a queer talent like his. Still, Alekzandr, the Vinyl Tiger, isn't about to let that stop him. He'll cross oceans and endure all kinds of ordeals to give it all he's got to make it big, regardless of who or what he leaves behind in his wake. Join Alekzandr as he makes his way out of the ashes of disco on a quest to prove that some stars are made, not born. Because the best pop stars make waves, and not just music.
