The Window of Vulnerability Dorothee Sölle, 1990 A Political Theology of Vulnerability Sturla J. Stålsett, 2023-06-26

Vulnerability is at the core of the political drama of our time Countering conventional approaches this book presents human vulnerability as a source of political community and a potential for political agency in precarity Analyzing Christian celebrations of Christmas and Easter in contexts of struggle it shows how religious resources inspire precarious politics Combining critical political theory liberation theology and lived religion Sturla J St lsett sees in such celebrations a political sacralization of vulnerability and a dispossession of divinity The Theology of Dorothee Soelle Dorothee Sölle, Sarah K. Pinnock, 2003-09-10 Leading experts analyze the innovative work of theologian Dorothee Soelle An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theolog William T. Cavanaugh, Jeffrey W. of women globally and how the growing plurality of women's voices from multicultural and multireligious contexts articulates feminist liberation theology today Publisher description Broken We Kneel Diana Butler Bass,2019-10-17 America's unique and often fractious relationship between church and state is if anything more relevant to who we are as a nation than when Diana Butler Bass examination of it in Broken We Kneel was first published 16 years ago This second edition contains a new foreword and introduction as well as a new conclusion outlining her vision for the future Born in the tumultuous aftermath of 9/11 and now a spiritual classic the book draws on both her personal experience and her knowledge of religious history Bass looks at Christian identity patriotism citizenship and congregational life in an attempt to answer the central question that so many are struggling with today To whom do Christians owe deepest allegiance God or country In writing both impassioned and historically informed Bass reflects on current events personal experiences and political questions that have sharpened the tensions between serious faith and national imperatives The book incorporates the author's own experience of faith as writer teacher wife mother and churchgoer into a larger conversation about Christian practice and contemporary political issues Broken We Kneel is a call to remember that the core of Christian identity is not always compatible with national political policies The Tenderness of Conscience Allan Boesak,2005-03-01 With this book theologian and political observer Allan Boesak once again displays the strengths of his writings that were evident in the seventies and eighties bringing Christian theology to bear on the political and socio-economic realities of our world A serious and open-hearted commentary on the African Renaissance and the spirituality of politics but with the clarity of the deeply embedded Christian message Danny Titus The Language of Battered Women Carol L. Winkelmann,2012-02-01 Winner of the 2005 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender OSCLG This study of battered women living in a shelter offers a rhetorical analysis of survivors' personal theologies Author Carol L Winkelmann holds that while it is virtually ignored in the domestic violence literature the Christian heritage of many battered women plays a significant if complicated role in their language thoughts and lives The women's religious faith serves not only to sustain them through periods of profound suffering but also to develop solidarity with other culturally different women in the shelter Designed to assist women to greater independence the shelter actually functions as a culture of surveillance where women turn to one another and to their faith to cope with the trauma of violence To heal the women engage in dialogue that is dense in religious imagery talking about the relationship of God and the church to suffering and evil At the same time these women also acknowledge that organized religion is very much involved in the maintenance of patriarchal marriage and its attendant abuses in their own lives Together battered women are sometimes able to construct creative theological responses to the problem of suffering and evil A mix of religious and secular languages compels them to devise new ways of thinking about their role in family church and society Companion Encyclopedia of Theology Peter Byrne,Leslie Houlden,Rev Prof Leslie Houlden,2002-09-11 In 48 separately authored self-contained articles by an international team of both Christian and

Jewish theologians and practitioners this Companion provides a thorough examination of the place of Christianity in the modern world
