bringing politicians like Margaret Thatcher and Ronald Reagan to power But their promise that deregulation privatization lower tax rates and smaller government would restore economic security and robust growth proved unfounded Although the guiding hand of the state could no longer deliver the steady economic performance the public had come to expect free market policies were equally unable to do so The golden age would not come back again A sweeping reappraisal of the last sixty years of world history An Extraordinary Time forces us to come to terms with how little control we actually have over the economy Cumulated Index Medicus ,1990 Culture in Psychology Corinne Squire,2000 Presents work from within the developing framework of cultural psychology Three sections explore the meanings of social categories the interaction between written and visual representations and the conscious unconscious meanings of cultural forms
