Year After Year Memoirs Of Teaching:

Year After Year Elsie Schrader, 2000-06-01 Confessions of an English Teacher: A Memoir of My Teaching Years Richard P. Sinay, 2024-07-24 Confessions of an English Teacher A Memoir of My Teaching Years was written to share some of my extraordinary experiences teaching English at six high schools and seven community colleges in Orange County California from 1973 to 2018 I share these memories because they were so disappointing in their discovery I imagined that as an English teacher I was prepared to teach the subject I was trained for but I learned that was far from the truth My training as an English teacher should have prepared me to teach essential skills It did not As I reflect on my teaching at these schools I discovered that my English degree needed to produce a prepared English teacher for teaching the skills of reading grammar and writing Looking back at what I was mandated to teach revealed a sad truth teaching English to high school and college students was filled with traditions that needed to change With what I discovered to be traditional problems in teaching English I offer recommendations for change for high schools and community colleges Memoirs of Teachers, Educators, and Promoters and Benefactors of Education, Literature, and Science Henry Barnard, 1861 Memoir of a Retired Teacher Praxedes Solina Victoriano, 2022-07-13 Memoir of a Retired Teacher By Praxedes Solina Victoriano Teacher Praxedes Solina Victoriano wrote Memoir of a Retired Teacher to reach the attention of parents school administrators and government authorities about the problems prevailing in US classrooms Praxedes hopes that if the above mentioned sectors work together teachers will be able to teach more effectively resulting in a higher quality of education especially in the public secondary schools The main purpose of writing this book is to help teachers maximize the learning process in their classrooms California Dreamin': A 19-year Old Indian Sikh's Memoir: Journey to California, Romance, Trials & Tribulations Rajinder S. Khokhar, 2016-10 California Dreaming is about my journey to America for higher studies in 1961 and my difficult first 2 years On the way I had a wonderful shipboard romance with Kavita a tall Indian woman We parted in Italy and we were heartbroken Before we could meet in America she had to rush back to India because Grandmother had a heart attack Later she visited with her mother The highlight was her trying on a bikini What a beautiful sight voluptuous breasts curvy body long legs It was huge turn on and later we enjoyed passionate lovemaking Love of my life could not stay and had to return to India I wondered if I would see her again College in Indiana was great but I could not handle snow and California was calling Driving there in an old car was adventurous Discrimination was high against a turbaned Sikh No decent jobs were available to me Finally I got a job at a packinghouse It was hard keeping my head above water while studying at Fresno State Where is Kavita Are we destined to be together Memoir and Perspectives of an Urban Public School Principal on Public Education Reform Jackson Windom III, 2012-11-29 Memoir and Perspectives of an Urban Public School Principal on Public Education Reform A Primer on School Leadership and Public Schools Advocacy Book Summary The book contributes to the national discourse on public education It develops the reader s perspective in a framework defined by the state constitutional mandate to educate our youth as a compelling state interest the public's trust prevailing myths imbedded in education issues and the public education bureaucracy as an agent of state government The impact of the bureaucracy labor management agreements and certification programs on school leadership and classroom teaching is illuminated by analysis argument and practical experience The book concludes with recommendations for reform and an appeal for broad support of our public schools

Teaching with One Eye Shut Marques Vickers, Michael McCaffrey has lost his teaching idealism but not pragmatism towards his profession Teaching with One Eye Shut escorts you into the classroom faculty room sanctuary and campus grounds of St Elizabeth St Ignacious SESI a northern California Catholic high School Your host McCaffrey is an eight year business instructor beyond the burnout stage and uncertain as to his future in the profession His turmoil carries over into his personal life and relationships McCaffrey shares his clear eyed observations about classroom instruction discipline peers and the bureaucracy accompanying teaching He dismisses imposed school administration artificial team building tactics For him teachers are individuals expressing their point of view on subject matters as they visualize it Peer's advice and Principals are of marginal value His evaluations are often cutting and dismissive They are balanced by periodic inspiring and surprising heroics emerging from unlikely sources McCaffrey seemingly has an unflinching opinion about everyone and especially himself His students can be a distracted and devouring audience but he is genuinely appreciated He introduces the reader into the authentic and sometimes erratic nature of classroom lecture and discussion His teaching subjects include technology marketing and law His students responses address more poignant issues including racism home life and their futures beyond schooling The deeper exchanges are often conducted between classes or emerge amidst casual conversations and daily interactions McCaffrey addresses timely issues over the success and shortcomings of contemporary education He concludes that society comfortably maintains misplaced priorities and ignorance towards education and its practitioners He takes issue with uninvolved parents who drop their children off like dirty laundry and expect a private institution to cleanse them of their bad habits while educating them He maintains that Catholic education is distinct and different from public schools His conclusion is based on expected behavioral accountability and reinforced discipline rather than superior personal facilities and educational techniques A school's objective remains to stimulate a graduating class of lifelong learners This lofty goal is tested daily by certain under achieving troubled and unmotivated students neurotic faculty members and hamstrung by trifling misdirected rules McCaffrey notes that victories surface when his contemporaries enable students to navigate the tenuous labyrinth of adolescence and learning His varied observations encompass teacher liability absence policies and career burnout objective grading classroom discipline school fundraising compensation athletic programs peer gossip and pranks equipment deficiencies and dress codes McCaffrey is SESI's acknowledged faculty satirist who zealously guards his private time absent of extra curricular supervisions He is never a perennial candidate for Teacher of the Year honors His cast of instructional intimates and foils include basketball coach and confident Rich Ringer siren Suzzi Issacs milquetoast Dennis Greeley incompetent Alex Orrigo misdirected Tim Lovelace mumbling Principal Brother Moody and a colorful parade of diverse and eclectic personalities A variety of candid and favorite students are introduced with the irrepressible Ralphie Houwser heading the list McCaffrey feels trapped by his inability to move forward with his life A year ending interaction with one of his peers offers him hope Will a Parisian rendezvous on Bastille Day become his ultimate liberation from professional and personal stagnation Teaching with One Eye Shut addresses the fragile and volatile role of mentors and educators McCaffrey s memoir offers a realistic and humorous view of the realities behind high school instructing spiced by his periodic exaggerations Radicals, Volume 2 Meredith Stabel,Zachary Turpin,2021-06-15 In Radicals Volume 2 Memoir Essays and Oratory selections span from early works like Sarah Mapps Douglass s anti slavery appeal A Mother s Love 1832 and Maria W Stewart s Address Delivered at the African Masonic Hall 1833 to Zitkala Sa s memories in The Land of Red Apples 1921 and Charlotte Perkins Gilman s moving final essay The Right to Die 1935 In between readers will discover a whole host of vibrant and challenging lesser known texts that are rarely collected today Some indeed have been out of print for more than a century Memoir of Professional Social Workers Dr. Kamlesh Kumar Sahu,Dr Chittaranjan Subudhi,2023-02-24 The Memoir of Professional Social Workers is the second volume of the book Work and Life of the Professional Social Worker published by the Indian Society of Professional Work ISPSW in the year 2022 We hope this will motivate other professional social workers to write about their own life experiences by themselves or someone else whom they know Their in depth experience and enriched knowledge will be advantageous for other professional social workers to learn from their life The current volume two has fifteen scholarly articles from eminent social work professionals both educators and practitioners across the country A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant Rodwell,2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia s G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool Memories of Mountain Home School Jesse Carl Stepp,2011-08-05 This book MEMORIES OF MOUNTAIN HOME SCHOOL is a personal journey by a former student a labor of love Part 1 traces the evolution of the school from a one room one teacher school teaching grades one through eight to become a rural consolidated school teaching a fully accredited high school curriculum to its sad decline and closure brought about by dramatic socio economic changes that took place following WWII The author draws from original sources to capture the role of the school in the lives of early settlers prior to Oklahoma statehood and during the years of rapid settlement and political turmoil following Oklahoma statehood through WWI It describes dedicated work to continue upgrading the school during the economically static years of the 1920s and the years of brutal economic decline during the Great Depression to form a fully accredited rural high school After becoming fully accredited in 1941 Mountain Home School enjoyed its years of greatest achievements during the 1940s Then decline brought about by rapidly declining population set in in the early 1950s leading to closure of the school in 1958 Part 2 is the personal memories contributed by 56 former Mountain Home School students Their span the period from the early 1930s to the closure of the school in 1958 These wonderful personal memories convey the spirit and achievements of the school and the spirit and shared values of those who learned there The Legacy: A Memoir Jean Barr,2022-11-28 Jean Barr opens the antique chest she inherited from her great great uncle Alexander and unravels the strands of his life as an evangelical Presbyterian minister in late nineteenth century Italy unpacking the cover ups in Britain s history of Empire Memoir of Wiliam Ellery Channing, with Extracts from His Correspondence and Manuscripts. [The Preface Signed: W. H. C., I.e. William Henry Channing. With a Portrait.] W. H. C.,1848 Memoir of William Ellery Channing William Ellery Channing,1848 Chai Budesh? Anyone for Tea?: A Peace Corps Memoir of Turkmenistan Joan Heron,2008-09-08 She was a sixty two year old California grandmother retired program director and college professor when she joined the Peace Corps Within months Joan Heron found herself in Turkmenistan a small impoverished country born out of the collapse of the Soviet Union Using meager resources a beginner s grasp of the Russian language tremendous trust in friendship and a can do will Ms Heron embarks on a two year adventure in an alien male chauvinist often obstructionist environment Her compelling true story told with humor and immense compassion for the people and their plight reaches across borders cultures and politics to illuminate the strength and riches of the human spirit A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek,2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek s narrative begins with the author s childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his

doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories ENDORSEMENTS Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author's long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors' stories in his grandfather's grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek's more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form Ed Janak University of Toledo

MEMORIES of One-Room Schools Lorraine Jorgensen-Zimney, 2014 Hopefully MEMORIES of One Room Schools will be enjoyed by anyone that ever attended these schools knows of anyone that did or is interested in history Some of the things included are a brief history of one room schools and the special state program that was legislated to solve the teacher shortage Some topics covered in the book are the different languages spoken sporadic attendance clothes worn hickory stick discipline getting to and from school sleigh bob sled rides horses ridden to and from school where the teacher stayed water for the school building and banking fires schoolhouse pests outhouses lard or syrup lunch pails snowbound at the school house subject taught spelling bees YCL song special days school picnics description of classroom and some of the recess and indoor games played by the students But the highlight of the book is the humorous interesting memories of former students parents and friends Baked potatoes and the game Anti I Over appear to be favorite memories Glimmers of Hope : A Memoir of Zambia Mark Burke, 2009-11-11 The true story of a London schoolteacher who tired of the rat race and brooding over a failed relationship uproots and volunteers to teach in rural Africa for two years Sent to the Republic of Zambia with a remit to teach maths HIV and Gender awareness he finds eager pupils struggling in a challenging environment In between battling snakes stomach bugs and death defying bus journeys he finds both hope in unusual places and corruption where he least expects This memoir is both a recollection of his more vivid memories of eastern province and his reflections on problems in Zambia and their possible causes It is also a useful study of the physical and psychological challenges that a volunteer may face in Africa

At Home and at Large in the Great Plains: Essays and Memories Paul Johnsgard, 2015
These fourteen essays originally appeared in Prairie Fire a monthly newspaper that for seven years has carried important messages of social environmental and economic issues to residents of Nebraska Iowa Colorado and South Dakota and subscribers in the rest of the world They discuss the North American east west ecological boundaries spring migration events bird feeders feathered survivors of a glacial past the threatened sharp tailed grouse the effects of climate change some sacred places Aransas National Wildlife Refuge the Ashfall Fossil Beds Squaw Creek Refuge the Hutton Niobrara Ranch Sanctuary and Yellowstone National Park our troubles with mountain lions and grizzly bears and crane season in Wyoming There is also an expanded informal autobiography My Life in Biology and a current and comprehensive list of all publications of a writer described as probably the world s most prolific living author of ornithological and natural history literature

Empathy and Impact: Memoir of an Educator Joan Gordon Finch, 2022-03-21 Frustrated with paperwork testing time demands limited support difficult relationships with parents and feeling insecure about your ability to succeed as a teacher in the classroom Teaching children with exceptionalities is a difficult task not totally because of the children s needs but also because of the additional demands of the required documentation and legal restrictions This book explores what to do when the job becomes overwhelming and how teachers can reignite their passion for their profession The year 2020 was the forty fifth anniversary of the Education for All Handicapped Children Act now IDEA and the thirtieth anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act ADA Dr Joan Finch has served a significant role in all the stages of these legal mandates and their impact on individuals with special needs for the past forty five years Through intense study and remarkable timing she became an expert in the field of special education and her entire career path runs parallel to the legal and societal changes occurring in America in regard to individuals with disabilities The laws and attitudes around her have shifted significantly but her desire to inspire students and teachers alike has never wavered
