Virginia Woolf Alexandra Harris:

Virginia Woolf Alexandra Harris, 2011-10-01 An ideal introduction to the life and work of Virginia Woolf by an award winning author the story of a life lived with intensity from moment to moment and shaped into the lasting patterns of art In 1907 when she was twenty five and not yet a published novelist Virginia Stephen had everything still to prove She felt herself to be at a crossroads I shall be miserable or happy a wordy sentimental creature or a writer of such English as shall one day burn the pages Today her prose is still blazing perhaps it burns brighter than ever This is the story of how a determined young woman with a notebook became one of the greatest writers of all time It is a story that sparkles with wit and friendship language and love wicked jokes and passionate appreciation of ordinary things In this illuminating new account Alexandra Harris uses vivid flashes of detail to evoke Woolf s changing backgrounds and preoccupations We move from the close packed rhythms of a Victorian childhood to the experiments of Bloomsbury and Woolf s trial and error answers to the pressing question of how to live We see her tackling challenging forms of writing trying out different voices following flights of fancy and returning to earth Above all we see her making conscious decisions about what to do next The book considers each of the novels in context gives due prominence to a range of Woolf s dazzlingly inventive essays traces the contentious course of her afterlife and shows why seventy years after her death Virginia Woolf continues to haunt and inspire us

Romantic Moderns: English Writers, Artists and the Imagination from Virginia Woolf to John Piper Alexandra Harris, 2010-11-01 Winner of the 2010 Guardian First Book Award a groundbreaking reassessment of English cultural life in the thirties and forties In the 1930s and 1940s while the battles for modern art and modern society were being fought in Paris and Spain it seemed to some a betrayal that John Betjeman and John Piper were in love with a provincial world of old churches and tea shops Alexandra Harris tells a different story eclectically passionately wittily urgently English artists were exploring what it meant to be alive at that moment and in England They showed that the modern need not be at war with the past constructivists and conservatives could work together and even the Bauhaus migr L szl Moholy Nagy was beguiled into taking photos for Betjeman s nostalgic An Oxford University Chest A rich network of personal and cultural encounters was the backdrop for a modern English renaissance This great imaginative project was shared by writers painters gardeners architects critics and composers Piper abandoned purist abstracts to make collages on the blustery coast Virginia Woolf wrote in her last novel about a village pageant on a showery summer day Evelyn Waugh Elizabeth Bowen and the Sitwells are also part of the story along with Bill Brandt and Graham Sutherland Eric Ravilious and Cecil Beaton The Oxford Handbook of Virginia Woolf Anne E. Cornish, 2010 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars focusing on urban issues These include addressing the ethical and political implications of Virginia Woolf's work a move that suggests new insights into Woolf as a real world social critic The Reimagining of Place in English Modernism Sam Wiseman, 2015 Analyses key texts by D H Lawrence John Cowper Powys Mary Butts and Virginia Woolf charting their respective attempts to forge new identities perspectives and literary approaches that reconcile tradition and modernity belonging and exploration the rural and the metropolitan The Foundations and Versatility of English Language Teaching (ELT) Christoph Haase, Natalia Orlova, Joel Cameron Head, 2018-12-14 While the field of ELT studies sees continued horizontal and vertical diversification it is also time to take stock of what has made the discipline the field it presents itself as today As horizontal diversification we can identify trends that involve a continued inclusion of more fields of study into the family of methods and approaches of ELT Especially in the technical sense e learning has matured and new forms of online learning and teaching have emerged be it via teleconferences or short message services for vocabulary training However a massive extension has occurred within the so called social media The vertical dimension affects a depth of analysis not seen even a decade ago when for example small and relatively simple learner corpora were used for linguistic analysis that rarely went beyond rote frequency counts The increasing sophistication in these two dimensions is also reflected in the research papers collected in this volume Virginia Woolf as a Process-Oriented Thinker Veronika Krajčková, 2023-10-02 Virginia Woolf as a Process Oriented Thinker Parallels Between Woolf's Fiction and Process Philosophy introduces Virginia Woolf as a nondualist and process oriented thinker whose ideas are despite no direct influence strikingly similar to those of Alfred North Whitehead Veronika Krajčková argues that in their respective fields literature and philosophy Woolf and Whitehead both criticized the materialist turn of their time and attempted to reattribute importance to experience and undermine long rooted dualisms such as subject and object the animate and the inanimate the human and the nonhuman or the self and the other By erasing the gaps between these dualities the two thinkers anticipated the poststructuralist thought with which Woolf has been anachronically associated in the last decades Kraj ckov shows that there is no need to analyze Woolf s fiction via critical and philosophical theories that developed much later This book demonstrates that Woolf and Whitehead s ideas may help us adopt more ecologically friendly selfless intersubjective and harmless modes of being in the present day Both figures emphasize the intrinsic value and importance of each constituent of reality and teach us to appreciate the aesthetic values dispersed throughout our environment

The Wry Romance of the Literary Rectory Deborah Alun-Jones,2013-06-01 A beautifully written book that tells the stories of historic rectories across England and Wales and the writers past and present who have been associated with them As the sons and daughters of clergy many of Britain s most popular writers have grown up in rectories parsonages and vicarages Jane Austen Alfred Tennyson Dorothy L Sayers and Edmund de Waal among them while other writers have been drawn to their romance and seclusion The period that Rupert Brooke spent living out a neo pagan fantasy in idyllic Grantchester near Cambridge greatly influenced his 1912 poem The Old Vicarage a work that became a romantic touchstone for an idealized national identity at a time of war The Old Rectory on the Berkshire Downs was the locus of John Betjeman s campaign to revive the parochial parish life whose disappearance he deeply regretted The rectory has also been home to eccentrics such as Sydney Smith of Foston Rectory in remote North Yorkshire This wit and essayist was known for his unorthodox sermons and astute contributions to the Edinburgh Review Compelled to abandon his London life by the enforcement of the Residence Act of 1803 which required priests to live in or near their parishes Smith bemoaned a posting that was he wrote twelve miles from a lemon Nonetheless he threw himself into rural life and often off his horse Calamity in the process

Modernist Short Fiction and Things Aimée Gasston,2021-08-10 This book reappraises the philosophical value of short fiction by Virginia Woolf Katherine Mansfield and Elizabeth Bowen examining the stories through the lens of specific everyday objects Looking at Woolf and armchairs Mansfield and snack food and Bowen and fashion accessories it probes the aesthetic resonance between these stories form and contents and also considers the modes of thinking they might promote Conceiving of their short fiction as intrinsically radical and experimental even within a wider context of modernist innovation this book shows how these important women writers brought quotidian objects to riotous life in such a way that tasked readers with reevaluating their everyday existence Overall Modernist Short Fiction and Things argues that short fiction epitomises modernist aesthetics functioning as a resonant source for investigation and complementing and expanding our understanding of modernist epistemology

The Warm South Robert Holland,2018-10-02 An evocative exploration of the impact of the Mediterranean on British culture ranging from the mid eighteenth century to today Ever since the age of the Grand Tour in the eighteenth century the Mediterranean has had a significant pull for Britons including many painters and poets who sought from it the inspiration beauty and fulfillment that evaded them at home Referred to as Magick Land by one traveler dreams about the Mediterranean and responses to it went on to shape the culture of a nation Written by one of the world's leading historians of the Mediterranean this book charts how a new sensibility arose from British engagement with the Mediterranean ancient and modern Ranging from Byron's poetry to Damien Hirst's installations Robert Holland shows that while idealized visions and aspirations often met with disillusionment and frustration the Mediterranean also offered a notably insular society the chance to enrich itself through an imagined world of color carnival and sensual self discovery

Lifescapes Jeremy Burchardt, 2023-05-11 Why does landscape matter to us We rarely articulate the often highly individual ways it can do so Drawing on eight remarkable unpublished diaries Jeremy Burchardt demonstrates that responses to landscape in modern Britain were powerfully affected by personal circumstances especially those experienced in childhood and youth Four major patterns are identified Adherers valued landscape for its continuity Withdrawers for the refuge it provides from perceived threats Restorers for its sustaining of core value systems and Explorers for its opportunities for self discovery and development Lifescapes sets out a new approach to landscape history based on comparative biography and deep contextualization which has far reaching implications It foregrounds family structures and relationships and the psychological dynamics they generate These it is argued were usually a more decisive presence in landscape encounters than wider cultural patterns and forces Seen in this way landscape can be understood as a mirror reflecting our innermost selves and the psychosocial influences shaping our development This is a compelling and original study of the relationship between individual lives and landscapes Locating Lynette Roberts Siriol

Writers and the Approach of World War II Steve Ellis,2014-10-27 This book considers the literary construction of what E M Forster calls the 1939 State namely the anticipation of the Second World War between the Munich crisis of 1938 and the end of the Phoney War in the spring of 1940 Steve Ellis investigates not only myriad responses to the imminent war but also various peace aims and plans for post war reconstruction outlined by such writers as T S Eliot H G Wells J B Priestley George Orwell E M Forster and Leonard and Virginia Woolf He argues that the work of these writers is illuminated by the anxious tenor of this period The result is a novel study of the long 1939 which transforms readers understanding of the literary history of the eve of war era Bluecoat, Liverpool Bryan Biggs,John Belchem,2020 An integral part of Liverpool s entertaining book explores blank space from incunabula to Google books Blanks are a paradox simultaneously nothing and something gesturing to what was once there or might be there They are also a creative opportunity for readers as well as writers readers respond to what is not there and writers come to anticipate that response Thus blank space develops literary and ludic applications Each chapter focuses on one typographical form of what is not there on the page physical gaps Chapter One marks of incompleteness such as c Chapter Two and the asterisk as a stand in for things that cannot be said Chapter Three By looking at the early modern page as a visual unit as well as a verbal unit this volume shows how the relationship between textual layout and textual content is as productive for writers as it is for readers Mise en page influences readers in the same way that rhetoric influences readers It is thus possible to speak of the rhetoric of the page
