The Longing for Myth in Germany George S. Williamson, 2004-07 Since the dawn of Romanticism artists and intellectuals in Germany have maintained an abiding interest in the gods and myths of antiquity while calling for a new mythology suitable to the modern age In this study George S Williamson examines the factors that gave rise to this distinct and profound longing for myth In doing so he demonstrates the entanglement of aesthetic and philosophical ambitions in Germany with some of the major religious conflicts of the nineteenth century Through readings of key intellectuals ranging from Herder and Schelling to Wagner and Nietzsche Williamson highlights three crucial factors in the emergence of the German engagement with myth the tradition of Philhellenist neohumanism a critique of contemporary aesthetic and public life as dominated by private interests and a rejection of the Bible by many Protestant scholars as the product of a foreign Oriental culture According to Williamson the discourse on myth in Germany remained bound up with problems of Protestant theology and confessional conflict through the nineteenth century and beyond A compelling adventure in intellectual history this study uncovers the foundations of Germany's fascination with myth and its enduring cultural legacy Longing for More Ruth Haley Barton, 2010-04-07 Ruth Haley Barton looks at the complexity of women's lives and how women experience spiritual transformation Underneath all the confusion is a longing for freedom not the freedom to do as we please but the freedom to discover our full identity in Christ and use our gifts to serve him Longing for Spring Elaine A Heath, Scott T Kisker, 2011-05-26 Delving into the widespread contemporary longing for a more serious and communal experience of Christianity this book provides important theoretical underpinnings and casts a vision for a new monasticism within the Wesleyan tradition Elaine Heath and Scott Kisker call for the planting of neo-monastic churches which embody the Wesleyan vision of holiness in postmodern contexts This book also points toward some vital shifts that are necessary in theological education in order to equip pastors to lead such communities Longing for Spring helps Wesleyans of all stripes understand the theory and praxis necessary for planting neo monastic communities as a new model of the church that is particularly important in the postmodern context The authors write in an engaging conversational style that is conversant with postmodern culture yet thoroughly informed by critical research Heath and Kisker boldly challenge the imagination of the church both within and beyond Wesleyan traditions to consider the possibility of revitalizing the church through the new monasticism

Hitting the Ball You Cannot See Jurie Kriel, NXT Move Community, 2025-09-09 In a world defined by unprecedented change the very foundations of society are shifting leaving many disoriented and searching for direction Technology is rewriting what it means to be human Trust is collapsing in our institutions and relationships Communities are more connected and yet more fragmented than ever For many leaders it feels like trying to swing at a ball you cannot see unpredictable invisible and moving faster than you can track Hitting the Ball You Cannot See is both a prophetic wake up call and a practical field guide for Christian leaders seeking to navigate this new reality with clarity courage and faith It challenges us not to retreat into what's familiar but to pioneer boldly into the unknown trusting that God is already present in the future we are stepping into Born out of global conversations with leaders across every continent this book explores the profound shifts shaping the next era of Christian faith and leadership the redefinition of humanity in light of technology the rise of digital existence the collapse of trust the changing dimensions of organization the shifting degrees of separation and the rediscovery of belonging Each chapter highlights one of these critical shifts and pairs it with a practical leadership skill anticipating the unseen rebuilding trust cultivating collaboration embracing innovation and more This is not a book of abstract trends or academic theory It is a compass for leaders in every sphere of society pastors educators non profit leaders entrepreneurs and next gen pioneers who are determined to remain rooted in Christ while leading into an uncertain future Through vivid metaphors wisdom from global practitioners and deeply theological reflections readers are equipped to move beyond reacting to cultural disruption and instead anticipate innovate and disciple faithfully in the midst of it Reflection questions at the end of each chapter make this more than a book to read it is a conversation to join a movement to be part of and a call to personal and communal transformation In these pages you'll wrestle with questions such as Are we swinging at where the ball used to be or where it's headed How do we disciple in a digital age without losing depth How do we build intergenerational teams rooted in authenticity and trust What does it mean to pioneer kingdom innovation in a rapidly unraveling world Hitting the Ball You Cannot See offers hope direction and a vision for the future of Jesus following It reminds us that while the world may feel unpredictable God's Kingdom is unshakable This is how we lead into the future This is how we swing by faith not by sight

Practicing Passion Kenda Creasy Dean, 2004-04-26 Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church

East Coast Hospitality Melody Maxwell, 2025-04-17 Canada's East Coast has a reputation for hospitality Atlantic Canadians are thought to be warm and friendly stopping to take the time to greet neighbours on the street and to give directions to strangers As a predominantly rural region Canada's East Coast can exude small town charm Even its cities can have a homey feel mostly absent from the bustling streets of Toronto or Vancouver But is this hospitality more than skin deep and does it apply to the thousands of newcomers who have moved to Atlantic Canada in recent years from around the world The chapters of this book explore these and related questions They examine whether the famed East Coast hospitality still exists or ever really existed at all

Christianity and COVID-19 Chammah J. Kaunda, Atola Longkumer, Kenneth R. Ross, Esther Mombo, 2021-12-30 This volume explores current understandings of the global meaning of faith and suffering in the context of COVID 19 and interrogates responses to the pandemic that have emerged from World Christianity It includes chapters by a range of international contributors approached from a variety of angles within the Global Christian theology They provide reflections and analyses focused on the question of God human suffering structural injustice the role of the church and Christian praxis in the milieu of COVID 19 where misery and dying are daily routine This book will be of interest to scholars of Missiology World Christianity biblical public contextual theology and various contemporary Christian studies

Nostalgia and Sexual Difference (RLE Feminist Theory) Janice Doane, DEVON HODGES, 2013-05-20 Dissatisfaction with the present can cause people to gaze nostalgically back to an idealized past that nostalgia pervades contemporary rhetoric In lamenting the degeneracy of present day America social and literary critics as well as contemporary novelists often choose as their scapegoat the women's movement and its increasing influence Doane and Hodges show us how these social observers seek to reinstate America and American values in ways that overtly or covertly do battle with the feminist movement for control of rhetoric the power of language

How Am I Going to Grow Up? Enoch Wong, 2022-01-04 Second generation Chinese Canadian evangelicals inhabit a complex liminal space positioned between the world of their parents and broader Canadian society In this study Dr Enoch Wong explores the silent exodus of these Canadian born Chinese from their parents churches tracing their journeys to negotiate their cultural ethnic and faith identities for themselves Utilizing both sociology of religion and leadership studies Wong's research engages Robert Greenleaf's concept of foresight in servant leadership to examine the role of church leaders in mediating or failing to mediate these transitions for children raised in immigrant churches This multi case inquiry offers insight into the concerns of Canadian born Chinese evangelicals and the cultural and generational conflicts that prompt them to search for new communities capable of understanding their identities and supporting their yearnings whether inside or outside of the church

Healing the Divide, Tenth Anniversary Edition Amos Smith, 2024-05-17 Healing the Divide is a bold call to understand Jesus according to the earliest lineage of Christian Mystics a call to transform our dualistic minds and heal a divided church This book is a must read if you find yourself frustrated by the fundamentalist and new age polarization of twenty first century Christianity bewildered by religious pluralism or searching for Christianity's elusive mystic core of Saint Rose of Lima Dominic John,2025-10-20 In a quiet home in Lima Peru a little girl began to hear the whisper of heaven Her name was Rose and her soul burned with love for Christ The True Story and Life of Saint Rose of Lima tells the breathtaking story of a humble mystic whose purity and devotion made her the first saint of the Americas Rejecting wealth comfort and even beauty Rose dedicated her entire life to prayer fasting and service to the poor Her home became a sanctuary of healing her garden a place of miracles and her heart a living altar of sacrifice As visions of Jesus and the Virgin Mary filled her days she carried the weight of others suffering with radiant joy This inspiring Catholic biography invites you into the secret garden of a soul who lived wholly for God It s a portrait of divine love in its purest form quiet hidden but infinitely powerful Saint Rose s story reminds every believer that holiness is not found in status or fame but in surrender If you long for a life of deeper prayer compassion and simplicity Saint Rose of Lima will become your heavenly friend Walk with the saint who bloomed for God alone get your copy and let her story transform your faith Longing for More Blake S.

Hart,2025-06-25 Why do people long for more Why in an age of progress and endless possibilities do so many feel restless fragmented and unfulfilled Longing for More Man s Quest for Meaning and the Hope of Christ explores humanity s enduring search for purpose in a world increasingly marked by disillusionment Blake S Hart masterfully weaves intellectual history philosophy and theology to trace the unraveling of meaning in modernity from the optimism of scientific progress to the existential despair of postmodernism and New Atheism Through the insights of profound thinkers like Dostoevsky Eliot and Frankl readers will grapple with life s deepest questions Voices of restoration such as Chesterton Lewis and Tolkien illuminate the way forward revealing how beauty imagination and faith rekindle meaning in an age of doubt This book is a call to reclaim purpose through faith community and the Christian narrative With practical wisdom and inspiring clarity Longing for More invites readers to rediscover the joy and hope found in Christ equipping them to live as restorers in a world longing for meaning It is an invitation to the greatest journey of all Nostalgia in the Early Modern World Harriet

Lyon,Alexandra Walsham,2023 How can the concept of nostalgia illuminate the culturally specific ways in which societies understand the contested relationship between the past present and future The word nostalgia was invented in the late seventeenth century to describe the debilitating effects of homesickness Now widely defined as a sense of longing for a lost past initially it was more closely linked with dislocation in space By exploring some of its many textual visual and musical manifestations in the tumultuous period between c 1350 and 1800 this volume resists the assumption that nostalgia is a distinctive by product of modernity It also forges a fruitful link between three lively areas of current scholarly enquiry memory temporality and emotion The contributors deploy nostalgia as a tool for investigating perceptions of the passage of time and historical change unsettling experiences of migration and geographical displacement and the connections between remembering and forgetting affect and imagination Ranging across Europe and the Atlantic world they examine the moments sites and communities in which it arose alongside how it was used to express both criticism and regret about the religious political social and cultural upheavals that shaped the early modern world They approach it as a complex mixed feeling that opens a new window into individual subjectivities and collective mentalities

The Mystery Beneath the Real Peter Crafts Hodgson, 2000 Hodgson's sympathetic reading of Eliot's work traces her religious pilgrimage from a strongly evangelical Home through critical humanism to a profound and novel affirmation of the mystery beneath the real It unearths a neglected aspect of 19th century thought

Real Worship Warren W. Wiersbe, 2000-02-01 Respected Bible teacher Warren Wiersbe defines the essence of worship and discusses the key issues surrounding this often controversial topic within the church

Screening Nostalgia Alexandra Ludewig, 2014-03-15 The Heimat film genre assumed to be outdated by so many is very much alive Who would have thought that this genre which has been almost unanimously denounced within academic circles but which seems to resonate so deeply with the general public would experience a renaissance in the 21st century The genre's recent resurgence is perhaps due less to an obsession with generic storylines and stereotyped figures than to a basic human need for grounding that has resulted in a passionate debate about issues of past and present This book traces the history of the Heimat film genre from the early mountain films to Fatih Akin's contemporary interpretations of Heimat

Cultivating Teen Faith Richard R. Osmer, Katherine M. Douglass, 2018-10-25 What are churches doing to form the faith of their young people Many church denominations that practice infant baptism offer confirmation or an equivalent ministry when children reach adolescence and enter a new phase of spiritual growth but all churches regardless of tradition wrestle with how to get young adults to actively join the church What really works In this book twelve authors draw on a three year study of more than three thousand US congregations across five denominations United Methodist Church African Methodist Episcopal Church Episcopal Church Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and Presbyterian Church USA to answer this pressing question They tell stories of excellent and innovative confirmation programs that work and that show above all what good discipleship with young people looks like Youth pastors church leaders and parents alike will benefit from the practices and new ways of teaching presented here that have proven helpful in forming and enhancing the faith of youth Contributors Joy L Arroyo Reginald Blount Kenda Creasy Dean Katherine M Douglass Terri Martinson Elton Lisa Kimball Gordon S Mikoski Kermit Moss Richard R Osmer Kate Harmon Siberine Jacob Sorenson Kate O Unruh

The mission remains!
