Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1892 Suffering in Anglophone Literatures Charles I. Armstrong, Martina Domines, 2024-10-15 Suffering in Anglophone Literatures engages with postclassical Trauma Studies and opens the traumatic envelope to embrace concepts such as toleration mourning nostalgia vulnerability and existential Angst The first section explores insomnia in Shakespeare testimonial suffering in Richardson nostalgia in Clare work as a form of suffering in Tennyson and pleasurable suffering in Trollope The second section deals with suffering as expressed in blues by August Wilson intergenerational healing by Rosanna Deerchild systemic pain in war fiction from World War One to the Vietnam War personal and historical nostalgia by John Banville and literary non commitment to suffering by Joyce and Philip Kerr The final section turns to more recent literary texts ranging from the poetry of Derek Mahon Philip Metres and Solmaz Sharif to novels on intergenerational trauma by Kate Morton the sexual abuse of women by Miriam Toews and growing up in poverty by Douglas Stuart Meadows George Peterken, 2017-11-30 The second volume of a major new series of books on British natural history Meadows provide one of the most wide ranging and eloquent treatments of this most quintessential British habitat Yet the flower rich hay meadows that have inspired writers and artists for hundreds of years have almost disappeared from our countryside In this exceptional work George Peterken one of our most respected ecologists brings together years of research and discovery from his travels across Britain and Europe as well as an understanding borne out of caring for his own meadows to produce a book that will put this often misunderstood habitat back in the public's eye Filled with beautiful images of meadows and their denizens this is a book everyone with an interest in this iconic habitat will want to own Revolutions in Development Inquiry Robert Chambers, 2012 Robert Chambers returns with a new book that reviews together for the first time some of the revolutionary changes in the methodologies and methods of development inquiry that have occurred in the past forty years and reflects on their transformative potential for the future This book breaks new ground by describing and analysing the evolution of a sequence of approaches Starting with the dinosaurs of large scale multi subject questionnaire surveys and the biased visits and perceptions of rural development tourism and urban based professionals there follows a look at the explosive proliferation of methodologies and methods of recent years These include rapid rural appraisal RRA participatory rural appraisal PRA and dramatic developments in the still largely unrecognized fields of participatory numbers and statistics and of participatory mapping and GIS Chambers shows how these can empower local people and provide rigorous and valid substitutes for some more traditional methods of inquiry Also presented is a repertoire for offsetting the biases of the urban trap which has become so serious for officials and aid agency staff Importantly Chambers points out that we are now in a different space methodologically from a few years ago He makes the case that participatory methodologies evolved through creative and eclectic pluralism can be a transformative wave for the future as drivers of personal professional and institutional change This book is for all who are concerned with development regardless of profession discipline or organization who seek to be abreast of the revolutionary breakthroughs in approaches and methods of inquiry of recent years and what Chambers calls their unlimited potentials Published with IDS The Nation ,1893 The Literary World ,1892
