Literature Connections to World History K6 Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-04-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes help you locate world history resources for students Each is divided into two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within specific geographic areas and time periods They are further organized by product type Both books cover world history from Prehistory and the Ancient World to 54 B C to the modern era Other chapters include Roman Empire to A D 476 Europe and the British Isles Africa and South Africa Australia New Zealand Pacific Islands and Antarctica Canada China India Tibet and Burma Israel and Arab Countries Japan Vietnam Korea Cambodia and Thailand and South and Central America and the Caribbean The second section has an annotated bibliography that describes each title and includes publication information and awards The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorab Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski, 2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet s Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet s Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840 1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world s best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet s celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet s version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism s major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet s Minutes traces the evolution of Monet s art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet s works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to

Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art society and modern temporality Origins of Impressionism Gary Tinterow, Henri Loyrette, 1994 This handsome publication which accompanies a major exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art is a lively and engaging account of the artistic scene in Paris in the 1860s the years that witnessed the beginnings of Impressionism For the first time the interactions and relationships among the group of painters who became known as the Impressionists are examined without the overworn art historical polarities commonly evoked academic versus avant garde classicist versus romantic realist versus impressionist A host of strong personalities contributed to this history and their style evolved into a new way of looking at the world These artists wanted above all to give an impression of truth and to have an impact on or even to shock the public And they wanted to measure up to or surpass their elders This complex and rich environment is presented here the grand old men and the young turks encounter each other the Salon pontificates and the new generation moves fitfully ahead benignly but always with determination Origins of Impressionism gives a day by day year by year study of the genesis of an epoch making style Bibliographies and provenances are provided for each of the almost two hundred works in the exhibition and there is an illustrated chronology With more than two hundred superb colorplates this informative survey is an essential work for both the general reader and the scholar BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Artist Complex Jadwiga

Kamola, 2021-10-11 With the Jungian term of the complex the present volume inquires about the making of the artistic persona in twentieth century photography The articles examine photographic self portraits the dynamics between self statements of artists and photographers the interrelations of photography of painting and of performance art and investigate their origins in the history of ideas The volume traces a portrait of photography as a metascience as preparatory work a source of inspiration and an alternate medium in which artists could explore different subjects With essays by Ulrike Blumenthal Till Cremer Victoria Fleury Jadwiga Kamola Weronika Kobylska Bunsch Nadja Kffler Constance Krger Wilma Scheschonk Gerd Zillner Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S.

Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other The Storytime Handbook Nina Schatzkamer Miller, 2014-01-23 Fresh fun ideas for children's storytime fill this
