Marked in Flesh Anne Bishop,2016 The dynamic between humans and Others has changed Some like wolf shifter Simon Wolfgard and blood prophet Meg Corbyn see the closer companionship as beneficial both personally and practically But not everyone is convinced A group of radical humans is seeking to usurp land through a series of violent attacks on the Others They don t realize that there are older more dangerous forces than shifters and vampires protecting the land and those forces are willing to do whatever is necessary to protect what is theirs

Etched in Bone Anne Bishop,2017 After the Elders reclaimed many human towns Lakeside Courtyard emerged relatively unscathed Simon Wolfgard its wolf shifter leader and prophet Meg Corbyn must still work with the human pack to maintain the peace But their efforts are threatened when Lieutenant Montgomery's shady brother arrives With the humans on guard against one of their own tensions rise drawing the attention of the Elders But Meg knows the dangers for she has seen in the cards how it will all end with her standing beside a grave

Leaving Other People Alone Aaron Kreuter,2023-12-01 Leaving Other People Alone reads contemporary North American Jewish fiction about Israel Palestine through an anti Zionist lens Aaron Kreuter argues that since Jewish diasporic fiction played a major role in establishing the centropерipheral relationship between Israel and the diaspora it therefore also has the potential to challenge trouble and ultimately rework this relationship Kreuter suggests that any fictional work that concerns itself with Israel Palestine and Zionism comes with heightened responsibilities primarily to make narrative space for the Palestinian worldview the dispossessed Other of the Zionist project In engaging prose the book features a wide range of scholarship and new compelling readings of texts by Theodor Herzl Leon Uris Philip Roth Ayelet Tsabari and David Bezmozgis Throughout Kreuter develops his concept of diasporic heteroglossia which is fiction's unique ability to contain multiple voices that resist and write back against national centres This work makes an important and original contribution to Jewish studies diaspora studies and world literature

Prophets of the Posthuman Christina Bieber Lake,2013-09-30 Prophets of the Posthuman provides a fresh and original reading of fictional narratives that raise the question of what it means to be human in the face of rapidly developing bioenhancement technologies Christina Bieber Lake argues that works by Nathaniel Hawthorne Walker Percy Flannery O'Connor Toni Morrison George Saunders Marilynne Robinson Raymond Carver James Tiptree Jr and Margaret Atwood must be reevaluated in light of their contributions to larger ethical questions Drawing on a wide range of sources in philosophical and theological ethics Lake claims that these writers share a commitment to maintaining a category of personhood more meaningful than that allowed by utilitarian ethics Prophets of the Posthuman insists that because technology can never ask whether we should do something that we have the power to do literature must step into that role Each of the chapters of this interdisciplinary study sets up a typical ethical scenario regarding human enhancement technology and then illustrates how a work of fiction uniquely speaks to that scenario exposing a realm of human motivations that might otherwise be overlooked or simplified Through the vision of the writers she discusses Lake uncovers a deep critique of the ascendancy of personal autonomy as America's most cherished value This ascendancy coupled with technology's glamorous promises of happiness helps to shape a utilitarian view of persons that makes responsible ethical behavior toward one another almost impossible Prophets of the Posthuman charts the essential role that literature must play in the continuing conversation of what it means to be human in a posthuman world

Reading Space Patrick Lawrence Hamilton,2006 Joseph Conrad Andrew Michael Roberts,2014-05-12 Joseph Conrad is a key figure in modernist fiction whose innovative work engages with many of the crucial philosophical moral and political concerns of the twentieth century This collection of major critical readings of his work is arranged according to the issues which each critic addresses issues which are of crucial importance and in many cases remain controversial within contemporary literary theory and criticism Following an opening section on the critical tradition indicating how the study of Conrad's work has been politicised since the 1970s there are sections on Narrative Textuality and Interpretation Imperialism Gender and Sexuality Class and Ideology and Modernity Within each section two or three critical excerpts offer contrasting and complementary accounts of the fiction while the headnotes to each piece and the introduction place these excerpts within the wider critical debate clarifying for the reader both the theoretical issues and the interpretation of Conrad's fiction A glossary of terms and a bibliography categorised by critical approach complete a volume which will provide an invaluable resource for students of Conrad and twentieth century literature as well as other readers of Conrad's work *Canadian Books in Print.
