Patton,Venus Evans-Winters,Charlotte Jacobs,2023-07-03 In the powerful essays that make up Investing in the Educational Success of Black Women and Girls Black women and girls are listened to appreciated and valued in recognition of the unrelenting challenges to our existence in a world that continues to be committed to stifling our voices What these authors know intimately is that such stifling is not because what Black women and girls are saying isn t important It is precisely because it is This book names the challenges Black women and girls continue to experience as we pursue our education and offers implications and recommendations for practitioners teachers administrators and policymakers It needs to be read widely and deeply studied as much for its formations and beautiful representations of Black women and girls as its recommendations It is the truth telling we need today and a groundbreaking resource we need today and beyond Cynthia B Dillard Nana Mansa II of Mpeasem Ghana Athens Georgia and Cape Coast Central Region Ghana While figures on Black women and girls degree attainment suggest that as a group they are achieving in society the reality is that their experiences are far from monolithic that the educational system from early on and through college imposes barriers and inequities pushing many out of school criminalizing their behavior and leading to a high rate of incarceration The purpose of this book is to illuminate scholarship on Black women and girls throughout the educational pipeline The contributors all Black women educators scholars and advocates name the challenges Black women and girls face while pursuing their education as well as offer implications and recommendations for practitioners policymakers teachers and administrators to consider in ensuring the success of Black women and girls This book is divided into four sections each identifying the barriers Black girls and women encounter at the stages of their education and offering strategies to promote their success and agency within and beyond educational contexts In Part One the contributors explore the importance of mattering for Black girls in terms of redefining success and joy centering Black girl literacy pedagogies that encourage them to thrive examining how to make STEM more accessible to them and recounting how Black girls emotions and emotional literacy can either disempower them or promote their sense of agency to navigate educational contexts Part Two uncovers the violence directed toward and the criminalization of Black women and girls and how they are situated in educational and justice systems that collude to fail them The contributors address incarceration and the process of rehabilitation and reentry the outcomes of disciplinary action in schools on women who pursue college and describe how the erasure and disregard of Black women and girls leaves them absent from the educational policies that deeply affect their lives and wellbeing Part Three focuses on how Black women are left to navigate without resources that could make their collegiate pathways smoother covers how hair politics impact their acceptance in college leadership roles particularly at HBCUs illuminates the importance of social emotional and mental health for Black undergraduate women and the lack of adequate resources and explores how women with disabilities navigate higher education The final part of this book describes transformative approaches to supporting the educational needs of Black women and girls including the use of a politicized ethic of care intergenerational love and dialogue and constructing communities including digital environments to ensure they thrive through their education and beyond

Cellphilming Methodology Claudia Mitchell, S. M. Hani Sadati, Lisa J. Starr, Shannon Roy, 2024-06-24 This book focuses on cellphilming as a participatory visual methodology in arts based research and teaching The book aims to advance critical perspectives and re visioning in relation to the co production of knowledge through cellphilming Many of the chapters come out of an international virtual symposium hosted by McGill University in June 2022 It brings together authors working in a variety of interdisciplinary areas and settings including work with Indigenous groups in Canada girls and women with disabilities in Vietnam youth in conflict and refugee contexts in Mali and Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights in Canada Nigeria South Africa and India Some of the re visioning addressed in the collection takes up place as we work in new contexts and situations as we are seeing with the idea of ethnographies at a and in relation to COVID 19 The genres the place of reflexivity and even the timing of participatory engagement might vary as a result of using virtual platforms necessitated by distancing Other re visioning takes place as a result of work with new communities or new age populations and aspects of intersectionality looking across work with very young children and older adults This book contributes to further decolonizing cellphilming methodology to support participatory work in new ways and with underrepresented groups for whom finding new ways for engagement is key A special feature of the book is its attention to work with International NGOs Chapter Cellphones beyond the workshop Youth researchers owning gender transformative change through participatory visual research in rural India during COVID 19 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Societal Contexts of Child Development Elizabeth T. Gershoff Ph.D., Rashmita S. Mistry Ph.D., Danielle A. Crosby Ph.D., 2013-09-06 In the last half century developmental scientists have become increasingly interested in studying contexts beyond the home environment that contribute to children s growth and development including physical contexts such as schools and neighborhoods as well as social contexts such as poverty During this same period a number of social trends have significantly impacted children s daily lives including shifts in gender roles and expectations the emergence of an early care and education system and the proliferation of media technology Societal Contexts of Child Development provides comprehensive literature reviews for six broad contextual influences on children s development that have emerged as key areas of inquiry in contemporary society gender child care culture and ethnicity poverty schools and neighborhoods and media In the spirit of applied developmental science this book considers these six contextual domains in a series of two linked chapters written by experts in the interdisciplinary field of developmental science The first chapter in each section is organized as a review of basic research relevant to a particular context including a discussion of prominent theoretical and methodological issues The second chapter in each section then addresses the same context from an applied research perspective examining and documenting how research has been can be or should be used to enhance the everyday lives and developmental outcomes of children and their families through interventions and or social policies The book concludes with a chapter specifically dedicated to making connections between research and practice and an epilogue that situates the book s chapters within the field s study of contexts Societal Contexts of Child Development will appeal to a broad audience of scholars students practitioners and policymakers from the disciplines of psychology sociology economics human development and public policy
