Van Hoogkapitalisme Naar Verzorgingsstaaten Halve Eeuw Sociale Verandering:

The Economy and Politics of the Netherlands Since 1945 Richard Griffiths, 2013-03-09 There is relatively little information on The Netherlands written in the English language which is easily accessible to social science students and even less which is systematically assembled between the covers of a single book This is unfortunate not only because The Netherlands is an important part of Western Europe but because the experience of The Netherlands in the way in which it has attempted to resolve the economic and political problems confronting it may help to shed valuable light on similar issues facing other European countries The contributions for this volume were chosen with these considerations in mind On the one hand the selection of topics was intended to provide an overall impression of the political and economic development of The Netherlands since the Second World War Thus separate chapters are devoted to an examination of economic development counter inflation energy regional and planning policies pressure groups electoral performance cabinet formation and colonial and European policies On the other hand these areas for investigation were chosen to invite specific contrast with the experience of other European nations or to illustrate certain problems of political or economic theory It is my pleasure to thank first of all the contributors themselves for the conscientious way in which they prepared their drafts which made my task as editor so much easier Secondly it will be apparent to even the most casual observer that I have contributed two chapters

Secularization Karel Dobbelaere, 2002 In an epoch in which religion has explicitly and sometimes violently returned to the forefront of the global public scene the process of secularization that has fundamentally marked Western and particularly European societies demands attention and analysis This book written from a sociological perspective takes up that challenge The author distinguishes three levels of secularization Societal secularization which is a typical consequence of the processes of modernity and of programmes of laicisation promoted by political parties Individual secularization that is manifested in the decline of church commitment occurring as individuals re compose their personal beliefs and practices in a religion la carte and as the individual's meaning system becomes compartmentalized and religion is separated from other areas of life A third level organizational secularization covers the incidence of the adaptation of religious bodies to secularized society The entire work is marked by meticulous description and analysis of numerous theoretical and empirical studies and by due recognition of the intricate relationship between levels of secularization and the impact of various actors in the many conflicts over religion's roles

Gender, Participation and Citizenship in the Netherlands Jet Bussemaker, Rian Voet, 2019-01-15 Published in 1998 this is an edited volume of papers on the theme of participation and citizenship for women It focuses particularly on the necessary conditions for full participation of women as citizens within a modern liberal democracy For this question it takes the Netherlands as an interesting case study because it shows the need for a close connection between social and political participation The editors aim to draw together often separate discussions about citizenship in international literature a political theoretical discussion of democracy and a social policy discussion on the welfare state The papers address issues including the labour market public goods welfare laws affirmative action programmes and future development for girls The book also develops the interrelation of social and political participation from the perspective of citizenship It relates information on the Dutch case study to international comparative research on democracy and welfare states as well as to broader international discussions on gender and citizenship

The Decline of Fertility in Europe Ansley Johnson Coale, 2017-03-14 This volume summarizes the major findings of the Princeton European Fertility Project The Project begun in 1963 was a response to the realization that one of the great social revolutions of the last century the remarkable decline in marital fertility in Europe was still poorly understood Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
