What Our Storms Teach Us Overcoming Hurricane Katrina:

What Our Storm Teach Us Bill Isaacs, 2006 This is not a story of sorrow and pity There is no sad song to sing Rather this is a story of hope courage and faith God has preserved our spirits and enabled our survival for a purpose It is a story of people who persevered in hard times and came together to make a difference in the lives of others We are hard after God and desire to be His people Looking back I think in some ways we were made better for the storm In our life storms we learn who we are and who He is When things are good and we prosper the majority of us don't pray as we should nor do we trust When the world is crumbling we learn to trust our God and to believe in His power to redeem restore and rebuild our brokenness

Overcoming Katrina D. Penner, K. Ferdinand, 2016-11-09 Overcoming Katrina tells the stories of 27 New Orleanians as they fought to survive Hurricane Katrina and its aftermath Their oral histories offer first hand experiences three days on a roof with Navy veteran Leonard Smith at the convention center with waitress Eleanor Thornton and with Willie Pitford an elevator man as he rescued 150 people in New Orleans East Overcoming approaches the question of why New Orleans matters from perspectives of the individuals who lived loved worked and celebrated life and death there prior to being scattered across the country by Hurricane Katrina This book's twenty seven narrators range from Mack Slan a conservative businessman who disparages the younger generation for not sharing his ability to make good rational decisions to Kalamu ya Salaam who was followed by the New Orleans Police Department for several years as a militant defender of Black Power in the late 1960s and 70s These narratives are memorials to the corner stores the Baptist churches the community health clinics and those streets where the aunties stood on the corner and whose physical traces have now all been washed away They conclude with visions of a safer equitably rebuilt New Orleans Scroll down for more audio excerpts from Overcoming Katrina
