Will And Spirit A Contemplative Psychology:

Will and Spirit Gerald G. May, 1982 A rich book covering many areas of human experience For the person looking for an intelligent and clear presentation of the relationship between psychological and spiritual growth this is the book to read

Will and Spirit Gerald Gordon May, 1987 A psychiatrist and contemplative describes the dynamics of the human mind as it comes into contact with the transcendent in prayer Spiritual Exercises Reclaimed, 2nd Edition, The Liebert, Elizabeth, Paulin-Campbell, Annemarie, 2022 This companion to the Spiritual Exercises in an anniversary edition does justice to women's experience across contexts and social locations While acknowledging obstacles that the Exercises hold for women in various contexts the authors provide fresh interpretations of every aspect of this spiritual classic They bring together feminist consciousness a broad knowledge of psychology and theology and the compassionate insight of experienced spiritual guides The situation of women making and giving the Spiritual Exercises has changed radically in the past two decades since the publication of the previous edition which highlights the variety women's experience of the Spiritual Exercises from different cultural contexts It also draws from new and younger women's voices thus extending the reach of the original text to another generation over wider geographic and cultural spread The revised book opens up new ways in which the Exercises may offer liberating possibilities for women world wide Discovering the Art of Soul Friending

Carolyn Gratton, 2019-04-09 This friendly accessible book is about the age old hunger in human hearts to open and deepen and grow towards faithful intimacy with the Source of all that is This spiritual journey is radically personal but it is not meant to be entirely solitary It can be supported at crucial times by friendship with someone who has learned how to listen through a life of prayer for the guidance of God's Spirit in their own soul and in the soul of another Long ago in Celtic Christian Ireland such a person was called an anam cara a soul friend Every soul from time to time on its mysterious trek towards union with God needs a human friend for encouragement on the way In Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton invites us to say yes to the ability to share with another and to disclose something of oneself on each seeker's journey towards union with God Enriched by a lifetime of insights gained from educating groups around the world she guides aspiring spiritual companions to a discernment of their own level of spiritual maturity sensitivity in the art of spiritual guidance and to a seeker's desires the soil from which their truest love can spring a commitment to prayer and the transformation of consciousness it makes possible rootedness in their own faith tradition and throughout life an openness to the expanded perceptions possible in our multicultural world Carolyn completes each chapter with what she calls a Book Providence section an annotated bibliography of resources that can expand the discernment skills and contextual awareness of potential soul friends Who Count as Persons? John F. Kavanaugh, 2001-05-23 Just what is a human being Who counts The answers to these questions are crucial when one is faced with the ethical issue of taking human life In this affirmation of the intrinsic personal dignity and inviolability of every human individual John Kavanaugh S J denies that it can ever be moral to intentionally kill another Today in every corner of the world men and women are willing to kill others in the name of realism and under the guise of race class quality of life sex property nationalism security or religion We justify these killings by either excluding certain humans from our definition of personhood or by invoking a greater good or more pressing value Kavanaugh contends that neither alternative is acceptable He formulates an ethics that opposes the intentional killing not only of medically marginal humans but also of depersonalized or criminalized enemies Offering a philosophy of the person that embraces the undeveloped the wounded and the dying he proposes ways to recover a personal ethical stance in a global society that increasingly devalues the individual Kavanaugh discusses the work of a range of philosophers artists and activists from Richard Rorty and S ren Kierkegaard to Albert Camus and Woody Allen from Mother Teresa to Jack Kevorkian His approach is in stark contrast to that of writer Peter Singer and others who believe that not all human life has intrinsic moral worth It will challenge philosophers students of ethics and anyone concerned about the depersonalization of contemporary life

Adulthood, Morality, and the Fully Human John J. Shea, 2018-05-07 In Adulthood Morality and the Fully Human John J Shea describes an adult moral and fully human self in terms of integrity and mutuality Those who are fully human are caring and just Violence is the absence of care and justice Peace the pinnacle of human development is their embodiment Integrity and mutuality together beget care and justice and care and justice together beget peace Shea shows the practical importance of the fully human self for education psychotherapy and spirituality This book is especially recommended for scholars and those in helping professions

Hineni Alisa Kasmir, 2020-01-10 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers third place award in inspirational How do you encounter the mystery of the other This is the central question at the heart of spiritual direction and central to the human quest Hineni presence is not an answer to the mystery but a response to the challenge At a time when people on the edges of religion increasingly seek out spiritual direction as a way of confronting life s unanswerable questions hineni indicates a fundamental reality beyond labels And in an age that seems to suffer from disconnection hineni indicates a way in A helpful resource for anyone interested in spirituality beyond easy answers or in convenient labels Hineni In Imitation of Abraham is a stark exploration of what it truly means to be present to yourself to the one before you and to the one we call God

Psychoanalysis in Context Alvin Henry, 2020-05-15 Drawing on methods and approaches from various schools of psychoanalysis comparative literature and cultural studies the contributors to Psychoanalysis in Context examine how the circulation of psychoanalysis across time and place reflects and shapes literature and literary criticism The essays in this volume cover a wide geographic and thematic range while attending to the historical moment of the literature the psychoanalysis and the interpretations and misinterpretations of psychoanalysis Adrienne Seely examines the psychoanalytic dimensions of narrative structure in light of masochistic aesthetics and of the situating of women and robots both beneath and beyond humanist ideology Simon Porzak analyzes the reconfiguration of the father figure through poetry Nicholas Ray examines the close historical and theoretical connections between Freud s interpretative appeal to tragic drama and his professed abandonment of the seduction theory Vera Profit asks how the question of evil challenges the limits of literary representation Laura Dawkins examines the applicability of psychoanalytic paradigms to African American literature and culture Brian Glaser questions how psychoanalysis helps to distinguish insight and wisdom from mechanism or defense in reading the poetry of modernist male subjectivity Shirley Zisser explores unseen dimensions of psychosis and establishes the main symptom of culture Michael Angelo Tata analyzes the transformation of Lacan's objet a under Late Capitalism and the emergence of a new form of desire Erica Galioto strives to produce an alliance across multiple psychoanalytic discourses by redefining Freud's notion of transference Hilary Thompson challenges the historical legacy of psychoanalysis in the colonial context to demonstrate the polarity yet compatibility of psychic and political models of melancholia in the postcolonial context In the final chapter Maire Jaanus provides a definitive reading of Albert Camus's The Stranger and traces Lacan's shift from conceptualizing the unconscious as able to constantly register and interpret language to that of a Real Unconscious which is amorphous and formless jouissance Jaanus analyzes the development of ordinary psychosis she ends her reading with a stunning reply to Edward Said's identity politics reading of the novel to reveal how a phallic reading cannot imagine a corporeal fantasy beyond the sexual This collection of essays offers a series of fresh and critical insights into the literary history of both psychoanalysis and literature Contributors Laura Dawkins Erica Galioto Brian Glaser Maire Jaanus Simon Porzak Vera Profit Nicholas Ray Adrienne Seely Michael Angelo Tata Hilary Thompson and Shirley Zisser

The Diocesan Priest David Bohr, 2009-07-01 In a robust and engaging manner David Bohr offers us a thorough review and timely reanalysis of the Catholic diocesan priesthood Biblical historical and sacramental voices dialogue with the relevant documents of the Second Vatican Council other papal pronouncements and the perspectives of some of the major commentators on the state of the Catholic priesthood today Clergy and laity alike will find in Bohr's models of priestly ministry and the topics of consecration mission and celibacy a flash point reigniting the discussion of the past present and future of the Catholic diocesan priesthood

Building a Life Worth Living Marsha Linehan, 2020 Over the years DBT had saved the lives of countless people fighting depression and suicidal thoughts but Linehan had never revealed that her pioneering work was inspired by her own desperate struggles as a young woman Only when she received this question did she finally decide to tell her story In this remarkable and inspiring memoir Linehan describes how when she was eighteen years old she began an abrupt downward spiral from popular teenager to suicidal young woman After several miserable years in a psychiatric institute Linehan made a vow that if she could get out of emotional hell she would try to find a way to help others get out of hell too and to build a life worth living She went on to put herself through night school and college living at a YWCA and often scraping together spare change to buy food She went on to get her PhD in psychology specializing in behavior therapy In the 1980s she achieved a breakthrough when she developed Dialectical Behavioral Therapy a therapeutic approach that combines acceptance of the self and ways to change Linehan included mindfulness as a key component in therapy treatment along with original and specific life skill techniques She says You can't think yourself into new ways of acting you can only act yourself into new ways of thinking New Paths Toward the Sacred Catherine McCann,2008 Using Bernard Lonergan's categories of experience New Paths Toward the Sacred highlights the intimate connection between human experience and an awareness of the Sacred analyzed by the author's practical research based on studying people's reactions and experiences in a sculpture garden A movement from awe to awe in everyday living is emphasized This is presented by the author's reliance upon the reflective insights into the thoughts of the best theological scholars BOOK JACKET Writing the Icon of the Heart Maggie Ross,2013-02-13 The subtitle of Maggie Ross's new book captures its essence for it is about silence and our need to behold God Beholding is a notion that we are in danger of losing It is often lost in translation even by the NRSV and the Jerusalem Bible Beholding needs to be recovered both in theology and practice Ross is very aware of poor talkative Christianity There is a twofold plea to enter into silence for lack of silence erodes our humanity and to behold the radiance of God This is a book full of deep questioning and the testing of our assumptions Throughout there is a great love for the world and for our humanity accompanied by sadness that we are so easily distracted We are invited into a silence that is not necessarily an absence of noise but is a limitless interior space Ancient texts are used in new and exciting ways and many of our worship practices are challenged She is in no doubt that the glory of the human being is the beholding of God adapted from a review in The Church Times London by Canon David Adam

A Path Revealed Carlen Maddux,2016-09-01 Just days after turning fifty Martha Maddux a spirited mother and civic activist was told she had Alzheimer's disease She and husband Carlen felt as though they'd been shoved out of a plane 10 000 feet up with nothing to grab but themselves A Path Revealed is not about the fallout from an insidious disease that extended over seventeen years It is the story of a path of hope emerging during the darkest hours a path that lifted Carlen and Martha above the devastating symptoms of this disease Carlen traveled with Martha to the backwoods of Kentucky where the quiet presence of a Catholic nun revealed a hidden path He was forced to slow down as he traced this path halfway around the world to Australia retreated weekends to a monastery embraced meditation and landed all alone in Thomas Merton's cabin This story conveys a message of hope and joy in the midst of an almost overwhelming tragedy

Spiritual Transformation Richard W. Clark,2017-08-15 Spiritual Transformation examines the subtle and complex nature of addictions and poly addictions alcohol drugs pornography shopping eating work etc the myths and traps that defeat recovery from them the structure and intent of each of the twelve steps the related roles of psychology therapy medicine the underlying spiritual philosophy of each of those steps what being recovered actually means the overriding importance of the five spiritual principles and much more It is written for anyone in any twelve step program for family and friends of addicts of all stripes for educators for professionals who work with addicts and alcoholics and anyone who wishes to understand the intricate workings of addiction Richard Clark has presented this material in various formats since 1986 to over ninety thousand people Mind, Brain and the Elusive Soul Mark Graves, 2016-04-22 Does science argue against the existence of the human soul Many scientists and scholars believe the whole is more than the sum of the parts This book uses information and systems theory to describe the more that does not reduce to the parts One sees this in the synapses or apparently empty gaps between the neurons in one's brain where informative relationships give rise to human mind culture and spirituality Drawing upon the disciplines of cognitive science computer science neuroscience general systems theory pragmatic philosophy and Christian theology Mark Graves reinterprets the traditional doctrine of the soul as form of the body to frame contemporary scientific study of the human soul Where Two Or Three Are Gathered Daniel L. Prechtel, 2012-04 Much has been written about the practice of one to one spiritual directions but much less about small group communities that offer in depth mutual spiritual support and guidance to its members But small groups are most likely the more usual setting for spiritual companionship and have strong biblical theological and historical foundation in the Christian tradition This book offers a detailed presentation of ten small group models plus guidance in group leadership dynamics It also presents material related to group retreat work spiritual guidance with organizations and peer supervision consultation model for supporting leaders of spiritual companionship groups and retreats Church leaders spiritual directors and educators are looking for the kinds of resources this book provides to assist them in understanding and leading groups and retreats Handbook for Spiritual Directors Julie M. Douglas, 1998 Public Practice, Private Law Gary Chartier, 2016-04-06 This book elaborates an appealing model of marriage rooted in love for same sex and different sex couples that doesn't involve the state Military Chaplains' Review, 1983 Living with Dying Joan Berzoff, Phyllis R. Silverman, 2004 The first resource on end of life care for healthcare practitioners who work with the terminally ill and their families Living with Dying begins with the narratives of five healthcare professionals who when faced with overwhelming personal losses altered their clinical practices and philosophies The book provides ways to ensure a respectful death for individuals families groups and communities and is organized around theoretical issues in loss grief and bereavement and around clinical practice with individuals families and groups Living with Dying addresses practice with people who have specific illnesses such as AIDS bone marrow disease and cancer and pays special attention to patients who have been stigmatized by culture ability sexual orientation age race or homelessness The book includes content on trauma and developmental issues for children adults and the aging who are dying and it addresses legal ethical spiritual cultural and social class issues as core factors in the assessment of and work with the dying It explores interdisciplinary teamwork supervision and the organizational and financing contexts in which dying occurs Current research in end of life care ways to provide leadership in the field and a call for compassion insight and respect for the dying makes this an indispensable resource for social workers healthcare educators administrators consultants advocates and practitioners who work with the dying and their families
