Yugoslavia's Wars The Problem From Hell Strategic Studies Institute:

Yugoslavia's Wars, 1995 Yugoslavia's Wars: the Problem from Hell Edited by: Stephen J. Blank, Paul Shoup, James A. Schear, Steven L. Burg, Adolf Carlson, 2013-01-28 By the summer of 1995 it appeared possible that the wars in the former Yugoslavia had reached a climactic point During that summer Croatia's army revealed itself as a professional competent force and recaptured the Krajina territory lost to Serbia in 1991 Though this campaign led to thousands of Serb refugees neither the UN nor the West did anything and indeed it was clear that this offensive enjoyed tacit Western support In August 1995 immediately following this campaign the United States launched its own diplomatic offensive that combined its political standing Croatia's military prowess and NATO bombing of Bosnian Serb positions due to Serb shelling of Sarajevo and other safe havens While the outline of an accord was signed in Geneva on September 8 1995 stating that Bosnia would be a state within its internationally recognized borders and would contain a Serbian entity Republika Srpska that could have ties abroad the bombing continued as the Bosnian Serb military leadership refused to bow to NATO demands for withdrawal of its artillery from the exclusion zone around Sarajevo Thus although a peace accord or the outline of one exists the wars are hardly over and most if not all political issues remain to be settled This most recent turn of events described above reflects the fact that already by June 1995 United States and its allies stood at a dangerous fork in the road in confronting the wars in the former Yugoslavia The truce negotiated in December 1994 never was really effective and by April it had broken down totally In May Croatia launched a new offensive to regain Serbian inhabited territories lost when Serbia invaded in 1991 By doing this Zagreb further exposed the inadequacy of the United Nations Protection Force UNPROFOR the UN mission in Yugoslavia as a force for peacekeeping Since Croatia Bosnia and the Bosnian Serbs were all willing to go on fighting because they believed that they had more to gain from war than they did from any negotiation these events made the position of the UN's forces even more precarious These events by June had led to increased shelling by both sides in the vicinity of Sarajevo and other major Bosnian cities These truce violations further dramatized the helplessness of the UN's forces and once again revealed that they were ultimately hostages to the belligerents' intentions When General Rupert Smith of the United Kingdom UNPROFOR's CINC called for NATO air strikes on the Bosnian Serbs on May 25 26 1995 the Serbs retaliated by making hostages out of the UN soldiers Thus for the second time UNPROFOR found itself in danger of exposure as an ineffective military force Worse yet until the Croatian Army swung into action it seemed as if the Bosnian Serbs would be able to go on defying the world seizing cities conducting massacres and ethnic cleansing and so on with impunity Yugoslavia's Wars: The Problem from Hell, The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts

US-China Strategic Competition Muhammad Ali

Baig,2025-02-18 The book maps the strategic competition between the U S and China its history and the contemporary outlook of their armed forces It analyses the wars fought by each of these forces their military operations operations other than war and draws up a comparative analysis between the military doctrines of both nations The author examines the implications of American and Chinese military doctrine and the varying degrees of cooperation competition and potential conflict in the Western Pacific Finally the book argues for possibilities of cooperation between the two superpowers and suggests ways of minimising potential future conflict The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of international relations military and strategic studies and Asian studies

Central Asian Security Roy Allison,Lena

Jonson,2004-05-13 This volume is the first comprehensive scholarly analysis of the strategic reconfiguration of Central Asia as Russia has become more disengaged from the nations in the region and as these nations have developed new relations to the south east and west The international implications are enormous because of the rich energy sources oil and natural gas located in the Caspian Sea area The authors assess a variety of internal security policy challenges confronting these states for example the potential for conflict arising from such factors as a mixed ethnic population resource scarcity particularly in relation to water management and an Islamic revival They also examine the security policy content of relations between the Central Asian states and regional and international powers specifically the stakes interests and policies of Russia China Iran Turkey and the United States These internal challenges and the evolution of relations with external powers may result in new cooperative relationships but they may also lead to destabilizing rivalry and interstate enmity in Central Asia It is important to identify new patterns of relevance for future security cooperation in the region but the potential for a new security system or for new institutions to manage security in the region remains uncertain These issues are explored by a team of prominent specialists from Western Europe the United States Russia and China

The Bush Administration (1989-1993) and the Development of a European Security Identity Sophie Vanhoonacker,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 This compelling study draws insightful conclusions about US foreign policy towards Europe at a critical juncture in the post Cold War period An absorbing and illuminating account this material will be useful to non specialists and student readers of US foreign policy European integration and international relations alike European Security and NATO Enlargement: a View from Central Europe , Terrorism and Peacekeeping Volker Franke,2005-01-30 Over the last decade asymmetric warfare and terrorism have become prevalent threats to the United States National security today more than at any other time demands decision making under uncertainty The issues presented in this book demonstrate that the value of planning depends upon how well the United States can prepare for a perpetually unpredictable future Each chapter examines pertinent management leadership and accountability issues related to U S national security and places readers at the center of difficult decisions Although the cases collected in this volume revolve around national security related policy questions they also illustrate more general policy dilemmas and are designed to stimulate new ideas Journal of Conflict Studies ,1996 Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Volume III Rusko Matuli?,1998 American Foreign Policy and Treaty Index ,1996 Balkan Studies ,2003 Diplomacy and Conflict Resolution in the Middle East ,1997 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1996 Conflictos internos Mariano Bartolomé,Emilio Jorge Cárdenas,Instituto de Investigación sobre Seguridad y Crimen Organizado,1999 Der Bürgerkrieg in Bosnien-Herzegowina (1992-1997) Hans Krech,1997 Europäische Rundschau ,2012 Orient ,1998 Blue Helmets John Hillen,2000 This critically acclaimed book has been updated to include recent and possible future peacekeeping missions in East Timor the Democratic Republic of the Congo Sierra Leone Kosovo and elsewhere In an increasingly volatile world Blue Helmets should be required reading for all students of international relations BOOK JACKET
