Youth Arts And Education Reassembling Subjectivity Through Affect Routledge Advances In Sociology:

Youth, Arts, and Education Anna Hickey-Moody, 2013-02-11 How are the arts important in young people's lives? Youth Arts and Education offers a groundbreaking theory of arts education. Anna Hickey-Moody explores how the arts are ways of belonging, resisting, being governed, and being heard. Through examples from the United Kingdom and Australia, Anna Hickey-Moody shows the cultural significance of the kinds of learning that occur in and through arts. Drawing on the thought of Gilles Deleuze, she develops the theory of affective pedagogy, which explains the process of learning that happens through aesthetics. Bridging divides between critical pedagogical theory, youth studies, and arts education scholarship, this book explains the cultural significance of the kinds of learning that occur in and through arts. Advances a theory of aesthetic citizenship created by youth arts. Demonstrates ways in which arts practices are forms of popular and public pedagogy. Critiques popular ideas that art can be used to fix problems in the lives of youth at risk. Youth Arts and Education is the first post-critical theory of arts education. It will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities, in particular in the sociology of education, arts education, youth studies, sociology of the arts, and cultural studies. Deleuze and Masculinity Anna Hickey-Moody, 2019-08-16 This book uses Deleuze's work to understand the politics of masculinity today. It analyses masculinity in terms of what it does, how it operates, and what its affects are. Taking a pragmatic approach, Hickey-Moody shapes chapters around key Deleuzian concepts that have proved generative in masculinity studies and then presents case studies of popular subjects and offers overviews of disciplines that have applied Deleuze's work to the study of men's lives. This book shows how the concepts of affect and assemblage have contributed to and transformed the work undertaken by the foundational concept of performativity in gender studies. Examining the work of Deleuze and Guattari on the psychoanalytic boy as exemplified by their writing on Little Hans, Hickey-Moody reconsiders the politics of their approach to psychoanalytic models of young masculinity. In this context, the author examines contemporary lived performances of young masculinity, drawing on her own fieldwork. The field of disability and masculinity studies has taken up the work of Deleuze and Guattari in a nearly unprecedented fashion. Accordingly, the book also explores the gendered nature of disability and canvases some of the substantive scholarly contributions that have been made to this interdisciplinary space before introducing case studies of the work of North American photographer Michael Stokes and the popular Hollywood film Me Before You. The book provocatively concludes by challenging scholars to take up Deleuze's thought to re-shape gendered economies of knowledge and matter that support and contribute to systems of patriarchal domination mediated through environmental exploitation. Youth Cultures in a Globalized World Gerald Knapp, Hannes Krall, 2021-03-06 This book examines the relation between the phenomenon of globalization, changes in the lifeworld of young people, and the development of specific youth cultures. It explores the social, political, economic, and cultural impact of globalization on young people. Growing diversity in their lifeworlds, technological development, migration, and the ubiquity of digital communication and representation of the world open up new forms of self representation networking and political expression which are described and discussed in the book Other topics are the impact of globalization on work and economy global environmental issues such as climate change political movements which put nationalism first change of youth s values and the significance of body gender and beauty The book highlights the challenges of young people in modern life as well as the way in which they express themselves and engage in society in culture politics work and social life

Centers and Peripheries in Knowledge Production Leandro Rodriguez Medina,2013-10-01 This book examines the circulation of knowledge within globalization focusing on the differences between centers and peripheries of knowledge production in the social sciences It explores not only how knowledge is appropriated in peripheral fields but also how foreign ideas shape those fields and the trajectories of scholars and uses actor network theory to explain circulation of knowledge as an extension of socio technical networks that transcend borders

Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Sarah J. Williams,2024-12-15 Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Born to Stand Out explores the building of political voice of young South Sudanese Australians to resist racialising discourses particularly through hip hop Presented as an ethnography Sarah J Williams draws on empirical evidence from a youth participatory action research project facilitated by a small nonprofit organisation Footprints Each chapter foregrounds counter narratives young South Sudanese Australian hip hop artists portray in response to over a decade of media and moral panics targeting their communities limiting their sense of freedom and resulting in a rise in youth suicide The core message throughout suggests participants reject any goal of or focus on fitting in Instead based on their conviction that they are born to stand out these activists carve out space in the face of racialising discourses perpetuated primarily by Australian Whiteness Through the lenses of new social movements and theories and perspectives informed by critical race theory and critical Hip Hop pedagogy this book expands race and ethnicity as a central theme by exploring how the political voice of this group of young South Sudanese Australians manifests in important new ways that conventional theories of activism and resistance may not capture Participants embark on consciousness raising practices to reframe and assert their multiple identities whilst establishing themselves as social agents in the world

Children in Crisis Manata Hashemi,Martín Sánchez-Jankowski,2013-06-07 This volume brings together ethnographers conducting research on children living in crisis situations in both developing and developed regions taking a cross cultural approach that spans different cities in the global North and South to provide insight and analyses into the lifeworlds of their young at risk inhabitants Looking at the lived experiences of poverty drastic inequality displacement ecological degradation and war in countries including Haiti Argentina and Palestine the book shows how children both respond to and are shaped by their circumstances Going beyond conventional images of children subjected to starvation hunger and disease to build an integrated analysis of what it means to be a child in crisis in the 21st century the book makes a significant contribution to the nascent field of study concerned with development and childhood With children

now at the forefront of debates on human rights and poverty reduction there is no better time for scholars policymakers and the general public to understand the complex social economic and political dynamics that characterize their present predicaments and future life chances

Social Capital and Its Institutional Contingency Nan Lin,Yang-chih Fu,Chih-jou Jay Chen,2013-11-12 This volume is a collection of original studies based on one of the first research programs on comparative analysis of social capital Data are drawn from national representative samples of the United States China and Taiwan The three societies selected for study allow the examination of how political economic regimes command versus market and cultural factors family centrality versus diverse social ties affect the characteristics of social ties and social networks from which resources are accessed and mobilized

Racism, Governance, and Public Policy Katy Sian,Ian Law,S. Sayyid,2013-06-07 This book presents a new framing of policy debates on the question of racism through a discursive critique of contemporary issues and contexts drawing on a program of new European research carried out between 2010 and 2013 with a central focus on the UK This includes analysis of the discursive construction of Muslims in three contexts the workplace education and the media Informed by a fundamental critique of both the post racial and the limitations of human rights strategies it identifies the ongoing significance of contemporary raciality in governance strategies and develops a new radical agenda for addressing these processes advocating strategies of racism reduction
