approach to philosophy through the reading of primary sources In ten chapters organized by the important questions of life that philosophers seek to answer the text presents students with a broad array of classic and contemporary readings that will foster their understanding of the world and challenge them to critically evaluate issues African Philosophy Lee M. Brown, 2004-01-15 In the last two decades the idea of African Philosophy has undergone significant change and scrutiny Some critics have maintained that the idea of a system of philosophical thought tied to African traditions is incoherent In African Philosophy Lee Brown has collected new essays by top scholars in the field that in various ways respond to these criticisms and defend the notion of African Philosophy The essays address both epistemological and metaphysical issues that are specific to the traditional conceptual languages of sub Saharan Africa The primary focus of the collection is on traditional African conceptions of topics like mind person personal identity truth knowledge understanding objectivity destiny free will causation and reality The contributors who include Leke Adeofe Kwame Anthony Appiah Lee Brown Segun Gbadegesin D A Masolo Albert Mosley Ifeanyi Menkiti and Kwasi Wiredu incorporate concerns from various African philosophical traditions including Akan Azande Bokis Igbo Luo and Yoruba African Philosophy ultimately tries to bring a more rigorous conception of African philosophy into fruitful contact with Western philosophical concerns specifically in the philosophies of psychology mind science and language as well as in metaphysics and epistemology It will appeal to both scholars and students The Philosophy of Curatorial Practice Sue Spaid, 2020-10-15 This book walks us through the process of how artworks eventually get their meaning showing us how curated exhibitions invite audience members to weave an exhibition's narrative threads which gives artworks their contents and discursive sense Arguing that exhibitions avail artworks as candidates for reception whose meaning value and relevance reflect audience responses it challenges the existing view that exhibitions present already validated candidates for appreciation Instead this book stresses the collaborative nature of curatorial practices debunking the twin myths of autonomous artists and sovereign artistic directors and treating presentation and reception as separate processes Employing set theory to distinguish curated exhibitions from uncurated exhibitions installation art and collections it demonstrates how exhibitions grant spectators access to concepts that aid their capacity to grasp artifacts as artworks To inform and illuminate current debates in curatorial practice Spaid draws on a range of case studies from Impressionism Dada and Surrealism to more contemporary exhibitions such as Maurizio Cattelan All 2011 and Damien Hirst 2012 In articulating the process that cycles through exploration interpretation presentation and reception curating bears resemblance to artistic direction more generally The Epistemology of Comparative Philosophy Joseph Kaipayil, 1995
