When Will The Sky Fall Hurricane Katrina A Documentary In Poetry:

When Will the Sky Fall? Brad Bechler, 2009 A freelance ghost writer of poetry fiction and academia Brad Bechler presents his debut book of poetry which chronicles his struggles and observations from the devastation left in the wake of Hurricane Katrina His work is a poetic documentary of race and class disparities deeply rooted in the South and how a great American city's spirit and rich history were destroyed by something less apparent than a storm With influences from Langston Hughes Jean Toomer Rita Dove and James Baldwin Bechler tries to uncover truth and a dialogue in what arguably is one of the most memorable moments in this modern era

Empathy in Contemporary Poetry after Crisis Anna Veprinska, 2019-12-31 This book examines the representation of empathy in contemporary poetry after crisis specifically poetry after the Holocaust the September 11 2001 terrorist attacks and Hurricane Katrina The text argues that recognizing both the possibilities and dangers of empathy the poems under consideration variously invite and refuse empathy thus displaying what Anna Veprinska terms empathetic dissonance Veprinska proposes that empathetic dissonance reflects the texts struggle with the question of the value and possibility of empathy in the face of the crises to which these texts respond Examining poems from Charlotte Delbo Dionne Brand Niyi Osundare Charles Reznikoff Robert Fitterman Wisawa Szyborska Cynthia Hogue Claudia Rankine Paul Celan Dan Pagis Lucille Clifton and Katie Ford among others Veprinska considers empathetic dissonance through language witnessing and theology Merging comparative close readings with interdisciplinary theory from philosophy psychology cultural theory history and literary theory and trauma studies this book juxtaposes a genocide a terrorist act and a natural disaster amplified by racial politics and human disregard in order to consider what happens to empathy in poetry after events at the limits of empathy

Is This America? Ron Eyerman, 2015-09-01 From police on the street to the mayor of New Orleans and FEMA administrators government officials monumentally failed to protect the most vulnerable residents of New Orleans and the Gulf Coast during the Katrina disaster This violation of the social contract undermined the foundational narratives and myths of the American nation and spawned a profound often contentious public debate over the meaning of Katrina's devastation A wide range of voices and images attempted to clarify what happened name those responsible identify the victims and decide what should be done This debate took place in forums ranging from mass media and the political arena to the arts and popular culture as various narratives emerged and competed to tell the story of Katrina explores how Katrina has been constructed as a cultural trauma in print media the arts and popular culture and television coverage Using stories told by the New York Times New Orleans Times Picayune Time Newsweek NBC and CNN as well as the works of artists writers musicians filmmakers and graphic designers Ron Eyeran analyzes how these narratives publicly articulated collective pain and loss He demonstrates that by exposing a foundational racial cleavage in American society these expressions of cultural trauma turned individual experiences of suffering during Katrina into a national debate about the failure of the white majority in the United States to care about the black minority A Teacher for All Generations Eric Farrel Mason,2011-10-28 This collection of essays honors James C VanderKam on the occasion of his sixty fifth birthday and twentieth year on the faculty of the University of Notre Dame An international group of scholars including peers specializing in Second Temple Judaism and Biblical Studies colleagues past and present and former students offers essays that interact in various ways with ideas and themes important in VanderKam s own work The collection is divided into five sections spanning two volumes The first volume includes essays on the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East along with studies on Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls Essays in the second volume address topics in early Judaism Enoch traditions and Jubilees and the New Testament and early Christianity Film Pilot Jerry Grayson,2017-03-01 When Jerry Grayson left the Royal Navy s Search and Rescue helicopter fleet aged 25 he was the most decorated peacetime naval pilot in history In terms of excitement however civilian life couldn t compete especially when the only real demand for helicopter pilots was as glorified chauffeurs for the very wealthy Jerry had a passion for the movies and spotted a way in to a new career Somebody had to fly those crazy acrobatic stunts and capture dramatic aerial footage and he reckoned he could do it better push his helicopter further and guarantee the most exciting shots which other pilots might have considered impossible And he was right Over the past 35 years Jerry has become the go to man for aerial filmmaking shooting everything from music videos car commercials and nature documentaries to the Athens Olympic Games and the landing of the Space Shuttle Atlantis But it is in Hollywood that Jerry has really made his mark He was barely out of his 20s when he worked on the airborne finale to the James Bond film A View to a Kill and that helped cement his reputation for the decades since Film Pilot Flying the Lens is full of entertaining behind the scenes stories some that almost ended in disaster for Jerry and an A list actor or two and revelatory insights into just how this invisible sector of the film business operates We all take aerial footage for granted without appreciating the lengths gone to shoot it This is perhaps never more apparent than when Jerry s skills are called upon to gather more important footage the burning oilfields of Kuwait following the first Gulf War and flooded New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina Katrina Papers Jerry W. Ward,2008 Dr Jerry W Ward Jr fuses autobiography politics spirituality history and poetry in a highly inventive and unusual trip through the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina Ward s house and the university campus where he worked as a professor were both flooded in the storm It is from this trauma that Ward scrambles to find hope and sanity in a world ruled by the fact that thousands have been abused by Nature and revenge is impossible New
