From Victims to Survivors, Stories of Healing & Hope

The Robert L. Patton Detention Center in Lakeland, Georgia, was once the racially integrated elementary school Davonna Livingston attended from 1974-1977. Prior to desegregation, the building was used to school the county's African-American children who were not allowed to attend the "whites only" public schools.

Voices Behind The Razorwire:

Life Lessons from Behind the Razor Wire Sheba Harris, 2009-10 Sheba Harris has spent the last ten years in jail But it s not quite what you think As a nurse Sheba has worked in a variety of correctional facilities from the from the smallest county jail to some of the largest penitentiaries in the country Believing her career is a calling from on high she walks among some of the worst of the worst every day She has given care to a variety of criminals from drunk drivers to convicted murders and child molesters care the general public would rather ignore This care ranges from the common ailments of headaches and nausea to full blown mental disorders and even spiritual distress A collection of entertaining and informative stories author Sheba Harris Behind the Razor Wire gives a rare look at those individuals who live sometimes for years or a lifetime in America s correctional system Each individual has his or her own unique problems Some are harder to teach than others but there is a lesson to be learned from each and every one Some prisoners learn from their mistakes Others do not at times with lethal consequences Despite the various trials Sheba believes that every experience displays the handiwork of God and readers of all walks will be inspired by the wisdom and insight gained from Behind the Razor Wire First and foremost Sheba McBride Harris is a nurse She has a masters and bachelor degree in nursing and has worked for almost ten years in correctional facilities Married to her high school sweetheart Ms Harris volunteers for several community agencies including the American Cancer Society and local Christian based charities Ms Harris was inducted into the International Honor Society of Nursing and the National Honors Society in 2006

Generosity and Refugees: The Kosovars in Exile Robert Carr, 2018-05-23 Generosity and Refugees The Kosovars in Exile is a work of history studying the social and political context encountered by Kosovar refugees fleeing their homeland to Australia at the height of the NATO led war against Serbian forces in 1999 The flight of the Kosovar refugees changed Australia s asylum seeker policy forever and a new test for international humanitarianism had begun Today refugee crises globally beg the international community to embrace a generosity of spirit A question this book asks is whether there are limits to generosity inhibited by nationally contextual and historical perspectives Generosity and Refugees examines the role of the media in framing public understandings of refugees with intriguing parallels for understanding the contemporary political climate internationally

Refugee Voices in Modern Global History Peter Gatrell, Katarzyna Nowak, Lauren Banko, Anindita Ghoshal, 2025-03-31 Across modern history refugees have articulated their experiences and wishes against the backdrop of mass displacement brought about by world wars civil war revolution population exchange decolonisation and state formation Men and women displaced in different sites from different backgrounds and at different times have played for high stakes they deliberated about what to say and to whom and they sought expected and effected a response Refugee Voices in Modern Global History places refugees at the centre of modern history It demonstrates how ordinary refugees understood their experiences of displacement and engaged with institutions that sought solutions to their predicament Ranging widely across global contexts to establish what refugees had to say and to whom it shows them to have consistently been purposeful actors making it possible to transcend conventional and hackneyed depictions of crisis By adopting the term refugeedom the authors show how the voices and perspectives of refugees can be incorporated alongside the power dynamics associated with the multiple incarnations of the refugee regime that managed refugees and articulated solutions to their predicament Extensive archival research across three continents makes it possible to explain in comparative terms the significance attached to the encounters between refugees and officials in modern Europe South Asia the Middle East East Asia and sub Saharan Africa The result is an original and in depth study of the contrasting responses of refugees to displacement and to the arrangements made on their behalf at a series of critical junctures in the past

Republics of Letters Peter Kirkpatrick, Professor Robert Dixon, 2018-08-30 Republics of Letters Literary Communities in Australia is the first book to explore the notion of literary community or literary sociability in relation to Australian literature

Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia s history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia s indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction s critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series

An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion James Jupp, 2018-04-10 An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion presents Australian traditions myths and legends in an understanding but often critical light in the belief that such devices have often been used by interested parties and even governments to maintain social solidarity and to mould a very complex people into a coherent and obedient whole Australia is not and never has been an equal society It has not always been a peaceful and tolerant society but it is more so than most other states and especially many of those sending immigrants It is not a perfect democracy Many have been mistreated and even persecuted but that most of those suffering at present are either indigenous or refugees should not be a cause of indifference Australians may be suspicious of foreigners and social and political deviants But they have passed a whole series of reforming laws since the Federation in 1901 not all of which have been as racist as the White Australia policy An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion attempts to get a little bit closer to the truth of two hundred years of creating a liveable society in what was a remote and unknown part of the world Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging Vivian Gerrand, 2016-06-13 What happens when Somalis migrate to countries with which they have few cultural ties What helps Somalis to feel at home in their new Western countries of residence Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging explores representations of Somali resettlement to understand the mechanics of contemporary belonging and the challenges faced by Western societies as they attempt to integrate Somali migrants How do particular representations contribute to or detract from Somali belonging In the contexts of Australia and Italy taken as case studies Somalis are marginalised in different ways With a multi disciplinary approach this book examines different forms of Somali representation in Australia and Italy that engender a sense of belonging and expands exclusive definitions of nationhood Islamic Studies Series Volume 21 Australia Anthony Moran, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Jailhouse Confessions: Secrets Behind Bars Amilia P. Razor Wire Women Jodie Michelle Lawston, Ashley E. Lucas, 2011-04-11 Offering nuanced portraits of women's lives inside razor wire and prison walls Razor Wire Women puts incarcerated women in dialogue with scholars, artists, educators, and activists who live outside of prisons but work on issues connected to the prison industrial complex. Women make up the fastest growing group of the U.S. prison population yet prison scholarship largely overlooks the struggles of incarcerated women and their voices are often silenced both in and out of the prison infrastructure. From the vantage points of those both inside and outside of prisons, this collection of essays and art illuminates many of the distinct experiences and concerns of incarcerated women, including those of girls in prison, abuse and rape, the policing of women, incarcerated motherhood, mental health issues in prisons, incarcerated women's artistic and cultural production, and prisons' impact on families' health and sexuality. Combining the transcendence, hope, and clarity of art with powerful analytical and conceptual tools, Razor Wire Women reveals the gendered dimensions of the incarceration now experienced by a growing number of women in the U.S.
