Emily Ralph Servant, 2021-03-12 Could it be that the stories we tell in our churches weaken our efforts to be congregations who take risks in mission for the sake of love In this thought provoking book Emily Ralph Servant suggests that the work of today's leaders is to explore new stories listen to new voices and open ourselves up to the Spirit's work of transformation Experiments in Love engages in a three way dialogue with feminist and liberation theologians the social and behavioral sciences and the Anabaptist tradition Out of this vibrant conversation emerges the story of a God who takes the risk of being radically present to a vulnerable world Because of God's courageous presence with us we can also take the risk of being vulnerably present to others as God invites us all to participate in God's community of life love and flourishing

Mennonite Farmers Royden Loewen, 2021-11-02 A comparative global history of Mennonites from the ground up Winner of the Dale W Brown Book Award for Outstanding Scholarship in Anabaptist and Pietist Studies Shortlisted for the Wallace K Ferguson Prize by the Canadian Historical Association Nominee of the Margaret McWilliams Award by the Manitoba Historical Society Mennonite farmers can be found in dozens of countries spanning five continents In this comparative world scale environmental history Royden Loewen draws on a multi year study of seven geographically distinctive Anabaptist communities around the world focusing on Mennonite farmers in Bolivia Canada Indonesia the Netherlands Russia the United States and Zimbabwe These farmers who include Amish Brethren in Christ and Siberian Baptists till the land in starkly distinctive climates They absorb very disparate societal lessons while being shaped by particular faith outlooks historical memory and the natural environment The book reveals the ways in which modern day Mennonite farmers have adjusted to diverse temperatures precipitation soil types and relative degrees of climate change These farmers have faced broad global forces of modernization during the twentieth and early twenty first centuries from commodity markets and intrusive governments to technologies marked increasingly by the mechanical chemical and genetic Based on more than 150 interviews and close textual analysis of memoirs newspapers and sermons the narrative follows among others Zandile Nyandeni of Matopo as she hoes the spring fed soils of Matabeleland s semi arid savannah Vladimir Friesen of Apollonovka Siberia who no longer heeds the dictates of industrial time of the Soviet era state farm and Abram Enns of Riva Palacio Bolivia who tells how he a horse and buggy traditionalist hired bulldozers to clear cut a farm in the eastern lowland forests to grow soybeans initially leading to dust bowl conditions As Mennonites Loewen writes these farmers were raised with knowledge of the historic Anabaptist teachings on community simplicity and peace that stood alongside ideas on place and sustainability Nonetheless conditioned by gender class ethnicity race and local values they put their agricultural ideas into practice in remarkably diverse ways Mennonite Farmers is a pioneering work that brings faith into conversation with the land in distinctive ways

Teaching Tenets of Faith in Worship James Akerson, 2019-04-02 Western culture no longer has a broad Christian understanding In fact much of what American media dishes out is pantheistic or anti religious Sociological research indicates that a multitude of beliefs have crept into Christian understandings of faith This situation is not new As early as the fifteenth century Erasmus asserted that the greatest concern of his time was that Christians were most often rank heathens when it came to their orthodoxy It is also apparent that attendance at Sunday school Vacation Bible School and other gatherings has fallen at a great rate The author believes providing Christian education in the context of worship is therefore the best opportunity for reaching believers with historical elements of faith A twenty four part lectionary based catechetical curriculum is provided for worship With it congregations can dwell in a sermon series that is surrounded by supportive full bodied worship
