Quiet, Please Scott Douglas,2010-09-17 A humorist and honest look at a life in public service For most of us librarians are the quiet people behind the desk who apart from the occasional shush vanish into the background But in Quiet Please

McSweeney's contributor Scott Douglas puts the quirky caretakers of our literature front and center. With a keen eye for the absurd and a Keseyesque cast of characters, witness the librarian who is sure Thomas Pynchon is Julia Roberts's latest flame. Douglas takes us where few readers have gone before. Punctuated by his own highly subjective research into library history from Andrew Carnegie's Gilded Age to today's Afghanistan, Douglas gives us a surprising and sometimes hilarious look at the lives which make up the social institution that is his library. This 10th Anniversary Edition includes nearly 100 pages of added content, including a new forward and afterward.

The Wasting of Borneo Alex Shoumatoff, 2017-04-11. Acclaimed naturalist Alex Shoumatoff issues a worldwide call to protect the drastically endangered rainforests of Borneo. In his eleventh book, but his first in almost two decades, seasoned travel writer Alex Shoumatoff takes readers on a journey from the woods of rural New York to the rain forests of the Amazon and Borneo, documenting both the abundance of life and the threats to these vanishing Edens. In a wide-ranging narrative, Alex and his best friend Davie spent their formative years in the forest of Bedford, New York. As adults, they grew apart but bonded by the imaginary jungle of their childhood. Alex and Davie reunited fifty years later for a trip to a real jungle in the heart of Borneo. During the intervening years, Alex had become an author and literary journalist traveling the world to bring to light places, animals, and indigenous cultures in peril. The two reconnect and spend three weeks together on Borneo, one of the most imperiled ecosystems on earth. Insatiable demand for the palm oil ubiquitous in consumer goods is wiping out the world's most ancient and species-rich rain forest, home to the orangutan and countless other life forms, including the Penan people with whom Alex and Davie camp. The Penan have been living in Borneo's rain forest for millennia, but 90 percent of the lowland rain forest has already been logged and burned to make way for vast oil palm plantations. Among the most endangered tribal people on earth, the Penan are fighting for their right to exist. Shoumatoff condenses a lifetime of learning about what binds humans to animals, nature, and each other, culminating in a celebration of the Penan and a call for Westerners to address the palm oil crisis and protect the biodiversity that sustains us all.
