Tucson David Devine,2015-06-26 Once considered the Metropolis of Arizona

Tucson is in many respects a college town with a major military base onto which a retirement community has been grafted. A sprawling city of one million in the Sonoran Desert Tucson was developed during and especially for the second half of the 20th century a reality which has left it possibly unprepared for the challenges of the 21st century. Tracing the remarkable history of Tucson since 1854 this book describes many aspects of the community its ceremonies and customs its early bitter battle to secure the University of Arizona its multitude of problems its noteworthy successes and its racial divides. The recollections of those who have made Tucson such a memorable place are included from political leaders to celebrities to ordinary residents.

Should I Be Afraid Judy Hanna, 2014-09-28 Should I Be Afraid Learn what doctors nurses and the care community aren't telling you that can kill you something that is already killing millions of others. Learn how your risk of premature death is increased by 300% and how your silence sends a message of approval. The facts are exposed about a country's national embarrassment the unfair and vile treatment of baby boomers and senior citizens. It is a problem of international scope and concern. Facts that have been swept under the rug for decades are exposed in the new book release Should I be Afraid. Who would have thought people 60 and older checking into a hospital for a minor medical problem could be drugged with dangerous chemical restraints without consent or knowledge. You will learn first hand who is committing these crimes against you and how these drugs can damage and disable you. Could you imagine that six million people die annually at the hands of those in whom they have placed trust and the criminals get away with it. Seniors say nobody is warning them about how to cope with or defend themselves against what goes on behind closed doors in their own homes at the hands of family members. What if you could know the types of mistreatment that face one in five seniors today and be armed with facts that could save your life and the lives of others This book holds the key to prevention the key to extending your life and the key to having the power to put those who violate your rights in prison You will be able to determine the answer the question Should I Be Afraid Should I Be Afraid dares to expose the sheer magnitude of crimes against Baby Boomers and Senior Citizens Instead of remaining at risk persons ages 60 and older will be armed with information regarding who is getting away with the crimes how and where they happen and what to do to avoid the dangers What if someone or something was causing premature death of your parent wife husband or other family member or friend and no one even suspected that a crime was committed You will know what these crimes are and the intricate methodology used by these criminals in whom you have placed your trust the same trust that often turns to tragedy Millions of premature deaths occur annually More than 75% of the mistreatment of seniors occurs in the homes of those age 60 and older This survival guide for Baby Boomers and Senior Citizens will provide the solutions and hidden secrets for navigating the minefield ahead Would you like to know how you are abused in hospitals independent living facilities care facilities nursing homes and in life in general and be able to stop violators in their tracks Judy Hanna is an expert research analyst with a twenty year background in print and broadcast media She holds a Master s Degree of Science in Education Administration and a Bachelor s Degree in Business Administration But more importantly she holds a burning fire in her heart to warn and save the largest population demographic seniors and boomers from the revolving door of abuse and mistreatment that continues to threaten their safety daily while society turns a blind eye
